The Bothie:

Epic Herbert F. Tucker, 2012-11-29 Literary history has conventionally viewed Milton as the last real practitioner of the epic in English verse Herbert Tucker's spirited book shows that the British tradition of epic poetry was unbroken from the French Revolution to World War I The Cambridge Introduction to Victorian Poetry Linda K. Hughes, 2010-05-20 Victorian poetry was read and enjoyed by a much larger audience than is sometimes thought Publication in widely circulating periodicals reprinting in book reviews and excerpting in novels and essays ensured that major poets such as Tennyson Browning Hardy and Rossetti were household names and they remain popular today The Cambridge Introduction to Victorian Poetry provides an accessible overview of British poetry from 1830 to 1901 paying particular attention to its role in mass media print culture Designed to interest both students and scholars the book traces lively dialogues between poets and explains poets' choices of form style and language It also demonstrates poetry's relevance to Victorian debates on science social justice religion imperialism and art Featuring a glossary of literary terms a guide to further reading and two examples of close readings of Victorian poems this introduction is the ideal starting point for the study of verse in the nineteenth century Finno-Ugric, Siberian [mythology] Uno Harva, 1927 Gairloch in North-west Ross-shire John Henry Dixon, 1886

The Living Age, 1863 Ecology and the Literature of the British Left H. Gustav Klaus, Valentine Cunningham, 2016-04-29 Premised on the belief that a social and an ecological agenda are compatible this collection offers readings in the ecology of left and radical writing from the Romantic period to the present While early ecocriticism tended to elide the bitter divisions within and between societies recent practitioners of ecofeminism environmental justice and social ecology have argued that the social the economic and the environmental have to be seen as part of the same process Taking up this challenge the contributors trace the origins of an environmental sensibility and of the modern left to their roots in the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries charting the ways in which the literary imagination responds to the political industrial and agrarian revolutions Topics include Samuel Taylor Coleridge's credentials as a green writer the interaction between John Ruskin's religious and political ideas and his changing view of nature William Morris and the Garden City movement H G Wells and the Fabians the devastated landscapes in the poetry and fiction of the First World War and the leftist pastoral poetry of the 1930s In historicizing and connecting environmentally sensitive literature with socialist thought these essays explore the interactive vision of nature and society in the work of writers ranging from William Wordsworth and John Clare to John Berger and John Burnside Mid-Victorian Studies Geoffrey Tillotson, Kathleen Tillotson, 2014-01-13 This collection of lectures broadcasts reviews and articles several of which have not previously been published embraces many aspects of the English literary scene in the middle of the nineteenth century Though various in origin the collection has this unity it has been the constant concern of its authors for many years that the great and lasting contribution of the mid Victorian period to our literature should be fully vindicated and its appraisal based upon secure foundations of critical scholarship The book has moreover an obvious connection with the volume on the mid nineteenth century which the Tillotsons are preparing for the Oxford History of English Literature though the items included here are not samples of that history but rather milestones or halting places in the several ways that lead towards it There are important studies of Carlyle John Henry Newman Tennyson Clough Matthew Arnold and George Eliot These however represent only one side of the book's interest for there are accounts of writers famous in their day as Harriett Mozley and Charlotte M Yonge but since the cross currents at work in the period notably Writers and Readers in 1851 which vividly convey much of the quality of the momentous years in which so many masterpieces were produced At several points indeed the volume demonstrates that the truth about the literature of the nineteenth century in distinction for the most part to that of earlier centuries may be recovered complete

Poetry in the Making Daniel Tyler, 2021 An edited collection on poetic creation in the Victorian period that studies nine major Victorian poets Wordsworth Tennyson Robert and Elizabeth Barrett Browning Clough Christina Rossetti Hopkins Swinburne and Yeats

Littell's Living Age, 1863 Gardening World Illustrated, 1901

The Nineteenth Century and After, 1922 Arthur Hugh Clough Michael Thorpe, 2013-01-11 The Critical Heritage gathers together a large body of critical sources on major figures in literature Each volume presents contemporary responses to a writer's work enabling students and researchers to read the material themselves

Fraser's Magazine for Town and Country James Anthony Froude, John Tulloch, 1849 Contains the first printing of Sartor resartus as well as other works by Thomas Carlyle

Fraser's Magazine for Town and Country, 1849 The Cambridge Companion to Victorian Poetry Joseph Bristow, 2000-10-26 This Companion to Victorian Poetry provides an introduction to many of the pressing issues that absorbed the attention of poets from the 1830s to the 1890s It introduces readers to a range of topics including historicism patriotism prosody and religious belief The thirteen specially commissioned chapters offer insights into the works of well known figures such as Matthew Arnold Robert Browning and Alfred Tennyson and the writings of women poets like Michael Field Amy Levy and Augusta Webster whose contribution to Victorian culture has in more recent years been acknowledged by modern scholars Revealing the breadth of the Victorians' experiments with poetic form this Companion also discloses the extent to which their writings addressed the prominent intellectual and social questions of the day The volume which will be of interest to scholars and students alike features a detailed chronology of the Victorian period and a comprehensive guide to further reading

Victorian Poetry and Modern Life Natasha Moore, 2015-12-26 Faced with the chaos and banality of modern everyday life a number of Victorian poets sought innovative ways of writing about the unpoetic present in their verse Their varied efforts are recognisably akin not least in their development of mixed verse forms that fused novel and epic to create something equal to the miscellaneousness of the age

The Major Victorian Poets: Reconsiderations (Routledge Revivals) Isobel Armstrong, 2013-06-17 First published in 1969 this edition collection brings together a series of essays offering a re-evaluation of Victorian poetry in the light of early 20th Century criticism The essays in this collection concentrate upon the poets whose reputations suffered from the great redirection of energy in English criticism initiated in this century by Eliot Richards and Leavis What theses poets wrote about the values they expressed the form of the poems the language they used all these were examined and found wanting in some radical way One of the results of this criticism was the renewal of interest in metaphysical and eighteenth century poetry and corresponding ebb of enthusiasm for Romantic poetry and for Victorian poetry in particular Most of the essays in this book take as their starting point questions raised by the debate on Victorian poetry both earlier in this century and in the more recent past There are essays on the poetry of Tennyson Browning and Arnold on that of Clough who until recently has been neglected and Hopkins because of rather than in spite of the fact that he is usually considered to be a modern poet The volume is especially valuable in that it will give a clearer understanding of the nature of Victorian poetry concentrating as it does on those areas of a poet's work where critical discussion seems most necessary

Masterpieces of the World's Literature, Ancient and Modern ... Harry Thurston Peck, Frank R. Stockton, Julian Hawthorne, 1899      Atlantic Republic Paul Giles, 2006-11-23 Publisher description      The poems of Arthur Hugh Clough, with a memoir by C.E. Norton Arthur Hugh Clough, 1862
