Suicide And Morality:

The Ethics of Suicide Victor Cosculluela, 2020-07-20 Originally published in 1995 this volume addresses a topical subject assisted suicide The book discusses the issues surrounding the morality of suicide and in so doing clarifies the literature in applied ethics It critiques the complex moral and religious arguments on the topic offered by philosophers and theologians It establishes a middle position between those who hold that suicide is never morally permissible and those who claim it always is and it determines when second parties ought to aid and when they ought to prevent suicides Ethical Issues in Suicide M. Pabst Battin, 1995 This book provides a broad systematic and comprehensive exploration of both historical and contemporary argumentation concerning suicide It probes the underlying ethical religious and philosophical issues about self caused death and shows how they are crucial in the current debate Suicide and Morality David Novak, 1975 A revision of the author's thesis Georgetown University 1971 Bibliography p 129 134 Includes index The Ethics of Suicide Margaret Pabst Battin, 2015-09-11 Is suicide wrong profoundly morally wrong Almost always wrong but excusable in a few cases Sometimes morally permissible Imprudent but not wrong Is it sick a matter of mental illness Is it a private matter or a largely social one Could it sometimes be right or a noble duty or even a fundamental human right Whether it is called suicide or not what role may a person play in the end of his or her own life This collection of primary sources the principal texts of ethical interest from major writers in western and nonwestern cultures from the principal religious traditions and from oral cultures where observer reports of traditional practices are available spanning Europe Asia the Middle East Africa Oceania the Arctic and North and South America facilitates exploration of many controversial practical issues physician assisted suicide or aid in dying suicide in social or political protest self sacrifice and martyrdom suicides of honor or loyalty religious and ritual practices that lead to death including sati or widow burning hara kiri and sallekhana or fasting unto death and suicide bombings kamikaze missions jihad and other tactical and military suicides This collection has no interest in taking sides in controversies about the ethics of suicide rather it serves to expand the character of these debates by showing them to be multi dimensional a complex and vital part of human ethical thought

The Morals of Suicide James Gurnhill, 1900 Suicide and Ethics M. Pabst Battin, Ronald W. Maris, 1983

Developing Moral Imagination Edward Stevens, 1997 The issues may change with the passing of the years but the categories of concern change very little sexuality and the sexes medical decision making justice for the poor the powerless the underclass reproductive decision making moral decision making in business and personal moral choices Stevens attempts to present alternative positions on hotly debated new moral issues from a different standpoint using an ethical pluralism approach In doing this he hopes to help readers arrive at their own non polarized positions by learning from and respecting all parties in the discussion Practical Decision Making in Health Care Ethics Raymond J. Devettere, 2009-12-04 For nearly fifteen years Practical Decision Making in Health Care Ethics has offered scholars and students a highly accessible and teachable alternative to the dominant principle based theories in the field Devettere's approach is not based on an ethics of abstract obligations and duties but following Aristotle on how to live a fulfilled and happy life in short an ethics of personal well being grounded in prudence the virtue of ethical decision making This third edition is revised and updated and includes discussions of several landmark cases including the tragic stories of Terri Schiavo and Jesse Gelsinger the first death caused by genetic research Devettere addresses new topics such as partial birth abortion law embryonic stem cell research infant euthanasia in The Netherlands recent Vatican statements on feeding tubes organ donation after cardiac death new developments in artificial hearts clinical trials developed by pharmaceutical companies to market new drugs ghostwritten scientific articles published in major medical journals and controversial HIV AIDS research in Africa This edition also includes a new chapter on the latest social and political issues in American health care Devettere's engaging text relies on commonsense moral concepts and avoids academic jargon It includes a glossary of legal medical and ethical terms an index of cases and thoroughly updated bibliographic essays at the end of each chapter that offer resources for further reading It is a true classic brilliantly conceived and executed and is now even more valuable to undergraduates and graduate students medical students health care professionals hospital ethics committees and institutional review boards and general readers interested in philosophy medicine and the rapidly changing field of health care ethics Creative Morality Don

MacNiven,1993 Creative Morality is a philosophical examination of moral dilemmas It analyses the ethical systems on which our moral decisions are based and suggest s a comprehensive ethical theory for the interpretation of contemporary moral problems Handbook of Death and Dying Clifton D. Bryant,2003-10 Dying is a social as well as physiological phenomenon Each society characterizes and consequently treats death and dying in its own individual ways ways that differ markedly These particular patterns of death and dying engender modal cultural responses and such institutionalized behavior has familiar economical educational religious and political implications The Handbook of Death and Dying takes stock of the vast literature in the field of thanatology arranging and synthesizing what has been an unwieldy body of knowledge into a concise yet comprehensive reference work This two volume handbook will provide direction and momentum to the study of death related behavior for many years to come Key Features More than 100 contributors representing authoritative expertise in a diverse array of disciplines Anthropology Family Studies History Law Medicine Mortuary Science Philosophy Psychology Social work Sociology Theology A distinguished editorial board of leading scholars and researchers in the field More than 100 definitive essays covering almost every dimension of death related behavior Comprehensive and inclusive exploring concepts and social patterns within the larger topical concern Journal article length essays that address topics with appropriate detail Multidisciplinary and cross cultural coverage
