

The Summer Miracles Program

- 5 week summer visit – late June to early Aug.
- Children stay with host families who may be participating to consider adoption or to simply advocate.
- Families host as “godparents” and adoption is not discussed with the child/children while they are in the U.S.
- The visit is a cultural experience and should include cultural activities, camp, community involvement, etc.
- Children from Colombia are told there are 3 things that can happen while they are visiting the U.S.:
 - They will learn about our culture
 - They may meet a family who will be a life long connection
 - They may meet a family who will want to adopt them
- Weekend events are a critical piece of program advocacy and are mandatory for kids & families as the events.
- The goal is to find every child an adoptive family prior to their return to their country.
