key text attributed to Padmasambhava the great Indian meditation master credited with bringing the Buddha's teachings to Tibet. The instructions here are clear, direct, and personal, illuminating the heart of Vajrayana Buddhist practice and philosophy. Included is the root text The Heart Essence of the Dakini by Padmasambhava and the commentary by Dudjom Rinpoche. Of interest to practitioners of all schools of Tibetan Buddhism. Sins and Sinners Phyllis Granoff, Koichi Shinohara, 2012-08-17 Sins and Sinners: Asian Perspectives brings together essays by leading scholars of Asian religions to explore the diversity of beliefs about sin and its remedies. Tales of the Slayer Joss Whedon, Various, 2003-11 A collection of original short stories based on the hit TV series created by Joss Whedon. Affective Critical Regionality Neil Campbell, 2016-08-17 Affective Critical Regionality offers a new approach to developing a sharper, more nuanced understanding of the relations between place, space, memory, and affect. It builds on the author's extensive work on the American West where he developed the idea of expanded critical regionalism to underline the West as multiple, dynamic, and relationally engaged in global/local processes, tensions between the rooted and the routed, and increasingly as relevant to debates around the politics of precarity and vulnerability. This book uses affective critical regionality to enable a re-valuation of the local as a powerful means to appreciate the everyday and the overlooked as vital elements within a more inclusive understanding of how we live. Exploring a variety of cultural materials including fiction, memoir, theory, poetry, and film, it demonstrates how this approach can deepen our understanding of and simultaneously provoke new relations with place. Moving beyond the US context through its use of international theoretical voices and texts, it will show how the concept is applicable to other cultural spheres. Treasury of the Eye of True Teaching Dahui, 2022-10-11 Thomas Cleary, one of America's most beloved translators of Buddhist texts, brings twelfth-century Chan master Dahui's monumental compilation of teachings to life for the first time in English. Treasury of the Eye of True Teaching Chinese Zhengfayanzang stands as among the greatest classics of Chan/Chinese Zen Buddhism, combining speeches, stories, dialogues, poems, and commentaries that the influential master Dahui (1089-1163) extracted from Chan lore. Compiled by Dahui's students during Song Dynasty China, this work is replete with the enigmatic, paradoxical wisdom for which Zen Buddhism is so well known. Central to this collection is the notion of great doubt in matters of language, conceptual thinking, and how we conceive of our existence. By working with great doubt through koan introspection and other meditative practices, a practitioner is able to push themselves to the limits of ideas and concepts until a breakthrough to enlightenment is achieved. In the words of Dahui, "Within great doubt, there necessarily exists great enlightenment." A fascinating compendium of literary and spiritual puzzles, Treasury of the Eye of True Teaching will challenge and inspire readers to work with great doubt themselves and to discover their inborn potential for enlightenment. Masterfully translated by one of America's foremost translators of Chinese classics into English, it is a captivating window into the literary world of Chinese Zen and essential reading for students of all Zen schools today. Step by Step Namgyal Wangchen, 2009-09-08 An introduction to the profound meditation methods of Tibetan Buddhism based on the teachings of the Tibetan saint and founder of the Gelug school Tsongkhapa. The techniques are simple, direct, and possess the power to radically alter the way we see the world and ourselves. The Complete Nyingma Tradition from Sutra to Tantra, Books 1 to 10 Chöying Tobden Dorje, 2015-06-02. In 1838 Chöying Tobden Dorje, a Buddhist yogi scholar of eastern Tibet, completed a multivolume masterwork that traces the entire path of the Nyingma tradition of Tibetan Buddhism from beginning to end. Written by a lay practitioner for laypeople, it was intended to be accessible, informative, inspirational, and above all, practical. Its twenty-five books or topical divisions offer a comprehensive and detailed view of the Buddhist path according to the early translation school of Tibetan Buddhism, spanning the vast range of Buddhist teachings from the initial steps to the highest esoteric teachings of great perfection. Chöying Tobden Dorje's magnum opus appears in English here for the first time. In Foundations of the Buddhist Path, which covers the first ten of the treatises' twenty-five books, the author surveys the scope of the entire work and then begins with the topics that set the cornerstones for all subsequent Buddhist practice: what constitutes proper spiritual apprenticeship, how to receive the teachings, how to make the best use of this life, and how to motivate ourselves to generate effort on the spiritual path. He then describes refuge and the vows that define the path of individual liberation, before turning to the bodhisattva's way, buddha nature, how to uplift the mind to supreme awakening, the bodhisattva's training, and the attainments of the paths leading to supreme awakening. Doctrine and Practice in Medieval Korean Buddhism, 2016-11-30. Ich n (1055-1101) is recognized as a Buddhist master of great stature in the East Asian tradition. Born a prince in the medieval Korean state of Koryŏ (960-1279), he traveled to Song China (960-1279) to study Buddhism and later compiled and published the first collection of East Asian exegetical texts. According to the received scholarly tradition, after returning to Korea, Ich n left the Hwaŏm (Huayan) school to found a new Ch'nt'ae (Tiantai) school when he realized that the synthesis between doctrinal learning and meditative practice in the latter would help bring together the discordant sects of Koryŏ Buddhism. In the late twentieth century, however, scholars began to question the assertion that Ich n forsook one school for another, arguing that his writings assembled in The Collected Works of State Preceptor Taegak (Taegak kuksa) do not portray a committed sectarian but a monk dedicated to developing a sophisticated and rigorous system of monastic education that encompassed all Buddhist intellectual traditions. In this first comprehensive study of Ich n's life and work in English, Richard McBride presents translations of select lectures, letters, essays, and poetry from The Collected Works to provide a more balanced view of Ich n's philosophy of life and understanding of key Buddhist teachings. The translations center on the monk's activities in the pan-East Asian Buddhist world and his compilation of scholarly texts, writings related to his interactions with royalty, and correspondence with his Chinese mentor Jinshui Jingyuan (1011-1088). By incorporating Ich n's work associated with doctrinal Buddhism and his poetry, McBride clearly shows that even in his most personal work, Ich n did not abandon Hwaŏm teachings for those of the Ch'nt'ae but rather encouraged monks to blend the best learning from all doctrinal traditions with meditative practice. The Buddha and His Teachings Narada, 2006-01-01.
