Sun Mother Wakes The World An Australian Creation Story:

Sun Mother Wakes the World Diane Wolkstein, 2004-03-30 At the beginning of the world it was dark and silent and nothing stirred anywhere until a voice roused the sleeping Sun Mother in the sky telling her it was time to wake up all the creatures of the earth The indigenous people of Australia believe that their first ancestors created the world and its laws They also believe that the world is still being created in a continual process they call The Dreamtime Renowned storyteller Diane Wolkstein has crafted a powerful retelling of an Australian creation story illuminated by illustrator Bronwyn Bancroft's authentic beautifully realized paintings Creation Stories Anthony Aveni, 2021-04-20 An accessible exploration of how diverse cultures have explained humanity's origins through narratives about the natural environment Drawing from a vast array of creation myths Babylonian Greek Aztec Maya Inca Chinese Hindu Navajo Polynesian African Norse Inuit and more this short illustrated book uncovers both the similarities and differences in our attempts to explain the universe Anthony Aveni an award winning author and professor of astronomy and anthropology examines the ways various cultures around the world have attempted to explain our origins and what roles the natural environment plays in shaping these narratives The book also celebrates the audacity of the human imagination Whether the first humans emerged from a cave as in the Inca myths or from bamboo stems as the Bantu people of Africa believed or whether the universe is simply the result of Vishnu's cyclical inhales and exhales each of these fascinating stories reflects a deeper understanding of the culture it arose from as well as its place in the larger human narrative
