The Black Americans A History In Their Own Words Milton Meltzers Visions Of History:

The Black Americans Milton Meltzer, 1987-05-07 A history of Black people in the United States as told through letters speeches articles eyewitness accounts and other documents Black Titan Carol Jenkins, Elizabeth Gardner Hines, 2009-04-02 The grandson of slaves born into poverty in 1892 in the Deep South A G Gaston died more than a century later with a fortune worth well over 130 million and a business empire spanning communications real estate and insurance Gaston was by any measure a heroic figure whose wealth and influence bore comparison to J P Morgan and Andrew Carnegie Here for the first time is the story of the life of this extraordinary pioneer told by his niece and grandniece the award winning television journalist Carol Jenkins and her daughter Elizabeth Gardner Hines Born at a time when the bitter legacy of slavery and Reconstruction still poisoned the lives of black Americans Gaston was determined to make a difference for himself and his people His first job after serving in the celebrated all black regiment during World War I bound him to the near slavery of an Alabama coal mine but even here Gaston saw not only hope but opportunity He launched a business selling lunches to fellow miners soon established a rudimentary bank and from then on there was no stopping him A kind of black Horatio Alger Gaston let a single powerful question be his guide What do our people need now His success flowed from an uncanny genius for knowing the answer Combining rich family lore with a deep knowledge of American social and economic history Carol Jenkins and Elizabeth Hines unfold Gaston s success story against the backdrop of a century of crushing racial hatred and bigotry Gaston not only survived the hardships of being black during the Depression he flourished and by the 1950s he was ruling a Birmingham based business empire When the movement for civil rights swept through the South in the late 1950s and early 1960s Gaston provided critical financial support to many activists At the time of his death in 1996 A G Gaston was one of the wealthiest black men in America if not the wealthiest But his legacy extended far beyond the monetary He was a man who had proved it was possible to overcome staggering odds and make a place for himself as a leader a captain of industry and a far sighted philanthropist Writing with grace and power Jenkins and Hines bring their distinguished ancestor fully to life in the pages of this book Black Titan is the story of a man who created his own future and in the process blazed a future for all black businesspeople in America A History of US Joy Hakim, 2005 Sourcebook title History a story well told created by Diane L Brooks In the Lion's Mouth Omar H. Ali, 2011-02-03 Following the collapse of Reconstruction in 1877 African Americans organized a movement distinct from the white Populist movement in the South and parts of the Midwest for economic and political reform Black Populism Between 1886 and 1898 tens of thousands of black farmers sharecroppers and agrarian workers created their own organizations and tactics primarily under black leadership As Black Populism grew as a regional force it met fierce resistance from the Southern Democrats and constituent white planters and local merchants African Americans carried out a wide range of activities in this hostile environment They established farming exchanges and cooperatives raised money for schools published newspapers lobbied for better agrarian legislation mounted boycotts against agricultural trusts and business monopolies carried out strikes for better wages protested the convict lease system segregated coach boxes and lynching demanded black jurors in cases involving black defendants promoted local political reforms and federal supervision of elections and ran independent and fusion campaigns Growing out of the networks established by black churches and fraternal organizations Black Populism found further expression in the Colored Agricultural Wheels the southern branch of the Knights of Labor the Cooperative Workers of America the Farmers Union and the Colored Farmers Alliance In the early 1890s African Americans together with their white counterparts launched the People's Party and ran fusion campaigns with the Republican Party By the turn of the century Black Populism had been crushed by relentless attack hostile propaganda and targeted assassinations of leaders and foot soldiers of the movement The movement's legacy remains though as the largest independent black political movement until the rise of the modern civil rights movement
