The Passing of Postmodernism Josh Toth, 2010-03-24 The Passing of Postmodernism addresses the increasingly prevalent assumption that a period marked by poststructuralism and metafiction has passed and that literature and film are once again engaging sincerely with issues of ethics and politics In discussions of various twentieth and twenty first century writers directors and theorists from Michel Foucault and Slavoj i ek to Thomas Pynchon and David Lynch Josh Toth demonstrates that a certain utopian spirit persisted within and actually defined the postmodern project Just as modernism was animated by an idealistic belief that it could finally realize the utopia beckoning on the horizon postmodernism was compelled by an equally utopian belief that it could finally reject the possibility of all such illusory ideals Toth argues that this specter of an impossible future is and must remain both possible and impossible a ghostly promise of what is always still to come Josh Toth teaches literature and critical theory at Grant MacEwan College and is coeditor with Neil Brooks of The Mourning After Attending the Wake of Postmodernism Encyclopedia of Religion and Film Eric Michael Mazur, 2011-03-08 Comprising 91 A Z entries this encyclopedia provides a broad and comprehensive introduction to the topic of religion within film Technology has enabled films to reach much wider audiences enabling today's viewers to access a dizzying number of films that employ diverse symbolism and communicate a vast array of viewpoints Encyclopedia of Religion and Film will provide such an audience with the tools to begin their own exploration of the deeper meanings of these films and grasp the religious significance within Organized alphabetically this encyclopedia provides more than 90 entries on the larger religious traditions the major film producing regions of the globe the films that have stirred controversy the most significant religious symbols and the more important filmmakers The included topics provide substantially more information on the intersection of religion and film than any of the similar volumes currently available While the emphasis is on the English speaking world and the films produced therein there is also substantial representation of non English non Western film and filmmakers providing significant intercultural coverage to the topic TLA Film and Video Guide David Bleiler, 1999 Detailed indexes by star director genre country of origin and theme Lavishly illustrated with over 450 photos Comprehensive selection of international cinema from over 50 countries Over 9 000 films reviewed Up to date information on video availability and pricing Appendices with award listings TLA Bests and recommended films

South African Cultural Studies Christopher J. Lee, Andrew Offenburger, 2025-09-16 This book offers a holistic guide as to how South African identity and culture can be understood in the past present and future Drawing from the rich archive of previously published articles from the journal Safundi South African Cultural Studies documents the mutual histories of the country and the journal over the past quarter century Divided into six sections the first section addresses cultural figures including Oprah Winfrey Trevor Noah Olive Schreiner and Dimitri Tsfendas an unusual group that illustrates the unique and international character of South African culture The second part brings attention to the important role that photography has had in depicting and narrating South African cultural life whether through the intimacies found in recent images by Zanele Muholi or the historical work of David Goldblatt and Santu Mofokeng The third section of the book looks at music as another idiom that has proven indispensable for South African social life with Miriam Makeba Rodriguez and Die Antwoord providing examples The fourth and fifth sections of this book address sexuality and film respectively underscoring at once the contrasting approaches to popular culture that have surfaced in Safundi as well as their requisite abilities for grasping everyday tastes and mores. The worlds of Ms magazine, District 9, Black Panther and Spike Lee to pick only several topics raised supply ways of thinking across these chapters. The final section of the volume concludes with the role of place in the construction of culture whether museums, national monuments, the Spur restaurant franchise or landscapes like the Karoo. This book will be an indispensable resource for scholars, students, activists and critics as well as readers who are generally interested in understanding South Africa's cultural history over the past century.

Picturing America Antje Dallmann, Reinhard Isensee, Philipp Kneis, 2007. The result of three student-based conferences held at Humboldt University at Berlin between 2002-2005. Introduction

American Film History Cynthia Lucia, Roy Grundmann, Art Simon, 2015-06-25. From the American underground film to the blockbuster superhero, this authoritative collection of introductory and specialized readings explores the core issues and developments in American cinematic history during the second half of the twentieth century through the present day. Considers essential subjects that have shaped the American film industry from the impact of television and CGI to the rise of independent and underground film from the impact of the civil rights, feminist and LGBT movements to that of 9/11. Features a student-friendly structure dividing coverage into the periods 1960-1975, 1976-1990 and 1991 to the present day, each of which opens with an historical overview. Brings together a rich and varied selection of contributions by established film scholars combining broad historical, social and political contexts with detailed analysis of individual films including Midnight Cowboy, Nashville, Cat Ballou, Chicago, Back to the Future, Killer of Sheep, Daughters of the Dust, Nothing But a Man, Ali, Easy Rider, The Conversation, The Texas Chain Saw Massacre, Longtime Companion, The Matrix, The War Tapes, the Batman films and selected avant-garde and documentary films among many others. Additional online resources such as sample syllabi which include suggested readings and filmographies for both general and specialized courses will be available online. May be used alongside American Film History: Selected Readings: Origins to 1960 to provide an authoritative study of American cinema from its earliest days through the new millennium.

Motion Picture Almanac, 2003. The Films of the Nineties Robert A. Nowlan, Gwendolyn Wright Nowlan, 2001. The 1990s saw numerous actors break onto the scene in the movie industry and achieve great fame while others received only little if any recognition. The 1990s also had blockbuster films that were not to be forgotten as well as bombs that were. This filmography of course has them all good and bad. From Abilene to Zooman, over 3,000 feature-length English language films released between January 1, 1990 and December 31, 1999 are presented. Each entry has alternate titles, running time, detailed cast and production credits, a synopsis, often including critical comments and Academy Award nominees and winners.

The Essence of Film Noir Diana Royer, 2022-06-17. American classic films noir beginning with 1941's The Maltese Falcon and ending with 1950's Sunset Boulevard and the neo-noir films made from the 1970s onward share certain thematic aspects, stylistic qualities and cultural contexts. Their concern with politics, their depiction of con artists and the way their characters are shaped by America's puritanical religious roots show that these films are examples of a unique American genre even when the films directors are German emigres with artistic roots in European Expressionism The films psychological depth is revealed stylistically through complex narratives with select directors generating visual poetry as they deal with sex violence and betrayal Some films are based on popular novels inspired by true crime cases A unique approach to film noir scholarship this book discusses the genre s thematic aspects cultural contexts and stylistic qualities For those films based upon novels in depth analysis of the fiction is provided alongside the film version resulting in a fuller more thorough understanding of the genre
