The Bomb A Life:

The Bomb Gerard J. De Groot, 2005 Bombs are as old as hatred itself But it was the twentieth century one hundred years of incredible scientific progress and terrible war that brought forth the Big One the Bomb humanity's most powerful and destructive invention In The Bomb A Life Gerard DeGroot tells the story of this once unimaginable weapon that at least since 8 16 a m on August 6 1945 has haunted our dreams and threatened our existence The Bomb has killed hundreds of thousands outright condemned many more to lingering deaths and made vast tracts of land unfit for life For decades it dominated the psyches of millions becoming a touchstone of popular culture celebrated or decried in mass political movements films songs and books DeGroot traces the life of the Bomb from its birth in turn of the century physics labs of Europe to a childhood in the New Mexico desert of the 1940s from adolescence and early adulthood in Nagasaki and Bikini Australia and Kazakhstan to maturity in test sites and missile silos around the globe His book portrays the Bomb's short but significant existence in all its scope providing us with a portrait of the times and the people from Oppenheimer to Sakharov Stalin to Reagan whose legacy still shapes our world

By the Bomb's Early Light Paul Boyer, 2005-10-21 Originally published in 1985 By the Bomb's Early Light is the first book to explore the cultural fallout in America during the early years of the atomic age Paul Boyer argues that the major aspects of the long running debates about nuclear armament and disarmament developed and took shape soon after the bombing of Hiroshima The book is based on a wide range of sources including cartoons opinion polls radio programs movies literature song lyrics slang and interviews with leading opinion makers of the time Through these materials Boyer shows the surprising and profoundly disturbing ways in which the bomb quickly and totally penetrated the fabric of American life from the chillingly prophetic forecasts of observers like Lewis Mumford to the Hollywood starlet who launched her career as the anatomic bomb In a new preface Boyer discusses recent changes in nuclear politics and attitudes toward the nuclear age

Living with the Bomb Laura Hein, Mark Selden, 1997-01-10 The development and use of the atomic bombs at Hiroshima and Nagasaki number among the formative national experiences for both Japanese and Americans as well as for 20th century Japan US relations This volume explores the way in which the bomb has shaped the self image of both peoples who used their medical authority to enable the most lethal form of warfare humanity has yet devised Pearson's Magazine, 1919 Pearson's Magazine 1899 1925 a monthly magazine devoted to literature politics and the arts was founded as a New York affiliate of the London periodical of the same name part of which it reprinted From 1916 to 1923 it was edited by Frank Harris The Unfinished Bombing Edward T. Linenthal, 2003-05-01 On April 19 1995 the bombing of the Alfred P Murrah Federal Building in Oklahoma City shook the nation destroying our complacent sense of safety and sending a community into a tailspin of shock grief and bewilderment Almost as difficult as the bombing itself has been the aftermath its legacy for Oklahoma City and for the nation and the struggle to recover from this unprecedented attack In The Unfinished Bombing Edward T Linenthal explores the many ways Oklahomans and other Americans have tried to grapple with this catastrophe Working with exclusive access to materials gathered by the Oklahoma City National Memorial Archive and drawing from over 150 personal interviews with family members of those murdered survivors rescuers and many others Linenthal looks at how the bombing threatened cherished ideas about American innocence sparked national debate on how to respond to terrorism at home and abroad and engendered a new bereaved community in Oklahoma City itself Linenthal examines how different stories about the bombing were told through positive narratives of civic renewal and of religious redemption and more negative narratives of toxicity and trauma He writes about the extraordinary bonds of affection that were created in the wake of the bombing acts of kindness empathy and compassion that existed alongside the toxic legacy of the event The Unfinished Bombing offers a compelling look at both the individual and the larger cultural consequences of one of the most searing events in recent American history I Greet You at the Beginning of a Great Career Lawrence Ferlinghetti, Allen Ginsberg, 2015 One of the longest relationships between a publisher and a writer documented in an intimate correspondence spanning their respective careers The Rhetorical Leadership of Fulton J. Sheen, Norman Vincent Peale, and Billy Graham in the Age of Extremes Timothy H. Sherwood, 2013-08-15 Fulton J Sheen Norman Vincent Peale and Billy Graham were America's most popular religious leaders during the mid twentieth century period known as the golden years of the Age of Extremes It was part of an era that encompassed polemic contrasts of good and evil on the world stage in political philosophies and international relations The 1950s and early 1960s in particular were years of high anxiety competing ideologies and hero villain mania in America Sheen was the voice of reason who spoke against those conflicting ideologies which were hostile to religious faith and democracy Peale preached the gospel of reassurance self assurance and success despite ominous global threats and Graham was the heroic model of faith whose message of conversion provided Americans an identity and direction opposite to atheistic communism This study looks at how and why their rhetorical leadership both separately and together contributed to the climate of an extreme era and influenced a national religious revival The American Almanac, Year-book, Cyclopedia and Atlas, 1904 The American Almanac, Year-book, Cyclopaedia and Atlas, 1903 Destruction Rites Mona Hadler, 2017-01-30 In the early sixties crowds gathered to watch rites of destruction from the demolition derby where makeshift cars crashed into each other for sport or concerts where musicians destroyed their instruments to performances of self destructing machines staged by contemporary artists Destruction in both its playful and fearsome aspects was ubiquitous in the new Atomic Age This complicated subjectivity was not just a way for people to find catharsis amid the fears of annihilation and postwar trauma but also a complex instantiation of ideological crisis in a time with some seriously conflicted political myths Destruction Rites explores the ephemeral visual culture of destruction in the postwar era and its links to contemporary art It examines the demolition derby games and toys based on warfare playgrounds situated in bomb sites and the rise of garage sales where goods designed for obsolescence and destined for the garbage heap are reclaimed and repurposed by local communities Mona Hadler looks at artists such as Jean Tinguely Niki de Saint Phalle Martha Rosler and Vito Acconci to expose how the 1960s saw destruction construction and the everyday collide as never before During the Atomic age whether in the public sphere or art museums destruction could be transformed into a constructive force and art objects and performances often oscillated between the two
