The Bottom Feeders Some Call Us White Trash:

The Bottom Feeders Gene Taylor, 2004-03-01 VIETNAM SUMMARY 2003 MESSAGE The soldier is a warrior and must live by a code A sentry for America who stands between slavery and freedom for his family and love ones Soldiers kill people and soldiers get killed They die for their country In reality they fight for each other They train day and night for months and years Soldiers honor serve and obey America and hold her above all others Can I rationalize a war where 60% to 70% of the casualties were civilians Did those children women and old people have to die Why There is no glamour or honor in war I love thee dear so much love I not honor more Open the gates and fools rush in Once a Fool America the beautiful from sea to shining sea The movies make war look so glorious and when your first friend is killed you know it was all a lie After you get over the initial shock you're torn between elation and guilt Elation because it wasn't you who was killed and guilt for even thinking that way All any man wants is to leave this world with a little dignity believing that somehow he made a difference Just maybe this is a better place because he was a visitor here for a brief period He hopes to be remembered for the good deeds and forgotten for the embarrassing moments when expectations were not met However one is remembered as a whole being good and bad You come into this world in less than a spectacular way more often through pain No clothes crying smacked on the bottom complaining and very helpless Many of us leave this world in the same way minus the smacked bottom A few Americans refused service induction and paid a price Other Americans went to Vietnam and paid a greater price Did over 58 000 Americans have to die in Vietnam We who made it home must speak for them by making a contribution a difference I became a school teacher to affect the way young people think If we are to survive our leaders can not make the same historical mistakes I hope the Vietnam people will someday forgive me If I am to turn the page of my life and live I must forgive all those who have trespassed against me There will be a time when I can forgive the United States Government from President Kennedy to Henry Kissinger for sending American soldiers to Vietnam Yes I am over fifty now I must forgive and forget the Vietnam experience so I can move on with my life A soldier should not feel sorry for himself No one cares he is alone in his world Soldiers were in Vietnam completing service obligations when Once a Man—Twice a Boy George Boldt, 2016-01-18 George Boldt was born in Clayton New York a village with approximately eighteen hundred citizens nearly as many dogs and two seasons August and winter Throughout his childhood George learned to rely on advice from his grandmother and her brother to help him navigate through the challenges of growing up But everything changed the day his great uncle unexpectedly gave him the title to his beloved houseboat and asked him to transform it into a clubhouse for local boys In a life story that he proclaims is sixty seven percent true George leads others down an amusing path through his memories as he plays on his inherited houseboat learns about girls and meets a lively band of characters that include Captain Prunes Percy Woodchuck Monoe Flashlight Fulton and Cowboy Unmanly As he details his move into adolescence and beyond George provides a glimpse into a life full of adventure and his determined pursuit to keep his uncle's dream alive In this fictionalized memoir one man chronicles his unique often humorous coming of age journey through life as he grows up attempts to find his place in the world and contemplates whether he can really ever go back in time to his enchanted boyhood
