The example of "The Body Shop" Katharina Maute, Jennifer Borchers, 2013-10-18 Seminar paper from the year 2013 in the subject Business economics Offline Marketing and Online Marketing grade 1 University of Southern Denmark Marketing Schallehn 2012 p 10 brands are under pressure to be in accordance with this need Especially when acting on a diverse and particularly saturated market it is important for every company to distinguish itself from the market place This distinction can be accomplished by providing confidence or trust cf Schallehn 2012 p VII A relatively new approach which is aimed at strengthening this brand trust is the concept of brand authenticity Schallehn 2012 p VII But what exactly makes a brand authentic This question divides authors There are several approaches which define multiple ways of what can make a brand authentic We assume that most of these theories do not contradict and can be used parallel something we will show with the example of the 1976 founded British cosmetics producer and franchisor THE BODY SHOP For this we exemplarily examine THE BODY SHOP s authenticity by comparing the company s communication activities to the core authenticity theories In doing so we want to figure out if THE BODY SHOP can be seen as authentic in light of the literature It is not our intention to prove if the company is subjectively or perceived authentic For this purpose we firstly clarify how authenticity becomes apparent see chapter 2 Afterwards we shortly introduce THE BODY SHOP s five core values see chapter 2 2 because they are the basis for all the company s communication activities Then we introduce several theories see chapter 3 which show different models of what makes a brand authentic And in addition we apply the appropriate theories to THE BODY SHOP s communication activities concerning the company values see chapter 3 Ordinary Consumption Jukka Gronow, Alan Warde, 2013-01-11 The sociology of consumption has concentrated unduly on the more spectacular and visual aspects of contemporary consumer behaviour thereby constructing an unbalanced and misleading view This collection emphasises ordinary rather than extraordinary items routine and repetitive behaviour rather than conscious decision making It studies practical contexts of use rather than decisions to purchase and analyses collective identification rather than personal identity Each essay argues

one or more of these points for the most part using new empirical material from several different national contexts The topics analysed include shopping in Taiwan second home ownership in France environmental considerations concerning food choice in Denmark the take up of new domestic technologies in Finland and kitchen design in England Key concepts like tradition routine and habit are clarified and new conceptual distinctions are made with the book defending theoretical approaches deriving from Simmel Weber Durkheim and Bourdieu Ordinary Consumption promotes a distinctive approach to the understanding of the central practices of consumer society it is a book with a controversial message one which will be a source of debate about the appropriate agenda for future research Ladies who Lunge Tara Brabazon,2002 Ladies who Lunge Essays on Difficult Women dances through history with the unconventional woman Witty and refreshing the tone texture and feeling of the words on the page are as unconventional as the plucky women who punctuate the prose It is a tough determined moving frank and funny review of difficult women how they got there how we can understand their actions and how we can learn from them Mind, Body & Soul Body Shop (Firm),1998 A popular skin and hair care store offers guidance on enjoying physical and mental well being through a wide range of health and beauty therapies including healing foods natural medicines t ai chi aromatherapy and meditation 25 000 first printing Public Relations Jacquie L'Etang,Magda Pieczka,2006 This important volume will stimulate debate about the boundaries definitions functions and effects of public relations The editors are Lecturers in Public Relations at the Stirling Media Research Institute University of Stirling Scotland Domestic Violence in Health Contexts: A Guide for Healthcare Professions Parveen Ali,Julie McGarry,2019-11-16 This book is taking a broad health focused approach towards Domestic Violence and Abuse DVA It is now well established that DVA exerts a significant and detrimental impact on the health and wellbeing of those who experience abuse Universally healthcare professionals encounter individuals and families where DVA is or has taken place This book is beneficial to a range of health care professionals through an exploration of theories and classifications of DVA consideration of DVA in different contexts and consideration of the core issues surrounding working with individuals and families where DVA has been identified It provides a much needed evidence based addition to the existing texts in this field in terms of the inclusion of real life scenarios reflective exercises and pointers for further practice development This book is a key point of reference for professionals working within a broad range of health care environments Mind, Body and Soul Tim Blanks,Emma Callery,2002-03 Offers a complete practical guide to achieving the harmony we crave from the immediate physical needs of skin and hair to the yearnings of the soul The Mind section examines stress and considers the results you can expect from the various therapies from hypnotherapy to mediation that assert the power of the mind over the body Body looks at physical fitness covering everything from diet and fitness to simple innovative solutions to skin care problems Includes practical information on a range of therapies from aromatherapy to t ai chi and yoga Soul analyzes the distinct cycles of spiritual evolution and details ways to enrich your own spiritual life through personal rituals Illustrated
