Foundations for Fruitful Church Planting Ken L. Davis,2023-07-28 Church planting is one of the most challenging yet rewarding adventures you can embark on Often zealous planters and their teams launch their new church prematurely without taking time to lay a firm foundation for long term fruitful ministry Failure to do so often results in a weakened new church or even the new church closing after a few years Rather than focusing on methodology the how to s of church planting this book gives attention to six foundational concerns wise planters will need to nail down before they ever plant Biblical foundations Theological foundations Ecclesiological foundations Missiological foundations Spiritual foundations Practical foundations Although helpful for a wide range of planting leaders this book is particularly written for four specific groups those who feel called to plant and are making preparations their planting teammates and launch leaders those exploring church planting those who coach and train church planters Foundations for Fruitful Church Planting serves as a comprehensive resource that will guide you to think strategically plan carefully and prepare thoroughly to birth a healthy growing and reproducing congregation Each chapter includes recommended resources discussion questions and follow through exercises

Church Planting in Europe Evert Van de Poll,Joanne Appleton,2015-05-28 Church leaders and those who endeavor to plant new churches in Europe today face tremendous challenges not least because the church itself is considered by many to be outdated irrelevant or even an abusive sect Drawing on a wealth of experience Church Planting in Europe helps to answer the question of how churches can become more relevant to the societies in which they exist From biblical and missiological reflections to case studies and practical examples the book gives insights into many of the key issues that church planters and those concerned with missionary renewal of existing churches are grappling with Special attention is paid to the sociocultural and religious characteristics of Europe which is marked by secularization new forms of spirituality and a unique Christian heritage asking what are typical barriers and bridges for the communication of the gospel The contributors represent a wide variety of backgrounds and contexts across Europe and this is reflected in the breadth of topics covered The chapters were presented during the Mission in Europe Symposium in Belgium July 2014 and the highlights of the discussions afterwards are also included The result is a valuable resource for church leaders mission practitioners and theologians alike

Church Planting in the Secular West Paas,2016 An expert study of church planting in the most secular part of contemporary Europe In this book Stefan Paas offers thoughtful analysis of reasons and motives for missionary church planting in Europe and he explores successful and unsuccessful strategies in that post Christian secularized context Drawing in part on his own involvement with planting two churches in the Netherlands Paas explores confessional motives growth motives and innovation motives for church planting in Europe tracing them back to different traditions and reflecting on them from theological and empirical perspectives He presents examples from the European context and offers sound advice for improving existing missional practices Paas also draws out lessons for North America in a chapter coauthored with Darrell Guder and John Franke Finally Paas weaves together the various threads in the book with a theological defense of church planting Presenting new research as it does this critical missiological perspective will add significantly to a fuller understanding of church planting in our contemporary context
