The Blue Gardenia:

The Blue Gardenia, 2000 The Blue Gardenia Vera Caspary, Charles Hoffman, Fritz Lang, 1953 Shades of Noir Joan Copjec, 1993-11-17 These essays examine film noir in the light of contemporary social and political concerns attempting to move beyond the views of the early French critics Topics range from the re emergence of noir in films such as Bladerunner to the relations between the sexes and the role of women Jazz and Cocktails Jans B. Wager, 2017-03-21 Film noir showcased hard boiled men and dangerous femmes fatales rain slicked city streets pools of inky darkness cut by shards of light and occasionally jazz Jazz served as a shorthand for the seduction and risks of the mean streets in early film noir As working jazz musicians began to compose the scores for and appear in noir films of the 1950s black musicians found a unique way of asserting their right to participate fully in American life Jazz and Cocktails explores the use of jazz in film noir from its early function as a signifier of danger sexuality and otherness to the complex role it plays in film scores in which jazz invites the spectator into the narrative while simultaneously transcending the film and reminding viewers of the world outside the movie theater Jans B Wager looks at the work of jazz composers such as Miles Davis Duke Ellington and Billy Strayhorn Chico Hamilton and John Lewis as she analyzes films including Sweet Smell of Success Elevator to the Gallows Anatomy of a Murder Odds Against Tomorrow and considers the neonoir American Hustle Wager demonstrates how the evolving role of jazz in film noir reflected cultural changes instigated by black social activism during and after World War II and altered Hollywood representations of race and music Allegories of Communication John Fullerton, Jan Olsson, 2004 No further information has been provided for this title Kiss the Blood Off My Hands Robert Miklitsch, 2014-09-15 Consider the usual view of film noir endless rainy nights populated by down at the heel boxers writers and private eyes stumbling toward inescapable doom while stalked by crooked cops and cheating wives in a neon lit urban jungle But a new generation of writers is pushing aside the fog of cigarette smoke surrounding classic noir scholarship In Kiss the Blood Off My Hands On Classic Film Noir Robert Miklitsch curates a bold collection of essays that reassesses the genre s iconic style history and themes Contributors analyze the oft overlooked female detective and little examined aspects of filmmaking like love songs and radio aesthetics discuss the significance of the producer and women s pulp fiction and investigate topics as disparate as Disney noir and the Fifties heist film B movie back projection and blacklisted British directors At the same time the writers collective reconsideration shows the impact of race and gender history and sexuality technology and transnationality on the genre As bracing as a stiff drink Kiss the Blood Off My Hands writes the future of noir scholarship in lipstick and chalk lines for film fans and scholars alike Contributors Krin Gabbard Philippa Gates Julie Grossman Robert Miklitsch Robert Murphy Mark Osteen Vivian Sobchack Andrew Spicer J P Telotte and Neil Verma California Polyphony Mina Yang, 2010-10-01 What does it mean to be Californian To find out Mina Yang delves into multicultural nature of musics in the state that has launched musical and cultural trends for decades In the early twentieth century an orientalist fascination with Asian music and culture dominated the popular imagination of white Californians and influenced their interactions with the Asian Other. Several decades later tensions between the Los Angeles Police Department and the African American community made the thriving jazz and blues nightclub scene of 1940s Central Avenue a target for the LAPD's anti vice crusade. The musical scores for Hollywood's noir films confirmed reactionary notions of the threat to white female sexuality in the face of black culture and urban corruption while Mexican Americans faced a conflicted assimilation into the white American mainstream. Finally Korean Americans in the twenty first century turned to hip hop to express their cultural and national identities. A compelling journey into the origins of musical identity California Polyphony explores the intersection of musicology cultural history and politics to define Californian.

L.A. Noir William Hare, 2008-02-07 Los Angeles is an ideal city for film noir for both economic and aesthetic reasons. The largest metropolitan area in the country home to an ever changing population of the disillusioned and in close proximity to city mountains ocean and desert the City of Angels became a center of American film noir. This detailed discussion of nine films explores such topics as why certain settings are appropriate for film noir why L A has been a favorite of authors such as Raymond Chandler and relevant political developments in the area. The films are also examined in terms of story content as well as how they developed in the project stage. Utilizing a number of quotes from interviews the work examines actors directors and others involved with the films touching on their careers and details of their time in L A. The major films covered are The Big Sleep Criss Cross D O A In A Lonely Place The Blue Gardenia Kiss Me Deadly The Killing Chinatown and L A Confidential.

Somewhere in the Night Nicholas Christopher, 2010-05-11 Film noir is more than a cinematic genre. It is an essential aspect of American culture. Along with the cowboy of the Wild West the denizen of the film noir city is at the very center of our mythological iconography. Described as the style of an anxious victor film noir began during the post war period a strange time of hope and optimism mixed with fear and even paranoia. The shadow of this rich and powerful cinematic style can now be seen in virtually every artistic medium. The spectacular success of recent neo film noirs is only the tip of an iceberg. In the dead on nocturnal jazz of Charlie Parker and Miles Davis the chilled urban landscapes of Edward Hopper and postwar literary fiction from Nelson Algren and William S Burroughs to pulp masters like Horace McCoy we find an unsettling recognition of the dark hollowness beneath the surface of the American Dream. Acclaimed novelist and poet Nicholas Christopher explores the cultural identity of film noir in a seamless elegant and enchanting work of literary prose. Examining virtually the entire catalogue of film noir Christopher identifies the central motif as the urban labyrinth a place infested with psychosis anxiety and existential dread in which the noir hero embarks on a dangerously illuminating quest. With acute sensitivity he shows how technical devices such as lighting voice over and editing tempo are deployed to create the film noir world. Somewhere in the Night guides us through the architecture of this imaginary world be it shot in New York or Los Angeles relating its elements to the ancient cultural archetypes that prefigure it. Finally Christopher builds an explanation of why film noir not only lives on but is currently enjoying a renaissance.

Somewhere in the Night can be appreciated as a lucid introduction to a fundamental style of American culture and also as a guide to film noir's heyday. Ultimately though as the work of a bold talent adeptly manipulating poetic cadence and metaphor it is itself a superb aesthetic artifact.

Bombs Away John Vetto, 2023-12-29 To movie critics a bomb is unequivocally bad something that failed artistically failed at the box office or both John Vetto who describes himself as a cinephile but most assuredly NOT a professional movie critic defines the term more broadly To Vetto a bomb may have bombed at the box office or become a cult classic It may be genuinely terrible or merely silly The one thing all bombs have in common They're fun to watch In Bombs Away Fifty Old Often Bad and Mostly Forgotten Films in No Particular Order Vetto takes a deep dive into these works not to make light of them well not just to make light of them but to explore their history and themes draw connections provide insight into human nature and enlighten us as to how and why these cheaply made films were created So grab some popcorn dim the lights and settle back for an edifying entertaining journey through an underexplored corner of pop culture

The Films of Fritz Lang Tom Gunning, 2019-07-25 In this volume Tom Gunning examines the films of Fritz Lang not only as a stylistically coherent body of work but as an attempt to portray the modern world through cinema The world of modernity in which systems replace individuals is conveyed by Lang's mastery of cinematic set design composition and editing Lang presents not only a decades long vision of cinematic narrative which can be compared to that of Alfred Hitchcock or Jean Renoir but a view of modernity that relates strongly to the ideas of Adorno Brecht Benjamin and Kracauer From the sweeping allegorical films of the 20s to the chilly and abstract thrillers of the 50s Lang's films Gunning claims are among the most precious records of the twentieth century The Films of Fritz Lang immeasurably enriches our understanding of a great artist and in so doing reimagines what a film artist is an author who fades away even in being recognised and interpreted an enigmatic figure at the junction of aesthetics history biography and theory

Nightmare Alley Mark Osteen, 2013-01-30 Classic film noir offers more than pesky private eyes and beautiful bad girls it explores the quest for the not so attainable American dream Winner of the CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title of the Choice ACRL Desperate young lovers on the lam They Live by Night a cynical con man making a fortune as a mentalist Nightmare Alley a penniless pregnant girl mistaken for a wealthy heiress No Man of Her Own a wounded veteran who has forgotten his own name Somewhere in the Night this gallery of film noir characters challenges the stereotypes of the wise cracking detective and the alluring femme fatale Despite their differences they all have something in common a belief in self reinvention Nightmare Alley is a thorough examination of how film noir disputes this notion at the heart of the American Dream Central to many of these films Mark Osteen argues is the story of an individual trying by dint of hard work or more often illicit enterprises to overcome his or her origins and achieve material success In the wake of World War II the noir genre tested the dream of upward mobility and the ideas of individualism liberty equality and free enterprise that accompany it Employing an impressive array of theoretical perspectives including psychoanalysis art history feminism and music theory and combining close reading with original primary source research Nightmare Alley proves both the diversity of classic noir and its potency This provocative and wide ranging study revises and refreshes our understanding of noir s characters themes and cultural significance

New York State Appellate Division , Critical Theory and Film Fabio Vighi,2012-05-03 Critical Theory and Film brings together critical theory and film to enhance the critical potential of both The book focuses on the Frankfurt School most notably the works of Adorno and Horkheimer as well as associated thinkers It seeks to demonstrate that cinema can help critical theory repoliticize culture and society and affirm the theoretical and political impact of cinematic knowledge After discussing how the Frankfurt School saw cinema as an instrument of capitalism use to promote the cultural and political regimentation of the masses Vighi then proceeds to demonstrate that critical theory can in fact suggest a different verdict on the progressive potential of cinema Each chapter focuses on a key critical theory concept that is explained and redefined through film analysis to unravel the hidden presuppositions and most radical consequences of critical theory A unique contribution to the literature this volume in the Critical Theory and Contemporary Society series offer an innovative reading of film as a critical tool drawing on the latest developments in Lacanian theory

Pulp Fiction to Film Noir William Hare,2014-01-10 During the Great Depression pulp fiction writers created a new distinctly American detective story one that stressed the development of fascinating often bizarre characters rather than the twists and turns of clever plots This new crime fiction adapted brilliantly to the screen birthing a cinematic genre that French cinema intellectuals following World War II christened film noir Set on dark streets late at night in cheap hotels and bars and populated by the dangerous people who frequented these locales these films introduced a new antihero a tough brooding rebellious loner embodied by Humphrey Bogart as Sam Spade in The Maltese Falcon and Philip Marlowe in The Big Sleep This volume provides a detailed exploration of film noir tracing its evolution the influence of such legendary writers as Dashiell Hammett and Raymond Chandler and the films that propelled this dark genre to popularity in the mid 20th century Film Noir Bruce Crowther, 2011-12-31 With the advent of the Second World War a new mood was discernible in film drama an atmosphere of disillusion and a sense of foreboding a dark quality that derived as much from the characters depicted as from the cinematographer's art These films among them such classics as Double Indemnity The Woman in the Window Touch of Evil and Sunset Boulevard emerged retrospectively as a genre in themselves when a French film critic referred to them collectively as film noir Bruce Crowther looks into noir's literary origins often in the novels of the so called hard boiled school typified by Raymond Chandler Dashiell Hammett and Cornell Woolrich and at how the material translated to the screen noting in particular influences from German expressionist films and the almost indispensable techniques of flashback and voice over narration He also assesses the contribution made by the players by actors such as Robert Mitchum Dick Powell Alan Ladd and John Garfield and actresses such as Barbara Stanwyck Elizabeth Scott Joan Crawford and Gloria Grahame together with a roll call of supporting players whose screen presence could lend almost any film the noir imprimatur Noir was in its heyday from 1945 to 1955 a time when paranoia and disillusion anxiety and violence could be said to have been part of the fabric of American and particularly Hollywood society yet its impact and its influence are with us still in films as diverse as The French Connection Chinatown and Body Heat This Book commemorates a special period in film making and a unique combination of talent resulting in a spectrum of films that are as welcome today on their small screen airings as they were when first shown in cinema The Big Book of Senior Moments Bennett Melville, 2015-10-20 Old age isn't for wimps nor is it for those without a sense of humor The Big Book of Senior Moments is chock full of those small blunders momentary lapses and misplaced keys that happen to all of us Humor might not help you remember your cat's name but it will certainly make you feel less alone Did you know that Albert Einstein once searched frantically for his misplaced train ticket because he couldn't remember where he was going Or that Marilyn Monroe forgot the same line through 52 takes during the filming of Some Like It Hot Can you believe that Marlon Brando had to have his lines written on another actor's forehead so he could get through a scene If you have done something like this don't despair for you are among other greats like Lincoln Beethoven Newton Toscanini and a whole assortment of presidents poets philosophers popes and Nobel Prize winners The Big Book of Senior Moments will be sure to bring a smile to friends and family alike Don't forget to pick up your copy today Extravagances Cristina Giorcelli, Paula Rabinowitz, 2015-12-01 This final volume in the four volume series Habits of Being shows how the dialectic between everyday appearance and outrageous acts is mediated through clothing and accessories It considers how clothing and accessories can move quickly from the ordinary to the extravagant Employing
