Lundy author of the James Beard Award winner Victuals The Blue Ribbon Cook Book Jennie C. Benedict, 2014-10-17

Jennie C Benedict's The Blue Ribbon Cook Book represents the very best in the tradition of southern regional cooking. Recipes for such classic dishes as Parker House rolls, lamb chops, corn pudding, Waldorf salad and cheese and nut sandwiches are nestled among longtime local favorites such as apple butter, rice pudding, griddle cakes and Benedictine the cucumber sandwich spread which bears Benedict's name. Throughout the cookbook Benedict's delightful voice shines. Once the most famous caterer in Louisville, Benedict also operated a celebrated tearoom and soda fountain and trained with Fannie Farmer at the Boston Cooking School. Five editions of Benedict's famous cookbook have been published and her aim in sharing her recipes was simple as she mentions in the preface: I have tried to give the young housekeeper just what she needs and for more experienced ones the best that can be had in the culinary art. As a creative entrepreneur, Benedict had a significant influence on the local culture and foodways. Her sweet and savory dishes were the stars of many Derby parties and yet she placed equal emphasis on simple luncheon and dinner recipes to satisfy the needs of home cooks. While her popular dishes graced genteel tables all over the Bluegrass, Benedict's chicken salad sandwiches sold from a pushcart offered Louisville children the first school lunches in the city. This new edition of The Blue Ribbon Cook Book welcomes new generations of readers and cooks: those who remember wearing white gloves and eating delicate tea sandwiches at the downtown department store as well as those who want to make satisfying regional classics such as blackberry jam cake like grandmother used to make. Food writer Susan Reigler introduces the story of Benedict's life and cuisine.
