

THE BIG BANANA
COFFS HARBOUR

A large, bright yellow banana sculpture is mounted horizontally on a building. The banana is curved, with a green stem and a small black tip. The text "THE BIG BANANA" is written in a large, bold, black serif font across the middle of the banana. Below it, "COFFS HARBOUR" is written in a smaller, black, sans-serif font. The building has grey horizontal siding and a metal railing in the foreground. There are green plants in the lower foreground. The sky is clear blue.

Mora Kpai's documentary on the deleterious consequences of uranium mining in Niger. These works highlight not only the exploitation of African workers and the vast scope of environmental degradation but also the resourcefulness and creativity of African media makers. They point to the unsustainability of current practices while acknowledging our planet's finite natural resources. In foregrounding Africa's centrality to the production and disposal of media technology, Iheka shows the important place visual media has in raising awareness of and documenting ecological disaster even as it remains complicit in it.

A Season in New South Wales George Perkins, 2012-07-21. In 1989 we visited Australia where we taught American Literature at the University of Newcastle on a Fulbright Grant. We read Australian literature and were very much impressed by Australian writers and the picture they gave of their country. We traveled within the country from the coast to the Outback, saw koalas and kangaroos and wombats in the wild, fossicked for gold and flew to China where we also lectured and visited the Summer Palace and the Great Wall during a time of great stress within that country. A later return to Australia showed a country much changed from the one we had first seen but still a wonderful place.

Calendar Vanessa Berry, 2025-09-30. A collection of essays in the form of a daybook written in real time over a year. Calendar is about tuning in to the unexpected playful and solemn lives of the objects around us. Calendar is an essay collection in the form of a daybook written in real time over a year. The book takes inspiration from writers who use experiments and constraints such as Georges Perec, Oulipo, and Bernadette Mayer as well as autobiographical writers who use inventive structures such as Christina Sharpe in Ordinary Notes and Sheila Heti in Alphabetical Diaries. Calendar is based on the French Republican calendar of the late 18th century in which every day was dedicated to an object and applies this concept to objects of contemporary life. For a year, Berry paid attention to her encounters with objects over the course of the day and every night wrote an essay based on one object and drew an illustration of it. Combining the narrative of a year and stories of the 365 objects themselves, Calendar is about tuning in to the unexpected playful and solemn lives of the objects around us.

Koalas and Kangaroos Norman Handy, 2024-12-06. Embark on an unforgettable adventure along the east coast of Australia starting at South Point, the southernmost tip of the mainland near Melbourne. The journey takes you by train through Canberra and on to Sydney where iconic sights like the Sydney Opera House, Sydney Harbour Bridge, and Manly Beach await along with countless cultural landmarks. A side trip inland offers the breathtaking views of the Blue Mountains. Continuing north by road, the first stop is Walkabout Park where you'll have close encounters with koalas and kangaroos. In Newcastle, discover the world's largest coal export terminal. The adventure includes an immersive Aboriginal cultural experience, relaxing on the beaches of Byron Bay beneath its iconic lighthouse, and diving into the wonders of the Great Barrier Reef A visit inland reveals the stunning Atherton Tablelands with its numerous waterfalls North of Cairns explore the Daintree National Park the world s oldest rainforest before capping off the journey with a thrilling 4X4 expedition to Cape York the northernmost point of Australia Goodbye Jamie Boyd Elizabeth Fensham,2008-09 Schizophrenia Helicopter Man first demonstrated this and Goodbye Jamie Boyd continues to do so and whether mental illness inspires Fensham in some way because of the inherent internal conflict to be found there or whether her research for Helicopter Man has prompted her to explore the theme for older readers is beside the point The fact is that she does it very well particularly in the way she keeps the reader somewhat in the dark for the first third or more of the book keeping Jamies identity something of a mystery As I read I wondered in turn whether Jamie was in no particular order real or an imaginary friend or a ghost or a manifestation of mental illness And with every exchange between Anna and Jamie during the first part of the book each of these possibilities provides its own sinister implications although the scene on the bus is a bit of a loose clue But as far as I can tell this uncertainty about what is reality and what isn t is a very real part of the struggle with schizophrenia Provided by publisher

Dead Woman Pickney Yvonne Shorter Brown,2022-04-01 Dead Woman Pickney chronicles Yvonne Shorter Brown s life growing up in Jamaica between 1943 and 1965 and teaching in Canada from 1969 Told with stridency and humour the stories include both personal experience and history Taking up the haunting memories of childhood along with persistent racial marginalization of Black people both globally and in Canada the author sets out to construct a narrative that at once explains her own origins in the former slave society of Jamaica and traces the outsider status of Africa and its peoples The author s quest to understand the absence of her mother and her mother s people from her life is at the heart of the narrative The author struggles through life to discover the identity of her mother in the face of silence from her father s brutal family In this updated edition she adds a coda finding mother constructed from archives genealogy letters and journals Initially published in 2010 this second edition includes expanded text and a foreword by Sonja Boon author of What the Oceans Remember
