Listen to the Golden Boomerang Return Ca Conrad, 2024 Following their book AMANDA PARADISE Resurrect Extinct Vibration winner of the PEN and the Ruth Lilly Prize for Poetry CA Conrad's Listen to the Golden Boomerang Return shifts its attention from the previous book's focus on communing with animals who are extinct toward communicating and caring for animals still living among us Recalling the historical and symbolic significance of the boomerang as an instrument of return these poems emerged from a somatic poetry ritual in which the author wrote to animals who have found ways to thrive in the Anthropocene resulting in sculptural poems that are both hopeful and cautionary as they emerge organically from the bottom of each page Guided by the urge to desire the world as it is not as it was CA Conrad writes from an ecopoetics that is generous and galvanizing reminding us of how our present attentions collectively shape a future humanity

The Figure of the Shaman in Contemporary British Poetry Shamsad Mortuza, 2014-08-11 This genealogical study focuses on the work of five contemporary British poets in order to locate them in a counter cultural tradition that is informed by strategic responses to state terrorism It identifies some historical moments of ruptures such as the persecution of the Celtic druids by the Romans the killing of the Welsh bards by Edward I the appropriation of bardic materials by Romantic poets writing in a post French Revolution era and the beatnik response to a post World War bipolar world in order to contextualise and discuss the poets of British Poetry Revival writing under Thatcherism Drawing on Mircea Eliade's notion of shamanism as archaic techniques of ecstasy these poets have transformed Eliade's version of the shaman's elective trauma and enacted a critical rejection of totalitarian tools of the state and society Categorised as the Technicians of the Sacred and the Technicians of the Body these shamanic poets include Iain Sinclair Jeremy Prynne Brian Catling Barry MacSweeney and Maggie O Sullivan Their poetic strategy is not a New Age fad it rather investigates and inventories the hidden energies of past and present to wrest spirituality away from the confines of religion and politics while embodying it in textual praxis

Writing on sheep William Welstead, 2021-05-25 Sheep are marginalised in literary criticism and in discussion of pastoral literature This book brings an animal studies approach to poetry about sheep that allows for the agency of these sentient beings that have been associated for humans over ten thousand years This approach highlights the distinction between wild and domesticated species and the moral dilemma between the goals of animal welfare and those of saving species from extinction Discussion of mostly contemporary poetry follows a new reading of works from the pastoral and georgic canon Allowing for the sentience and sociality of this species makes it easier to imagine a natureculture within which to make kin across the species boundary Reading poetry about sheep has the power to make new meanings as we try to adapt to an increasingly complex and problematic environment The Art of Red Poetry Red Poet,2011-07-28 The Art of Red Poetry a series of poetry meant to question the individual of today's world The color red based the theme of the craft seeing that Red is the color that represents many aspects and factors we live by such as Love Hate War Passion Blood Fire etc This is the 1st of many and the beginning to the end Ladies and Gentlemen Kings and Queens My friends This is The Art of Red Poetry The Writings in Prose and Poetry: Literary essays James Russell Lowell,1890 Poems That Touch the Heart A.L. Alexander,2012-02-08 With over 650 000 copies in print Poems That Touch The Heart is America's most popular collection of inspirational verse Reading Across the Pacific Robert Dixon,Nicholas Birns,2010 Reading Across the Pacific is a study of literary and cultural engagement between the United States and Australia from a contemporary interdisciplinary perspective The book examines the relations of the two countries shifting the emphasis from the broad cultural patterns that are often compared to the specific networks interactions and crossings that have characterised Australian literature in the United States and American literature in Australia In the 21st century both American and Australian literatures are experiencing new challenges to the very different paradigms of literary history and criticism each inherited from the 20th century In response to these challenges scholars of both literatures are seizing the opportunity to reassess and reconfigure the conceptual geography of national literary spaces as they are reformed by vectors that evade or exceed them including the transnational the local and the global The essays in Reading Across the Pacific are divided into five sections National literatures and transnationalism Poetry and poetics Literature and popular culture The Cold War and Publishing history and transpacific print cultures The Cure of Poetry in an Age of Prose Mary Kinzie,1993-07-15 The role of the poet Mary Kinzie writes is to engage the most profound subjects with the utmost in expressive clarity The role of the critic is to follow the poet word for word into the arena where the creative struggle occurs How this mutual purpose is served ideally and practically is the subject of this bracingly polemical collection of essays A distinguished poet and critic Kinzie assesses poetry's situation during the past twenty five years Ours she contends is literally a prosaic age not only in the popularity of prose genres but in the resultant compromises with truth and elegance in literature In essays on the rhapsodic fallacy confessionalism and the romance of perceptual response Kinzie diagnoses some of the trends that diminish the poet's flexibility Conversely she also considers individual poets Randall Jarrell Elizabeth Bishop Howard Nemerov Seamus Heaney and John Ashbery who have found ingenious ways of averting the risks of prosaism and preserving the special character of poetry Focusing on poet Louise Bogan and novelist J M Coetzee Kinzie identifies a crucial and curative overlap between the practices of great prose writing and great poetry In conclusion she suggests a new approach for teaching writers of poetry and fiction Forcefully argued these essays will be widely read and debated among critics and poets alike
