The Birth Project:

The Birth Project Judy Chicago, 1985 Fifty full color and 350 black and white photographs illustrate the Birth Project exhibit conceived by Judy Chicago based on nearly one hundred of her works and needleworked by women across the country. Between 1980-1985 Judy Chicago designed dozens of images on the subject of birth and creation to be embellished by needleworkers around the United States, Canada, and as far away as New Zealand. Formatted into provocative exhibition units which included both needleworks and documentary materials, these works toured the country and Canada, eventually placed by Through the Flower in numerous institutions where they are on public view or used as part of university curricula. Prior to the Birth Project, few images of birth existed in Western art, a puzzling omission as birth is a central focus of many women's lives and a universal experience of all humanity as everyone is born. Seeking to fill this void, Judy Chicago created multiple images of birth to be realized through needlework, a visually rich medium which has been ignored or trivialized by the mainstream art community.

Judy Chicago's Birth Project Born Again Viki D. Thompson Wylder, 2018 Designed by Chicago, the Birth Project is now born again in this exhibition as a continuing force for cultural change and aesthetic transformation. Page 2

Judy Chicago Vytautas Babusis, 1986 The Birth Project is a celebration of birth but it also shows the anxiety, agony of labor, ambivalence of emotions in pregnancy and other aspects of birth and feminist goals. Judy Chicago has created a mode of art to reveal how women feel about birth and life. Vytautas Babusis page 3

Becoming Judy Chicago Gail Levin, 2018-10-16 Born to Jewish radical parents in Chicago in 1939, Judy Cohen grew up to be Judy Chicago, one of the most daring and controversial artists of her generation. Her works, once disparaged and misunderstood by the critics, have become icons of the feminist movement, earning her a place among the most influential artists of her time. In Becoming Judy Chicago, Gail Levin gives us a biography of uncommon intimacy and depth, revealing the artist as a person and a woman of extraordinary energy and purpose. Drawing upon Chicago's personal letters and diaries, her published and unpublished writings, and more than 250 interviews with her friends, family, admirers, and critics, Levin presents a richly detailed and moving chronicle of the artist's unique journey from obscurity to fame, including the story of how she found her audience outside of the art establishment. Chicago revolutionized the way we view art made by and for women and fundamentally changed our understanding of women's contributions to art and to society. Influential and bold, The Dinner Party has become a cultural monument. Becoming Judy Chicago tells the story of a great artist, a leader of the women's movement, a tireless crusader for equal rights, and a complicated vital woman who dared to express her own sexuality in her art and demand recognition from a male-dominated culture.

Birthing Justice Julia Chinyere Oparah, Alicia D. Bonaparte, 2015-12-22 There is a global crisis in maternal health care for black women. In the United States, black women are over three times more likely to perish from pregnancy-related complications than white women; their babies are half as likely to survive the first year. Many black women experience policing, coercion, and disempowerment during pregnancy and childbirth and are disconnected from alternative birthing traditions This book places black women s voices at the center of the debate on what should be done to fix the broken maternity system and foregrounds black women s agency in the emerging birth justice movement Mixing scholarly activist and personal perspectives the book shows readers how they too can change lives one birth at a time

Musings on Perimenopause and Menopause Heather Dillaway, Laura Wershle, 2021-04-23 A woman muses about buying lovely new panties another sets out on the trip of a lifetime a blogger offers information support and community to perimenopausal women researchers uncover myths and misconceptions about migrant and refugee women s experiences of menopause a gerontology scholar extrapolates for menopause the meanings of cultural representations of childbirth a sociologist and intersex advocate challenges her medically constructed menopause young women s stories inform an inquiry into the health and social repercussions of primary ovarian insufficiency all in a collection of research papers and personal narratives that moves far beyond the idea of menopause as a mere biological marker While biomedical and feminist researchers agree that menopause is a time of transition and border crossing they offer diverse viewpoints about whether perimenopause and menopause signal deficiency and burden or growth and freedom or both So too contributors to this collection influenced by factors of age cultural background societal context and physical and psychological experience vary significantly in their perspectives of this process Research analysis narrative poetry and art intermingle to create a multi textured montage that challenges stereotypes probes relationships and defies categorization Musings on Perimenopause and Menopause Identity Experience Transition provides insight into how women think about and experience the transition to menopause in contemporary times

Birthing Justice Alicia D. Bonaparte, Julia Chinyere Oparah, 2023-09-21 The second edition of this pathbreaking widely taught book offers six new chapters on breastfeeding and Black infant health Black birthing during COVID Black doulas rethinking birthing practices the recent buildup of a US national movement childbirth in Zanzibar and expanding the global movement for sexual and reproductive well being Other chapters are updated throughout Birthing Justice puts Black women s voices at the center of the debate on what should be done to fix the broken maternal care system It foregrounds Black women s agency in the birth justice movement First published in 2016 Birthing Justice is a seminal text for those interested in maternal healthcare reproductive justice health equity and intersectional racial justice especially in courses on gender studies Black studies public health and training programs for midwives and OB GYNs

Additional resources and a reading group guide are available at www.blackwomenbirthingjustice.com Birth controlled Amrita Pande, 2022-06-14 Birth controlled analyses the world of selective reproduction the politics of who gets to legitimately reproduce the future through a cross cultural analysis of three modes of controlling birth contraception reproductive violence and repro genetic technologies It argues that as fertility rates decline worldwide the fervour to control fertility and fertile bodies does not dissipate what evolves is the preferred mode of control Although new technologies like those that assist conception or allow genetic selection may appear to be an antithesis of other violent versions of population control this book demonstrates that both are part of the same continuum All population control policies target and vilify women Black women in particular and coerce them into subjecting their bodies to state and medical surveillance Birth controlled argues that assisted reproductive technologies and repro genetic technologies employ a similar and stratified burden of blame and responsibility based on gender race class and caste To empirically and historically ground the analysis the book includes contributions from two postcolonial nations South Africa and India examining interactions between the history of colonialism and the economics of neoliberal markets and their influence on the technologies and politics of selective reproduction The book provides a critical interdisciplinary and cutting edge dialogue around the interconnected issues that shape reproductive politics in an ostensibly post population control era The contributions draw on a breadth of disciplines ranging from gender studies sociology medical anthropology politics and science and technology studies to theology public health and epidemiology facilitating an interdisciplinary dialogue around the interconnected modes of controlling birth and practices of neo eugenics

The Dinner Party Judy Chicago, 2014-04-15 The official publication celebrating Judy Chicago s feminist art masterpiece The Dinner Party installation at the Brooklyn Museum and an introduction to outstanding women in history Judy Chicago s The Dinner Party is a defining work of feminist and contemporary art that brought women s history to light on the national stage when it was completed in 1979 Published to coincide with Chicago s 75th birthday and a nationwide series of events and exhibitions the book features newly commissioned photography and two new essays by Chicago along with essays by art historian Frances Borzello and historian Jane Gerhard and a foreword from museum director Arnold Lehman The Dinner Party a monumental triangular table and the Heritage Floor on which the table rests represents 1 038 women in history 39 by unique large ceramic plates and runners with another 999 names inscribed on the floor s ceramic tiles It has been seen by more than a million visitors during its international exhibition tour and has been a principal destination at the Brooklyn Museum since its permanent housing in 2007 A perfect companion to a revolutionary artwork the book is a must have for both long standing fans of Judy Chicago s oeuvre and young artists and women looking for reflections of themselves in the history of Western Civilization

Reproductive Injustice Dána-Ain Davis, 2019-06-25 Winner 2020 Senior Book Prize given by the Association of Feminist Anthropology Winner 2020 Eileen Basker Memorial Prize given by the Society for Medical Anthropology Honorable Mention 2020 Victor Turner Prize in Ethnographic Writing given by the Society for Humanistic Anthropology Finalist 2020 PROSE Award in the Sociology Anthropology and Criminology category given by the Association of American Publishers A troubling study of the role that medical racism plays in the lives of Black women who have given birth to premature and low birth weight infants Black women have higher rates of premature birth than other women in America This cannot be simply explained by economic factors with poorer women lacking resources or access to care Even professional middle class Black women are at a much higher risk of premature birth than low income white women in the United States Dána-Ain Davis looks into this phenomenon placing racial differences in birth outcomes into a historical context revealing that ideas about reproduction and race today have been influenced by the legacy of ideas which developed during the era of slavery While poor and low income Black women are often the mascots of premature birth outcomes this book focuses on professional Black women who are just as likely to give birth prematurely Drawing on an impressive array of interviews with nearly fifty mothers fathers neonatologists nurses midwives and reproductive justice advocates D na Ain Davis argues that events leading up to an infant s arrival in a neonatal intensive care unit NICU and the parents experiences while they are in the NICU reveal subtle but pernicious forms of racism that confound the perceived class dynamics that are frequently understood to be a central factor of premature birth The book argues not only that medical racism persists and must be considered when examining adverse outcomes as well as upsetting experiences for parents but also that NICUs and life saving technologies should not be the only strategies for improving the outcomes for Black pregnant women and their babies Davis makes the case for other avenues such as community based birthing projects doulas and midwives that support women during pregnancy and labor are just as important and effective in avoiding premature births and mortality

Creative Approaches to Health Education Deborah Lupton,Deana Leahy,2021-11-25 This book shows how creative methods drawing on innovative arts based and design based approaches can be employed in health education contexts It takes a very broad view of health education considering it as

applying not only in school settings but across the lifespan and as including physical education and sexuality education as well as public health campaigns health activist initiatives and programmes designed for training educators and health professionals The chapters outline a series of case studies contributed by leaders in the field describing projects using a wide variety of creative methods conducted in a variety of global contexts These include a rich constellation of arts based and design based methods and artefacts sculptures dance walking and other somatic movement diaries paintings drawings zines poems and other creative writing body maps collages stories films photographs theatre performances soundscapes potions rock gardens brainstorming debates secret ballots murals and graffiti walls There are no rules or guidelines outlined in these contributions about how to do creative approaches to health education However the methods in the case studies the authors describe are explained in detail so that they can be adopted or re invented in other contexts More importantly these contributions provide inspiration They demonstrate what can be done in the field of health education however it is defined to go beyond the often stultifying and conventional boundaries it has set for itself Creative Approaches to Health Education demonstrates that creative approaches can be used to inspire those working and teaching in health education and their publics to think and do otherwise as well as advance health education research and pedagogies into new exciting and provocative directions It will be of interest to postgraduate students and researchers in education and health related fields who want to explore and experiment with creative methods and craftivism in applied inquiry Grief Unseen Laura Seftel,2006 At least one in five pregnancies ends in miscarriage yet aftercare is rarely available for those who have experienced it Grief Unseen explains different kinds of childbearing losses such as failed fertility treatment ectopic pregnancy and stillbirth and explores their emotional impact on women and their partners and the process of healing

Governing China's Population Susan Greenhalgh,Edwin A. Winckler,2005 Governing China s Population tells the story of political and cultural shifts from the perspectives of both regime and society Encyclopedia of Comparative Iconography Helene E. Roberts,2013-09-05 First published in 1998 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Women, Power, and Childbirth Kathleen D. Turkel,1995-11-06 Based on her 12 year study of a free standing birth center Turkel analyzes the medical model of childbirth in contrast to the midwifery model In the medical model of birth women are defined as patients and birth takes place in hospitals where women have little if any control over their experience The midwifery model views birth as a healthy process where midwives act as teachers and guides for women during pregnancy and birth helping women and their families to shape and define their experience to meet their needs and expectations Under existing legal and cultural circumstances free standing birth centers face a dilemma They must continually accomodate the medical model while trying to maintain the midwifery model and give women an option to home birth or to hospital birth Entering the Picture Jill Fields,2012-02-27 In 1970 Judy Chicago and fifteen students founded the groundbreaking Feminist Art Program FAP at Fresno State Drawing upon the consciousness raising techniques of the women's liberation movement they created shocking new art forms depicting female experiences Collaborative work and performance art including the famous Cunt Cheerleaders were program hallmarks Moving to Los Angeles the FAP produced the first major feminist art installation Womanhouse 1972 Augmented by thirty seven illustrations and color plates this interdisciplinary collection of essays by artists and scholars many of whom were eye witnesses to landmark events relates how feminists produced vibrant bodies of art in Fresno and other locales where similar collaborations flourished Articles on topics such as African American artists in New York and Los Angeles San Francisco's Las Mujeres Muralistas and Asian American Women Artists Association and exhibitions in Taiwan and Italy showcase the artistic trajectories that destabilized traditional theories and practices and reshaped the art world An engaging editor's introduction explains how feminist art emerged within the powerful women's movement that transformed America

Entering the Picture is an exciting collection about the provocative contributions of feminists to American art

The Flowering: The Autobiography of Judy Chicago Judy Chicago, 2021-07-20 In this provocative and resonant autobiography world renowned artist and feminist icon Judy Chicago reflects on her extraordinary life and career Judy Chicago is America's most dynamic living artist Her works comprise a dizzying array of media from performance and installation to the glittering table laid for thirty nine iconic women in The Dinner Party now permanently housed at the Brooklyn Museum the groundbreaking Birth Project and the meticulously researched Holocaust Project She designed the monumental installation for Dior's 2020 Paris couture show and in 2019 established the Judy Chicago Portal which will help to accomplish her lifelong goal of overcoming the erasure that has eclipsed the achievements of so many women The Flowering is her vivid and revealing autobiography fully illustrated with photographs of her work as well as never before published personal images and a foreword by Gloria Steinem Chicago has revised and updated her earlier classic works with previously untold stories fresh insights and an extensive afterword covering the last twenty years This powerful narrative weaves together the stories behind some of Chicago's most significant artworks and her journey as a woman artist with the chronicles of her personal relationships and her understanding from decades of experience and extensive research of how misogyny racism and other prejudices intersect to erase the legacies of artists who are not white and male while dismissing the suffering of millions of creatures who share the planet With the first career retrospective of her work forthcoming at the de Young Museum in 2021 Chicago reinforces her message of resilience for a new generation of artists and activists The Flowering is an essential read for anyone interested in making change
