The Body Of Brooklyn Sightlines:

The Body of Brooklyn David Lazar, 2003 Even before the controversy that surrounded the publication of A Million Little Pieces the question of truth has been at the heart of memoir From Elie Wiesel to Benjamin Wilkomirski to David Sedaris the veracity of writers claims has been suspect In this fascinating and timely collection of essays leading writers meditate on the subject of truth in literary nonfiction As David Lazar writes in his introduction How do we verify Do we care to Do we dare to eat the apple of knowledge and say it s true Or is it a peach Do we choose to Is it a subcategory of faith How do you respond when someone says This is really true Why do they choose to say it then The past and the truth are slippery things and the art of non fiction writing requires the writer to shape as well as explore In personal essays meditations on the nature of memory considerations of the genres of memoir prose poetry essay fiction and film the contributors to this provocative collection attempt to find answers to the question of what truth in nonfiction means Contributors John D Agata Mark Doty Su Friedrich Joanna Frueh Ray Gonz lez Vivian Gornick Barbara Hammer Kathryn Harrison Marianne Hirsch Wayne Koestenbaum Leonard Kriegel David Lazar Alphonso Lingis Paul Lisicky Nancy Mairs Nancy K Miller Judith Ortiz Cofer Phyllis Rose Oliver Sacks David Shields and Leo Spitzer Sightlines ,1989 In the Memory of the Map Christopher Norment, 2012-03-15 Throughout his life maps have been a source of imagination and wonder for Christopher Norment Mesmerized by them since the age of eight or nine he found himself courted and seduced by maps which served functional and allegorical roles in showing him worlds that he might come to know and helping him understand worlds that he had already explored Maps may have been the stuff of his dreams but they sometimes drew him away from places where he should have remained firmly rooted In the Memory of the Map explores the complex relationship among maps memory and experience what might be called a cartographical psychology or cartographical history Interweaving a personal narrative structured around a variety of maps with stories about maps as told by scholars poets and fiction writers this book provides a dazzlingly rich personal and intellectual account of what many of us take for granted A dialog between desire and the maps of his life an exploration of the pleasures utilitarian purposes benefits and character of maps this rich and powerful personal narrative is the matrix in which Norment embeds an exploration of how maps function in all our lives Page by page readers will confront the aesthetics mystery function power and shortcomings of maps causing them to reconsider the role that maps play in their lives Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2003-04 Fodor's New York City 2009 Fodor's, Inc. Fodor's Travel Publications, 2008-08-26 Describes points of interest in New York City including museums gardens zoos historic sites and seasonal events and recommends hotels restaurants and nightspots Great Expectation Dan Roche, 2008-09 In Great Expectation Dan Roche gives a man s perspective on what it means to start and expand a family relatively later in life Through a series of diary entries in turns humorous angst ridden and full of hope and joy Roche describes his own thoughts and concerns during the nine months of his wife s pregnancy With five years of parenting his irrepressible daughter Maeve under his belt Roche already forty five years old and his wife Maura face the prospect of another arrival and the myriad of emotions that come with a second child From revelling in the joys of pregnancy such as Maura s delight at having cleavage and being able to eat whatever she desires to assuaging the parental anxieties of choosing the right obstetrician correcting the mistakes one made with the first child and sending children to college in the future to navigating the unforeseen experiencing the unexpected death of a parent and feeling trepidation toward the thought of having a son Roche records his emotions with unusual candidness and intimacy Reflecting on day to day events and their significance in his family s life together Roche wonders what he is getting himself into and how much deeper he can immerse himself into parenting Together he and his wife face the bittersweet intersections of death and new life menace and hopefulness With sincerity and a mature wit Great Expectation stands as a wise recounting of nine months time with all of its chaos and charms and offers a fresh perspective for first time and veteran parents alike Fodor's New York City Fodor's Travel Guides, 2022-11-15

Anthropologies Beth Alvarado,2011-09-03 A vivid archive of memories Beth Alvarado's Anthropologies layers scenes portraits dreams and narratives in a dynamic cross cultural mosaic Bringing her lyrical tenor to bear on stories as diverse as harboring teen runaways gunfights with federales and improbable love Alvarado unveils the ways in which seemingly separate moments coalesce to forge a communal truth Woven from the threads of distinct family histories and ethnic identities Anthropologies creates a heightened understanding of how individual experiences are part of a larger shared fabric of lives Like the opening of a series of doors each turn of the page reveals some new reality and the memories that emerge from it Open one door and you are transported to a modest Colorado town in 1966 appraising animal tracks edged into a crust of snow while listening to stories of Saipan Open another and you are lounging in a lush Michoacán hacienda or in another the year is 1927 and you are standing on a porch in Tucson watching La Llorona turn a corner With vivid imagery and a poetic sensibility Anthropologies reenacts the process of remembering and so evokes a compelling narrative Each snapshot provides a glimpse into the past illuminating the ways in which memory and history are intertwined Whether the experience is of her own drug use or that of a great great grandmother's trek across the Great Plains with Brigham Young Alvarado's insight into the binding nature of memory illuminates a new way of understanding our place within families generations and cultures

I'll Be Your Mirror David Lazar,2017-01-01 In his third book of essays David Lazar blends personal meditations on sex and death with considerations of popular music and coping with anxiety through singing bowling and other distractions He sets his work apart as both in the essay and of the essay by throwing himself into the form's past interviewing or speaking to past masters and turning over rocks to find lost gems of the essay form I'll Be Your Mirror further expands the dimensions of contemporary nonfiction writing by concluding with a series of aphorisms Surreal comical and urban moments of being they are part Cioran part Kafka and part Lenny Bruce These are accompanied by Heather Frise's illustrations whose looking glass visions of motherhood funny and grotesque meet the vision of the aphorist in this most unusual nonfiction book

Dream Not of Other Worlds Huston Diehl,2007-04 When Huston Diehl began teaching a fourth grade class in a Negro elementary school in rural Louisa County Virginia the school's white superintendent assured her that he didn't expect her to teach those children anything She soon discovered how these low expectations widely shared by the white community impeded her students ability to learn With its overcrowded classrooms poorly trained teachers empty bookshelves and meager supplies her segregated school was vastly inferior to the county's white elementary schools and the message it sent her students was clear dream not of other worlds In her often lyrical memoir Diehl reveals how in the intimacy of the classroom her students reached out to her a young white northerner and shared their fears anxieties and personal beliefs Repeatedly surprised and challenged by her students Diehl questions her long standing middle class assumptions and confronts her own prejudices In doing so she eloquently reflects on what the students taught her about the hurt of bigotry and the humiliation of poverty as well as dignity courage and resiliency Set in the waning days of the Jim Crow South Dream Not of Other Worlds chronicles an important moment in American history Diehl examines the history of black education in the South and narrates the dramatic struggle to integrate Virginia s public schools Meeting with some of her former students and colleagues and visiting the school where she once taught she considers what has and has not changed after more than thirty years of integrated schooling This provocative book raises many issues that are of urgent concern today the continuing social consequences of segregated schools the role of public education in American society and the challenges of educating minority and poor children

The Great Chain of Life Joseph Wood Krutch,2005-08 Originally published in 1956 The Great Chain of Life brings a humanist s keen eye and ear to one of the great questions of the ages What am I Originally a scholar of literature and theater toward the end of his career Joseph Wood Krutch turned to the study of the natural world Bringing his keen intellect to bear on the places around him Krutch crafted some of the most memorable and important works of nature writing extant Whether anticipating the arguments of biologists who now ascribe high levels of cognition to the so called lower animals recognizing the importance of nature for a well lived life or seeing nature as an elaborately interconnected interdependent network Krutch s seminal work contains lessons just as resonant today as they were when the book was first written Lavishly illustrated with thirteen beautiful woodcuts by Paul Landacre an all but lost yet important Los Angeles artist whom Rockwell Kent called the best American wood engraver working The Great Chain of Life will be cherished by new generations of readers

Little Big World Jeffrey Hammond,2010-04-15 Collections are more about who one is than about what is collected In Little Big World Jeffrey Hammond s resonant 1950 s inner child speaks through the reflective sixty something man about the culture and magic of a spectrum of action figure playsets through a lifetime Marilynn Gelfman Karp author In Flagrate Collecto

chapters that make up the volume illuminate a body of work that changed the way cinema is created defined experienced understood and interpreted Thematically organized into four parts the Companion discusses gender exploration and self representation in Bergman s cinema draws evolutionary insights from The Seventh Seal explores existential feelings and religious iconography in the early 1960s trilogy journeys through the filmmaker s island landscape in the context of cinematic tourism and much more Throughout the book hailing from a range of global contexts and backgrounds the authors provide fresh insights into a deeply complex and challenging film artist often from unexpected perspectives An innovative mixture of new scholarship and fresh updated employments of older approaches A Companion to Ingmar Bergman Examines Bergman s cinema through methodologies as diverse as Film Philosophy Star Studies Bisexual Studies Tourism Studies Transgender Studies and Evolutionary Studies Delves into the director s early period in the late 1940s 1950s through his most challenging modernist period in the 1960s and into the 1980s Engages with films long considered problematic by commentators plus unproduced Bergman screenplays including All These Women The Petrified Prince Face to Face and From the Life of the Marionettes A Companion to Ingmar Bergman is a must read for advanced undergraduate and graduate film students postgraduate scholars college and university lecturers and researchers particularly those interested in the application of classical and modern approaches to the study of twentieth century cinema and Bergman fans around the world

Happenstance Robert Root, 2013-11-01 Reflecting on how a student s parents met because of a fly ball to center field in a summer softball game author Robert Root wondered how the lives of that student s parents and of the student himself would have changed had the batter bunted or struck out Haunted by this pure example of happenstance he began to ponder his own existence dependent in part on geology the Niagara Escarpment and history the Erie Canal He wondered how happenstance had influenced the course of his parents lives in particular their marriages they married and divorced each other twice and consequently the shaping of his identity Happenstance investigates the effects of that phenomenon and choice on one man s life Root explores this theme in interwoven strands of narrative interpretation and reflection One strand The Hundred Days follows his attempt to write one hundred journal entries each about a different day in his life to recover memories of specific moments or collections of moments In the strand headed Album he examines and interprets old family photographs in light of the way he reads them in the present as someone now privy to a family secret that directed his and his siblings lives without their knowledge Interspersed among these brief interpretations and narratives are reflections on happenstance and choice a sequence contemplating their effect on his life and perhaps on all our lives Through juxtaposition and accumulation the book s incremental unraveling of meaning imitates the process of unexpected epiphanies and gradual self discovery in anyone s life By revisiting individual days giving voice to photographs that mutely preserve family moments and reflecting on the way happenstance and choice determine the directions lives take Robert Root generates a meditation on identity anchored in an album in words and images of a mid twentieth century life Return to Warden's Grove

Christopher Norment, 2008-04 Based on three seasons of field research in the Canadian Arctic Christopher Norment's exquisitely crafted meditation on science and nature wildness and civilization is marked by bottomless prose reflection on timeless questions and keen observations of the world and our place in it In an era increasingly marked by cutting edge research at the cellular and molecular level what is the role for scientists of sympathetic observation What can patient waiting tell us about ourselves and our place in the world His family at home in the American Midwest Norment spends months on end living in isolation in the Northwest Territories studying the ecology of the Harris's Sparrow Although the fourteenth century German mystic Meister Eckhardt wrote God is at home we are in the far country Norment argues that an intellectual emotional and spiritual far country can be found in the lives of animals and arctic wilderness For Norment doing science can lead to an enriched aesthetic and emotional connection to something beyond the self and a way to develop a sacred sense of place in a world that feels increasingly less welcoming certain and familiar

Detailing Trauma Arianne Zwartjes, 2012-09-15 In a series of linked essays Detailing Trauma explores the many types of wounds from which the human body and spirit may suffer and heal Zwartjes's poetic prose humanizes the technical descriptions of medical conditions and illuminates the scientific understanding of emotional states

Grammar Lessons Michele Morano, 2007-04 In the thirteen personal essays in Grammar Lessons Michele Morano connects the rules of grammar to the stories we tell to help us understand our worlds Living and traveling in Spain during a year of teaching English to university students she learned to translate and interpret her past and present worlds to study the surprising moments of communication as a way to make sense of language and meaning longing and memory Morano focuses first on her year of living in Oviedo in the early 1990s a time spent immersing herself in a new culture and language while working through the relationship she had left behind with an emotionally dependent and suicidal man Next after subsequent trips to Spain she explores the ways that travel sparks us to reconsider our personal histories in the context of larger historical legacies Finally she turns to the aftereffects of travel to the constant negotiations involved in retelling and understanding the stories of our lives Throughout she details one woman's journey through vocabulary and verb tense toward a greater sense of her place in the world Grammar Lessons illustrates the difficulty and delight humor and humility of living in a new language and of carrying that pivotal experience forward Michele Morano's beautifully constructed essays reveal the many grammars and many voices that we collect and learn from as we travel

Letters to Kate Carl H. Klaus, 2006-04 Sorrow is not a state but a process that needs not a map but a history There is something new to be chronicled every day writes C S Lewis in A Grief Observed When Carl Klaus's wife of thirty five years died suddenly from a cerebral hemorrhage right before Thanksgiving in 2002 he took the only road toward recovery that made sense to him he started writing letters to her producing a unique history of grief solace and love His vivid and thoughtful letters will resonate with everyone whose loss confronts them with emotional psychological and philosophical questions for which there are no easy answers During his first year without Kate Carl writes himself into the life that comes after the life he loved From days of grief in the darkness of a midwestern winter to springtime with a return to life in the garden and a memorial service for Kate on a sunny afternoon to fall with a pilgrimage to their favorite vacation spot in Hawaii Carl documents his year long experience of remembering meditating and evolving a new life Individually his letters provide the insights of a master diarist collectively they have the arc of a master essayist Recording the full range of mourning from intense shock to moments of exceptional affirmation Klaus's stories and reflections on loss bear witness to universal truths about the first and most significant year of mourning Ohio Archaeologist, 1992 The
