Beaulieu,2006-04-30 Women have had a complex experience in African American culture The first work of its kind this encyclopedia approaches African American literature from a Women s Studies perspective While Yolanda Williams Page s Encyclopedia of African American Women Writers provides biographical entries on more than 150 literary figures this book is much broader in scope Included are several hundred alphabetically arranged entries on African American women writers as well as on male writers who have treated women in their works Entries on genres periods themes characters historical events texts places and other topics are included as well Each entry is written by an expert contributor and relates its subject to the overall experience of women in African American literature Entries cite works for further reading and the encyclopedia closes with a selected general bibliography African American culture is enormously diverse and the experience of women in African American society is especially complex Women were among the first African American writers and works by black women writers are popular among students and general readers alike At the same time African American women have been oppressed and texts by black male authors represent women in a variety of ways The first of its kind this encyclopedia approaches African American literature from a Women s Studies perspective and thus significantly illuminates the African American cultural experience through literary works Included are several hundred alphabetically arranged entries written by numerous expert contributors In addition to covering male and female African American authors the encyclopedia also discusses themes major works and characters genres periods historical events places and other topics Included are entries on such authors as Maya Angelou James Baldwin Frederick Douglass Nikki Giovanni June Jordan Claude McKay Ishmael Reed Sojourner Truth Phillis Wheatley And many others In addition the many works discussed include Beloved Blanche on the Lam I know Why the Caged Bird Sings The Men of Brewster Place Quicksand The Street Waiting to Exhale And many more The many topical entries cover Black Feminism Black Nationalism Conjuring Children s and Young Adult Literature Detective Fiction Epistolary Novel Motherhood Sexuality Spirituality Stereotypes And many others Entries relate their topics to the experience of African American women and cite works for further reading Features and Benefits Includes hundreds of alphabetically arranged entries Draws on the work of numerous expert contributors Includes a selected general bibliography Offers a range of finding aids such as a list of entries a guide to related topics and an extensive index Supports the literature curriculum by helping students analyze major writers and works Supports the social studies curriculum by helping students use literature to understand the experience of African American women Covers the full chronological range of African American literature Fosters a respect for cultural diversity Develops research skills by directing students to additional sources of information Builds bridges between African American history literature and Women s Studies

Sex for Life Laura Carpenter, John DeLamater, 2012-02 Sexual beliefs behaviors and identities are interwoven throughout our lives from childhood to old age An edited collection of original empirical contributions united through its use of a distinctive cutting edge theoretical framework Sex for Life critically examines sexuality across the entire lifespan Rooted in diverse disciplines and employing a wide range of research methods the chapters explore the sexual and social transitions that typically map to broad life stages as well as key age graded physiological transitions such as puberty and menopause while drawing on the latest developments in gender sexuality and life course studies Sex for Life explores a wide variety of topics including puberty sexual initiation coming out sexual assault marriage life partnering disability onset immigration divorce menopause and widowhood always attending to the social locations including gender race ethnicity and social class that shape and are shaped by sexuality The empirical work collected in Sex for Life ultimately speaks to important public policy issues such as sex education aging societies and the increasing politicization of scientific research Accessibly written the contributions capture the interplay between individual lives and the ever changing social historical context facilitating new insight not only into people s sexual lives but also into ways of studying them ultimately providing a fresh new perspective on sexuality

Adolescent Sexuality in a Changing

American Society Catherine S. Chilman,1978 Disfigured Images Patricia Morton,1991-05-21 Much of the material unearthed by this book is ugly states historiographer Patricia Morton who exposes profoundly dehumanizing constructions of reality embedded in American scholarship as it has attempted to render the history of the Afro American woman Focusing on the scholarly literature of fact rather than on fictional or popular portrayals Disfigured Images explores the telling and frequent mis telling of the story of black women during a century of American historiography beginning in the late nineteenth century and extending to the present Morton finds that during this period a large body of scholarly literature was generated that presented little fact and much fiction about black women s history The book s ten chapters take long and lingering looks at the black woman s prefabricated past Contemporary revisionist studies with their goals of discovering and articulating the real nature of the slave woman s experience and role are thoroughly examined in the conclusion Disfigured Images complements current work by recognizing in its findings a long needed refutation of a caricatured mythical version of black women s history Morton s introduction presents an overview of her subject emphasizing the mythical ingrained nature of the black woman s image in historiography as a natural and permanent slave The succeeding chapters use historical and social science works as primary sources to explore such issues as the foundations of sexism racism the writing of W E B DuBois twentieth century notions of black women current black and women s studies new and old images of motherhood and more The conclusion investigates how and why recent American historiographical scholarship has banished the old myths by presenting a more accurate history of black women This keenly perceptive and original study should find an influential place in both women s studies and black studies programs as well as in American history American literature and sociology departments With its unusually complete panorama of the period covered it would be a unique and valuable addition to courses such as slavery the American South women in North American history Afro American history race and sex in American literature and discourse and the sociology of race Amiri Baraka Jerry Watts,2001-08 In a chapter sure to prove controversial Watts links Baraka s famous misogyny to an attempt to bury his own homosexual past BOOK JACKET

Adolescent Sexualities Paula Allen-Meares,David A. Shore,1986 This landmark volume focuses on the promotion of healthy adolescent sexuality Professionals in social service and mental health settings as well as teachers and other helping professionals can apply these practical intervention strategies drawn from research and practical experience to educate adolescents and to prevent sex related problems Women to Women Norvella Carter,1996 An insightful collection of essays for black women written by black women scholars on today s issues Titles include Bridging the Gap From the Older to the Younger Woman When Your Mate Is Absent Handling Your Emotions Robbing Peter to Pay Paul Breaking the Debt Cycle and more A Turbulent Voyage Floyd W. Hayes,2000-05 This anthology is designed to introduce the reader to the contours and content of African American Studies The text and readings included here not only impart information but seek as their foremost goal to precipitate in the reader an awareness of the complex and changing character of the African American experience its origins developments and future challenges The book aims to engage readers in the critical analysis of a broad spectrum of subjects themes and issues ancient and medieval Africa Western European domination and African enslavement resistance to oppression African American expressive culture family and educational policies economic and political matters and the importance of ideas The materials included in this anthology comprise a discussion of some of the fundamental problems and prospects related to the African American experience that deserve attention in a course in African American Studies African American Studies is a broad field concerned with the examination of the black experience both historically and presently Hence the subjects themes and issues included in this text transcend the narrow confines of traditional academic disciplinary boundaries In selecting materials for this book Floyd W Hayes was guided by a developmental or historical approach in the general compilation of each section s readings By doing so the author hopes that the reader will be enabled to arrive at a critical understanding of the conditions and forces that have influenced the African American experience A Collegiate Press book National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1973 First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965 70 Ebony ,1974-04 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine How Long? How Long? : African American Women in the Struggle for Civil Rights Davis Belinda Robnett Assistant Professor of Sociology University of California,1997-06-25 A compelling and readable narrative history How Long How Long presents both a rethinking of social movement theory and a controversial thesis that chroniclers have egregiously neglected the most important leaders of the Civil Rights movement African American women in favor of higher profile African American men and white women Author Belinda Robnett argues that the diversity of experiences of the African American women organizers has been underemphasized in favor of monolithic treatments of their femaleness and blackness Drawing heavily on interviews with actual participants in the American Civil Rights movement this work retells the movement as seen through the eyes and spoken through the voices of African American women participants It is the first book to provide an analysis of race class gender and culture as substructures that shaped the organization and outcome of the movement Robnett examines the differences among women participants in the movement and offers the first cohesive analysis of the gendered relations and interactions among its black activists thus demonstrating that femaleness and blackness cannot be viewed as sufficient signifiers for movement experience and individual identity Finally this book makes a significant contribution to social movement theory by providing a crucial understanding of the continuity and complexity of social movements clarifying the need for different layers of leadership that come to satisfy different movement needs An engaging narrative history as well as a major contribution to social movement and feminist theory How Long How Long will appeal to students and scholars of social activism women s studies American history and African American studies and to general readers interested in the perennially fascinating story of the American Civil Rights movement The Cambridge Companion to African American Women's Literature Angelyn Mitchell, Danille K. Taylor, 2009-04-30 The Cambridge Companion to African American Women's Literature covers a period dating back to the eighteenth century. These specially commissioned essays highlight the artistry, complexity, and diversity of a literary tradition that ranges from Lucy Terry to Toni Morrison. A wide range of topics are addressed from the Harlem Renaissance to the Black Arts Movement and from the performing arts to popular fiction. Together, the essays provide an invaluable guide to a rich, complex tradition of women writers in conversation with each other as they critique American society and influence American letters. Accessible and vibrant with the needs of undergraduate students in mind, this Companion will be of great interest to anybody who wishes to gain a deeper understanding of this important and vital area of American literature. Contemporary Families and Alternative Lifestyles Eleanor D. Macklin, Roger Harvey Rubin, 1983-02 Single parent families, reconstituted families, and dual earner families: this monumental effort synthesizes research and explores theories about such alternatives to traditional family life. Leading scholars were asked to write chapters about the new family forms. They review what is already known about their particular topic, its historical context, its impact on individuals and society, and suggestions for future directions. They also deal with such key issues as the reaction of religion to these changes.
