Specters Of The Dawn:

Specters of the Dawn S. Andrew Swann, 1994 Angelica Lopez a moreau descended from genetically altered rabbit stock finds refuge from her tough street life as a waitress in San Francisco until Byron the fox drags her into a lethal underground of information peddling and murder Original The Moreau Quartet: Volume Two S. Andrew Swann, 2015-10-06 It s 2053 and the US has long since genetically engineered life successfully Moreaus humanoid and animal hybrids and frankensteins genetically manipulated humans live as second class citizens The Moreau Quartet Volume Two brings together two of S Andrew Swann s novels set in the Moreau universe In Emperors of the Twilight Evi is a frankenstein the next step beyond human her physiology bioengineered to make her the best Agency special operative in the business When she s forced to go on the run from an unidentified hit team ready to destroy a skyscraper just to take her out Evi s only hope is to evade her stalkers long enough to make contact with her superiors But she soon discovers that even the Agency may not be able to save her In Specters of the Dawn A moreau of rabbit stock Angel Lopez is the last survivor of a Cleveland street gang A tough street fighter in search of a haven she s come to tolerant San Francisco only to find that even the old fashioned kind of humans aren t keen on moreaus Still she thinks she s found a home and safety until Byron the fox barges into her life dragging her into the deadly underground of information peddling and a series of confrontations that may blow not just San Francisco but the whole planet wide open Specters of Revolution Alexander Aviña, 2014 Specters of Revolution examines the development of two guerrilla insurgencies led by schoolteachers in Mexico during the 1960s Relying upon recently declassified documents and oral histories it chronicles a history of nonviolent peasant political action underscored by long held rural utopian ideals radicalized by persistent state terror Planetary Specters Neel Ahuja, 2021-10-20 Neel Ahuja tracks the figure of the climate refugee in public media and policy over the past decade arguing that journalists security experts politicians and nongovernmental organizations have often oversimplified climate change and obfuscated the processes that drive mass migration To understand the systemic reasons for displacement Ahuja argues it is necessary to reframe climate disaster as interlinked with the history of capitalism and the global politics of race wherein racist presumptions about agrarian underdevelopment and Indigenous knowledge mask how financial development migration and climate adaptation policies reproduce growing inequalities Drawing on the work of Cedric Robinson and theories of racial capitalism Ahuja considers how the oil industry transformed the economic and geopolitical processes that lead to displacement From South Asia to the Persian Gulf Europe and North America Ahuja studies how Asian trade finance and labor connections have changed the nature of race borders warfare and capitalism since the 1970s Ultimately Ahuja argues that only by reckoning with how climate change emerges out of longer histories of race colonialism and capitalism can we begin to build a sustainable and just future for those most affected by environmental change A Garland of Memories, A. E. Harding, 1899 Beneath a Sunless Sky Jessica Alter, 2007-04-01 Ten years after child prodigy Remy had an accident which robbed her of a prestigious future she walks the edge between life on Solaray lit Level One and the gloom of the UnderDome waiting for an opportunity to return to her place among the elite ruling class and put the nightmare of living as a sub human behind her In the first book of the Dome Trilogy Remy s life spirals from her control she is condemned to live her life in the most reviled pit in the Dome world known to be populated by brutish beasts too inhuman to even live on the edge of society When she arrives however she discovers that humanity does not belong only to the citizen life on Level One is not what she had believed it to be and a threat more grave than the UnderDome itself lurks just beyond its shadows

Driftwood Starr L. Barber,1913 The Specter and the Speculative Mae G. Henderson,Jeanne Scheper,Gene Melton,2024-05-31 The Specter and the Speculative Afterlives and Archives in the African Diaspora engages in a critical conversation about how historical subjects and historical texts within the African Diaspora are re fashioned re animated and re articulated as well as parodied nostalgized and defamiliarized to establish an afterlife for African Atlantic identities and narratives These essays focus on transnational transdisciplinary and transhistorical sites of memory and haunting textual visual and embodied performances in order to examine how these living archives circulate and imagine anew the meanings of prior narratives liberated from their original context Individual essays examine how historical and literary performances in addition to film drama music dance and material culture thus revitalized transcend and speak across temporal and spatial boundaries not only to reinstate traditional meanings but also to motivate fresh commentary and critique Emergent and established scholars representing diverse disciplines and fields of interest specifically engage under explored themes related to afterlives archives and haunting Spectres from the Past Portia Owusu,2019-11-22 Spectres from the Past The History of Slavery in West African and African American Narratives examines the merit of the claim that West African writers in comparison to African Americans authors deliberately expunge the history of slavery from literary narratives The book explores slavery in contemporary West African and African American literature by looking at the politics of history and memory It interrogates notions of History and memory by considering the possibility that shared traumas such as West African and African American experiences of slavery can be remembered and historicised differently according to critical factors such as socio economic realities cultural beliefs and familial traditions At the heart of the book are compelling and new readings of slavery in six literary narratives that draws on cultural philosophies musicology and linguistics to demonstrate diverse and unusual ways that Black writers in West Africa and North America write about slavery in literature
