people both as a writer and as a teacher The volume concludes with a selection of Ehrhart poems chosen by the contributors because they embody some quality discussed in the essays The book includes a selected bibliography of Bill Ehrhart's published writings

The Cradle Place Thomas Lux, 2005-12 The Cradle Place is a collection from Thomas Lux a self-described recovering surrealist and winner of the Kingsley Tufts Award These fifty-two poems bring to full life the refreshing iconoclasm Rita Dove so admired in Lux's earlier work His voice is plainspoken but moody humorous and edgy and ever surprising These are philosophical poems that ask questions about language and intention about the sometimes untidy connections between the human and natural worlds In the poem Terminal Lake Lux undermines notions of benign nature finding dark currents beneath the surface it's a huge black coin it's as if the real lake is drained and this lake is the drain gaping language less suck and sinkhole In the ominous Render Render the narrator asks us to consider a concentration of the essences of our lives all that is physical spiritual remembered and dreamed for melded together to make the messy self we present to the world Lux's voice is intelligent without being bookish urgent and unrelentingly evocative He has long been a strong advocate for the relevance of poetry in American culture The Los Angeles Times praises Lux for his compelling rhythms his biting irony and his steady devotion to a craft that often seems thankless As Sven Birkerts noted Lux may be one of the poets on whom the future of the genre depends

Roberts, Henry E. Jacobs,2005 For Introduction to Literature courses and Freshman Composition courses that emphasize writing about literature Message Roberts has the best coverage of writing about literature Complete coverage of writing about each element and a total of 23 student essays with accompanying commentary ensure student comprehension of writing about literature and therefore produce better student papers Story When Edgar Roberts taught literature and composition many years ago a large part of his course work involved essay writing assignments He would dedicate a substantial amount of his class time explaining how the students should prepare their writing assignments and he discovered that the more he described to his students what he wanted and the longer he explained things the better the final essays turned out to be He realized that there was a direct correlation between the way he made his assignments and the quality of student work he received However giving his students such explicit essay writing directions was taking up too much of his classroom time At that point Professor Roberts started to write and hand out directions thus saving him valuable classroom time Over the years he tried and tested each assignment in his own classes In addition to writing coverage Professor Roberts recognized that literature classrooms needed both writing about literature instruction and an anthology to meet the needs of the literature and composition course Literature An Introduction to Reading and Writing Compact Edition is founded on the principles of writing about literature It is not an afterthought and it is not treated as a separate chapter or appendix but rather it is the carefully integrated philosophy of Professor Roberts approach to teaching literature and composition In addition to his own contributions to the book Professor Roberts has also made innumerable changes and improvements based on both student questions and student writing as well as from professor feedback To this day each new edition is revised and perfected based on professor and student needs to meet the changing needs of today s students Visiting Walt Sheila Coghill, Thom Tammara, 2003 A local Glencoe poet has one of his poems included in this book Walt Whitman in Alabama by Jake Adam York English professor at University of Colorado Denver Directory of American Poetry Books ,1997
