United States history The Quakers of the 1680s and abolitionists of the 1850s the sanctuary Movement and Plowshares of the 1980s novelists from Nathaniel Hawthorne to Norman Mailer and poets from Walt Whitman to Denise Levertov all have written powerful works on nonviolent action Through this literature the author explores the beauty of an important theme in American literature At a time when people face widespread injustice True reminds us that nonviolence holds a significant place in our country s history Official Versions Mark Pawlak,2006 Poetry Mark Pawlak s poems document a literary journey charged with the sheer joy of words and often with fierce irony He finds poetry in day to day common language and makes his poems from snippets of remembered conversation and comment from restaurant serving mats the phone book and most pointedly from the news Pawlak s sophisticated use of irony allows him to precisely slice through governmental double talk and the slanted reportage of our time to expose the contradictions errors and lies inherent in the rhetoric of power brokers and political spin doctors He is our most politically conscious poet and as such puts conscience back into poetry where it is sorely needed Michael Basinski Curator The Poetry Room SUNY Buffalo A Directory of American Poets and Fiction Writers, 1994-1996 Poets & Writers, Inc,1994-12 Names and addresses of contemporary poets and fiction writers whose work has been published in the United States A Directory of American Poets and Fiction Writers Poets and Writers, Inc.
