Sumner Locke Elliott Writing Life A Biography:

Sumner Locke Elliott Sharon Clarke,1996 This is a biography of the writer Sumner Locke Elliott author of the bestselling and autobiographical Careful He Might Hear You Locke Elliott lived most of his life in New York where he wrote a dozen or more successful stage plays His mother also a writer died in childbirth something for which Locke Elliott could not forgive himself This is also the story of a gay male artist in the tough male Australian culture of the 1950s and his expatriate life until his death in 1990 Australian Dictionary of Biography, Volume 19 Melanie Nolan,2021-03-09 Volume 19 of the Australian Dictionary of Biography ADB contains concise biographies of individuals who died between 1991 and 1995 The first of two volumes for the 1990s it presents a colourful montage of late twentieth century Australian life containing the biographies of significant and representative Australians The volume is still in the shadow of World War II with servicemen and women who enlisted young appearing but these influences are dimming and there are now increasing numbers of non white non male non privileged and non straight subjects The 680 individuals recorded in volume 19 of the ADB include Wiradjuri midwife and Ngunnawal Elder Violet Bulger Aboriginal rights activist poet playwright and artist Kevin Gilbert and Torres Strait Islander community leader and land rights campaigner Eddie Mabo HIV AIDS child activists Tony Lovegrove and Eve Van Grafhorst have entries as does conductor Stuart Challender the first Australian celebrity to go public about his HIV AIDS condition in 1991 The arts are as always well represented including writers Frank Hardy Mary Durack and Nene Gare actors Frank Thring and Leonard Teale and arts patron Ian Potter We are beginning to see the effects of the steep rise in postwar immigration flow through to the ADB Artist Joseph Stanislaw Ostojka Kotkowski was born in Poland Pilar Moreno de Otaegui co founded the Spanish Club of Sydney Chinese restaurateur and community leader Ming Poon Dick Low migrated to Victoria in 1953 Often we have a dearth of information about the domestic lives of our subjects politician Olive Zakharov however bravely disclosed at the Victorian launch of the federal government's campaign to Stop Violence Against Women in 1993 that she was a survivor of domestic violence in her second marriage Take a dip into the many fascinating lives of the Australian Dictionary of Biography Sumner Locke Elliott ,1992 The Burning Library Geordie Williamson,2012-10-24 Alarmed by the increasingly marginal status of Australian literature in the academy Williamson has set out to reintroduce us to those key writers whose works we may have forgotten or missed altogether His focus is on fiction that gives pleasure and he is ardent in defence of books that for whatever reason sit uneasily in the present moment The Continuum Companion to Twentieth Century Theatre Colin Chambers,2006-05-14 International in scope this book is designed to be the pre eminent reference work on the English speaking theatre in the twentieth century Arranged alphabetically it consists of some 2500 entries written by 280 contributors from 20 countries which include not only top level experts but uniquely leading professionals from the world of theatre A fascinating resource for anyone interested in theatre it includes Overviews of major concepts topics and issues Surveys of theatre institutions countries and genres Biographical entries on key performers playwrights directors designers choreographers and composers Articles by leading professionals on crafts skills and disciplines including acting design directing lighting sound and voice Speculative Biography Donna Lee Brien, Kiera Lindsey, 2021-09-30 While speculation has always been crucial to biography it has often been neglected denied or misunderstood This edited collection brings together a group of international biographers to discuss how and why each uses speculation in their work whether this is to conceptualise a project in its early stages work with scanty or deliberately deceptive sources or address issues associated with shy or stubborn subjects After defining the role of speculation in biography the volume offers a series of work in progress case studies that discuss the challenges biographers encounter and address in their work In addition to defining the speculative spectrum within the biographical endeavour the collection offers a lexicon of new terms to describe different types of biographical speculation and more deeply engage with the dynamic interplay between research subjectivity and that which Natalie Zemon Davis dubbed informed imagination By mapping the field of speculative biography the collection demonstrates that speculation is not only innate to biographical practice but also key to rendering the complex mystery of biographical subjects be they human animal or even metaphysical

Creating Australian Television Drama Susan Lever, 2020-11-13 Television drama has been the dominant form of popular storytelling for more than sixty years shaping the imaginations of millions of people This book surveys the careers of the central creators of those stories for Australian television the writers who learnt how to work in a new medium adapting to its constraints and exploring its creative possibilities Informed by interviews with many writers it describes the establishment of Australian television drama production observing the way writers grasped the creative and business opportunities that television presented It examines the development of Australian versions of the major television genres the sitcom the police drama the historical series docudrama and social drama presenting a canon of significant Australian television drama productions that deserve to be remembered It offers an account of the emergence of work by Indigenous writers for television and it argues for the consideration of television drama alongside histories of Australian film and stage drama For years Susan Lever has been talking to Australia's best television writers about their work their craft and their industry Now it's all here in this book a toast to a vital part of Australian culture Geoffrey Atherden This is a wonderful book Meticulously researched and engagingly written it tells in fascinating detail from the writers' points of view the story of Australian scripted television from its beginnings in the 1950s to the present Better yet Susan Lever has allowed the writers themselves to speak about the work about their visions and processes their joys and frustrations I am delighted to see television drama docudrama and comedy acknowledged so generously for their role in Australian culture Sue Smith Brilliantly researched lucid comprehensive the big picture on writers for the small screen in Australia Ian David Australian Writers, 1950-1975 Selina Samuels, 2004 Gives a picture of Australian literary production in the period from the accession of Robert Menzies through the dreary 1950s and the upsurge of the 1960s to the years of Gough Whitlam and his removal from office with Kerr
