

The cover features a large, detailed illustration of a red, spherical microorganism with numerous long, thin, hair-like appendages (cilia or flagella) extending from its surface. The organism has a dark, central nucleus-like structure. It is set against a background of green, leaf-like shapes and a dark, textured area. A horizontal grey band runs across the middle of the cover, containing the title and author's name. Below this band, there is a smaller, similar illustration of the microorganism on a green background.
