History of the Christian Church Vol. II Philip Schaff, 2010-11 Philip Schaff's History of the Christian Church excels at providing an impressive and instructive historical treatment of the Christian church. This is Volume Two covering from 100 A.D. to 325 A.D. This voluminous work begins with the early Church at its formative era. This volume and the previous will comprise the major individual and their writings which shall comprise the first five volumes of the Ante Nicene Series. Schaff's treatment is comprehensive and in depth, discussing all the major and minor figures, time periods, and movements of the Church. One feature of the History of the Christian Church which readers will immediately notice is just how beautifully written it is, in particular when comparing other texts of a similar nature. Historian Donald F. Lach, in his influential scholarly work Asia in the Making of Europe, points out that an eclipse is never permanent; that this one was never total and that there was a period in early modern times when Asia and Europe were close rivals in brilliance and mutual influence.
