The Black Experience in Natchez, 1720-1880 Ronald L. F. Davis, 1993 The Black Experience in Children's Books. Selected by Barbara Rollock Coordinator of Children's Services. -- Barbara Rollock, 1974 Embracing, Evaluating, and Examining African American Children's and Young Adult Literature Wanda M. Brooks, Jonda C. McNair, 2008 Serious scholarship on African American

children's and young adult literature is a relatively recent phenomenon. To date, only a handful of book-length works aside from doctoral dissertations have been devoted to the exploration of this body of work and the historical works that are at its foundation. Embracing, Evaluating, and Examining African American Children's and Young Adult Literature features 12 original essays that present research related to African American children's literature books intended for youth that are written by and about African Americans conducted by scholars from leading academic institutions. Editors Wanda M. Brooks and Jonda C. McNair offer a bouquet of diverse perspectives on African American children's and young adult literature, focusing attention on texts, on readers, and on pedagogical strategies that have the potential to bring the texts and the readers together. Beginning with a foreword by one of the leading scholars in the field of African American children's and young adult literature, Rudine Sims Bishop, the varied disciplinary perspectives put forth in this book will inspire others to embrace, evaluate, and examine African American children's and young adult literature for many years to come. Shapers of American Childhood Kathy Merlock Jackson, Mark I. West, 2018-09-24 The experience of growing up in the U.S. is shaped by many forces. Relationships with parents and teachers are deeply personal and definitive. Social and economic contexts are broader and harder to quantify. Key individuals in public life have also had a marked impact on American childhood. These 18 new essays examine the influence of pivotal figures in the culture of 20th and 21st century childhood and child rearing, from Benjamin Spock and Walt Disney to Ruth Handler, Barbie's inventor, and Ernest Thompson Seton, founder of the Boy Scouts of America. Starting Out Right: Choosing Books about Black People for Young Children Pre-school Through Third Grade Children's Literature Review Board, 1972 The Cambridge Companion to African American Women's Literature Angelyn Mitchell, Danille K. Taylor, 2009-04-30 The Cambridge Companion to African American Women's Literature covers a period dating back to the eighteenth century. These specially commissioned essays highlight the artistry, complexity, and diversity of a literary tradition that ranges from Lucy Terry to Toni Morrison. A wide range of topics are addressed, from the Harlem Renaissance to the Black Arts Movement and from the performing arts to popular fiction. Together, the essays provide an invaluable guide to a rich, complex tradition of women writers in conversation with each other as they critique American society and influence American letters. Accessible and vibrant with the needs of undergraduate students in mind, this Companion will be of great interest to anybody who wishes to gain a deeper understanding of this important and vital area of American literature. Multicultural Literature for Children and Young Adults Mingshui Cai, 2002-10-30 There is much discussion of multiculturalism in education. This is especially true of multicultural literature for children and young adults. The rise of multicultural literature is a political rather than a literary movement; it is a movement to claim space in literature and in education for historically marginalized social groups rather than one to renovate the craft of literature itself. Multicultural literature has been closely bound with the cause of multiculturalism in general and thus has been confronted with resistance from conservatives. This book discusses many of the controversial issues surrounding multicultural literature for children and young adults The volume begins with a look at some of the foundational and theoretical issues related to multicultural literature The second part of the book addresses issues related to the creation and critique of multicultural literature including the authorship of such works and the role of the reader in determining whether or not a work is multicultural The third looks at the place of multicultural literature in the education of children and young adults Throughout its discussion the book makes extensive references to a large body of multicultural fiction and provides a thorough review of research on this important topic

practices research stories and conversations from a Black African diasporic lens Excluded from traditional design history and educational canons that heavily favor European modernist influences the work and experiences of Black designers have been systematically overlooked in the profession for decades However given the national focus on diversity equity and inclusion in the aftermath of the nationwide Black Lives Matter protests in the United States educators practitioners and students now have the opportunity as well as the social and political momentum to make long term systemic changes in design education research and practice reclaiming the contributions of Black designers in the process The Black Experience in Design an anthology centering a range of perspectives spotlights teaching practices research stories and conversations from a Black African diasporic lens Through the voices represented this text exemplifies the inherently collaborative and multidisciplinary nature of design providing access to ideas and topics for a variety of audiences meeting people as they are and wherever they are in their knowledge about design Ultimately The Black Experience in Design serves as both inspiration and a catalyst for the next generation of creative minds tasked with imagining shaping and designing our future
