

*When Brother Owl
Is on the prowl,
Make yourself scarce
And say your prairie.*

The world is full of learned guidebooks bursting with every detail you could wish to know about birds. Then there is this book, condensing a world of birding knowledge into humorous verse, illustrated by episodes of the comic strip Nestlings. It might not guarantee that you can identify the purple finch, the ruby-throated hummingbird and the western grebe, but it has the power to amuse. And it's deadly accurate. Most of it.

*Beneath the cloak of darkness,
The owl ensues one lark less.*
