The Biography Of Saint Samaan The Shoemaker The Tanner:

The Biography of Saint Samaan the Shoemaker "the Tanner" Church of Saint Samaan, Church of Saint Samaan the Tanner, Mattaia (bishop and abbot of the Syrian monastery), 1994      Christianity in the Land of the Pharaohs Jill Kamil, 2002-09-05 An engaging survey of Coptic Christianity in Egypt since Pharaonic times through its development under Rome Byzantium Islam and beyond Ideal reading for students of Egyptian history and Christianity      The Bible in Africa Gerald West, Musa Dube, 2021-10-01 Although the arrival of the Bible in Africa has often been a tale of terror the Bible has become an African book This volume explores the many ways in which Africans have made the Bible their own The essays in this book offer a glimpse of the rich resources that constitute Africa's engagement with the Bible Among the topics are the historical development of biblical interpretation in Africa the relationship between African biblical scholarship and scholarship in the West African resources for reading the Bible the history and role of vernacular translation in particular African contexts the ambiguity of the Bible in Africa the power of the Bible as text and symbol and the intersections between class race gender and culture in African biblical interpretation The book also contains an extensive bibliography of African biblical scholarship In fact it is one of the most comprehensive collections of African biblical scholarship available in print This publication has also been published in paperback please click here for details      The Yes Effect Luis Bush, 2017-09-05 From the missions strategist behind The 10 40 Window In 1990 Luis Bush helped change modern missions by introducing the concept of the 10 40 window a geographic region where large dense populations of people suffered severe poverty and limited access to the gospel essentially shining a light on the world's greatest need Now after decades spent serving in global missions mobilization Luis has a unique perspective on what God is doing around the world Though statistics and maps can be a great place to start The Yes Effect reveals that true transformation begins when we restart our hearts getting in sync with God's tenderness toward the oppressed and regaining compassion for the lost In The Yes Effect Dr Bush shares his own story as well as inspiring stories of individuals and organizations around the world whose acts of love and justice are bringing hope and transformation in places of misery and immobility From the orphans weeping in Bihar India to garbage collectors in Cairo Egypt from the single mom trying to find a way to feed her family as a Syrian refugee to the church cowering under government control God is at work in surprising places And this transformation is sparked when ordinary people say yes to God igniting an ongoing global chain reaction that sees glimpses of God's kingdom springing up all over the world Ultimately The Yes Effect will give you an encouraging window into worldwide efforts to spread the gospel and it will inspire you to give God your yes and like so many others before you become part of God's global story of transformation      Christian-Muslim Relations in Egypt Henrik Lindberg Hansen, 2015-06-04 The subject of Christian Muslim relations in the Middle East and indeed in the West attracts much academic and media attention Nowhere is this more the case than in Egypt which has the largest Christian community in the Middle East estimated at 6 10 per cent of the national population Henrik Lindberg

Hansen analyzes this relationship offering an examination of the nature and role of religious dialogue in Egyptian society and politics. Analysing the three main religious organizations and institutions in Egypt namely the Azhar University the Muslim Brotherhood and the Coptic Orthodox Church as well as a range of smaller dialogue initiatives such as those of CEOSS the Anglican and Catholic Churches and youth organisations Hansen argues that religious dialogue involves a close examination of societal relations and how these are understood and approached. The book includes analysis of the occasions of violence against and dialogue initiatives involving Christian communities in 2011 and the fall of the Muslim Brotherhood from power in 2013 and thus provides a wide ranging exploration of the importance of religion in Egyptian society and everyday encounters with a religious other. The book is consequently vital for practitioners as well as researchers dealing with religious minorities in the Middle East and interfaith dialogue in a wider context.

Building the Caliphate Jennifer A. Pruitt, 2020-01-01 A riveting exploration of how the Fatimid dynasty carefully orchestrated an architectural program that proclaimed their legitimacy. This groundbreaking study investigates the early architecture of the Fatimids an Ismaili Shi'i Muslim dynasty that dominated the Mediterranean world from the 10th to the 12th century. This period considered a golden age of multicultural and interfaith tolerance witnessed the construction of iconic structures including Cairo's al Azhar and al Hakim mosques and crucial renovations to Jerusalem's Dome of the Rock and Aqsa Mosque. However it also featured large scale destruction of churches under the notorious reign of al Hakim bi Amr Allah most notably the Church of the Holy Sepulcher in Jerusalem. Jennifer A. Pruitt offers a new interpretation of these and other key moments in the history of Islamic architecture using newly available medieval primary sources by Ismaili writers and rarely considered Arabic Christian sources. Building the Caliphate contextualizes early Fatimid architecture within the wider Mediterranean and Islamic world and demonstrates how rulers manipulated architectural form and urban topographies to express political legitimacy on a global stage.

Sacred Precincts Mohammad Gharipour, 2014-11-10 This book examines non Muslim religious sites structures and spaces in the Islamic world. It reveals a vibrant portrait of life in the religious sites by illustrating how architecture responds to contextual issues and traditions. Sacred Precincts explores urban context issues of identity design construction transformation and the history of sacred sites and architecture in Europe the Middle East and Africa from the advent of Islam to the 20th century. It includes case studies on churches and synagogues in Iran Turkey Cyprus Egypt Iraq Tunisia Morocco and Malta and on sacred sites in Nigeria Mali and the Gambia. Politics and the Religious Imagination John H.A. Dyck, Paul S. Rowe, Jens Zimmermann, 2010-06-10 Politics and the Religious Imagination is the product of a group of interdisciplinary scholars each analyzing the connections between religious narratives and the construction of regional and global politics combining a set of theoretical and philosophic insights with several case studies that represent varied geographies and religious customs The past decade has seen increasing interest in the links between religion and politics and this edited volume seeks to take religion seriously as a motivator of action Few studies have attempted to bring together the multi disciplinary work in this burgeoning field of study and this work takes a global perspective using a variety of contexts including East West relations to analyze the following key themes the constructive and destructive hermeneutics of religious stories the relevance and importance of religion as a dominant political narrative the rise of new stories among groups as agents of change the way that religious narratives help to define and constrain the Other the manipulation of religious stories for political benefit This work argues that it is insufficient to judge the relationship of religion and politics through mere institutional or quantitative lenses and this collection proves that while this promise of the narrative part of the social imaginary has been recognized in political theory to a certain extent its influence in the realm of empirical political science has yet to be fully considered Combining the work of a wide range of experts this collection will be of great interests to scholars of politics philosophy religious studies and the literary influence of religion O Efeito do Sim
