From the public I crave indulgence for all shortcomings with the assurance that under the crushing weight of a supreme sorrow which has overtaken me whilst Sultan to Sultan has been in press it has been with an aching heart I have completed the work endeavoring with fortitude to do my best to make my readers better acquainted with the possibilities of the natural primitives whom I am proud to call my friends and be called friend by and to demonstrate that if a woman could journey a thousand and more miles in East Africa among some hostile tribes unattended by other than Zanzibaris mercenaries without bloodshed the extreme measures employed by some would be colonizers is unnecessary atrocious and without the pale of humanity To the indefatigable efforts of my publishers especially to Mr H H Boyce who with sympathy and consideration has personally spared me the countless detail of the work to the artists who have entered into the spirit of the illustrations and actually reproduced the photographs and the curios waiving artistic desire to make alterations to the printers and the Victorians of Manchester England for the sketch map of my route and finally to friends who have seen me bravely through I owe unqualified thanks About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Sultan to Sultan : adventures among the Masai and other tribes of East Africa ,1892 SULTAN TO SULTAN ADV AMONG THE Mary French 1847-1936 Sheldon, 2016-08-28

Sultan to Sultan May French Sheldon,2008-09-01 In the last half of the nineteenth century Africa was still the dark continent with large areas of its territory unmapped Tribes in many regions had not been subdued and from their initial contacts with Arab slavers and Western explorers they were often hostile to foreigners Diseases against which outsiders had no immunities had been named but not cured Roads and even trails were almost nonexistent But these very obstacles made Africa an irresistible challenge to adventurers Most of course were men but one of the more remarkable unconventional and brave of these explorers was a middle aged American woman by the name of May French Sheldon who in 1891 planned and led an expedition to East Africa For her it was not enough just to follow the trail of the male explorers Her aim was to prove that women could do whatever men could do May contributed learned papers on little known topics such as the navigation of Lake Chala and she made some of the first ethnographic studies of African women and children It is the latter work which today stands out as a major accomplishment Along with her contemporary Mary Kingsley Sheldon was among the first white people to describe Africans and African culture sympathetically Reviews ,1892
