British Battleship vs German Battleship Angus Konstam, 2020-12-24 At the outbreak of World War II the four key Capital German ships comprised the Bismarck Tirpitz Scharnhorst and Gneisenau Their primary threats were the Royal Navy's King George V class battleships the most modern British battleships in commission during World War II and some of the Navy's most powerful vessels Five ships of this class were built HMS King George V Prince of Wales Duke of York Howe late 1942 and Anson late 1942 The powerful vessels in this class would clash with the pride of the Kriegsmarine in two major engagements first during the Battle of the Denmark Strait and subsequent pursuit of the Bismarck between 24 and 27 May 1941 and again at the Battle of the North Cape on 26 December 1943

Alongside the King George V class the Royal Navy's two ship Nelson class Nelson and Rodney comprised Britain's only other battleships built in the interwar years Both ships served extensively in the Atlantic Mediterranean and Indian oceans during the war but their moment of fame came when Rodney together with King George V chased down and bombarded the doomed Bismarck in May 1941 This superbly detailed addition to the Duel series compares and contrasts the design and development of these opposing capital ships and describes the epic clashes on the high seas that ended with the destruction of the Kriegsmarine's major naval assets

Political and Military Leadership in the World Wars Carl Cavanagh Hodge, 2021-03-16 This book approaches the World Wars and the decades between them as a single unit in modern history It is impossible to understand either the cause or conduct of the 1939-45 war without an appreciation of the issues not wholly answered in the conflict of 1914-18 Bridging the World Wars was the establishment revision and ultimate collapse of the Versailles settlement and the League of Nations system between 1919 and 1939 The 1919 settlement was contested in the 1920s by Fascist Italy and began to unravel irreparably in 1931 with Japan's incursion into Manchuria The strategic thought of the interwar years is therefore especially instructive in assessing the prosecution of WWII as the military ventures of these two revisionist powers pointed toward future developments even before Germany thrust a new way of war upon Eastern and Western Europe Meanwhile Britain France and the United States began an incremental conversion to new approaches to war in the air and on the sea in particular The interwar decades are best understood as a period of calibrated rearmament by all the powers based on assumptions about the probability of a future war and the nature of its prosecution The Destruction of the Bismarck

David Bercuson,Holger H. Herwig,2001-10-29 Reconstructs the final days of the Bismarck the flagship of the German navy which was tracked and destroyed by a British armada in a dramatic turning point in World War II Germany at War
