The Black Candle:

THE BLACK CANDLE CATHERINE COOKSON,1990 The black candle, Catherine Cookson Catherine Cookson,

The Persons Case Robert J. Sharpe,Patricia I. McMahon,2007-01-01 On 18 October 1929 John Sankey England's reform minded Lord Chancellor ruled in the Persons case that women were eligible for appointment to Canada's Senate Initiated by Edmonton judge Emily Murphy and four other activist women the Persons case challenged the exclusion of women from Canada's upper house and the idea that the meaning of the constitution could not change with time The Persons Case considers the case in its political and social context and examines the lives of the key players Emily Murphy Nellie McClung and the other members of the famous five the politicians who opposed the appointment of women the lawyers who argued the case and the judges who decided it Robert J Sharpe and Patricia I McMahon examine the Persons case as a pivotal moment in the struggle for women's rights and as one of the most important constitutional decisions in Canadian history Lord Sankey's decision overruled the Supreme Court of Canada's judgment that the courts could not depart from the original intent of the framers of Canada's constitution in 1867 Describing the constitution as a living tree the decision led to a reassessment of the nature of the constitution itself After the Persons case it could no longer be viewed as fixed and unalterable but had to be treated as a document that in the words of Sankey was in a continuous process of evolution The Persons Case is a comprehensive study of this important event examining the case itself the ruling of the Privy Council and the profound affect that it had on women's rights and the constitutional history of Canada Monthly Entries for the

Spiritual but not Religious through the Year Mark G. Boyer,2022-08-30 This is a book about spirituality for the spiritual but not religious Those who identify themselves as spiritual but not religious make up one quarter of the population in the United States This book provides 189 monthly entries based on the national and international celebrations that occur every month Each entry begins with the name of the occasion and the date when it is marked during the month A text from the Bible a US public law a presidential proclamation a United Nations declaration etc that illustrates the day is presented The text is followed by a reflection which gleans the spirituality from the text and provides historical background on the day being celebrated Journal meditation questions follow the reflection and a prayer concludes the entry This book is for the spiritual but not religious a practice of spirituality that does not regard organized religion as a valuable means to further interior spiritual growth A section of the introduction to the book explores who the spiritual but not religious are and presents the common themes that surface from research about them Sister Karol's Book of Spells, Blessings & Folk
