Amati - Of Chance and Coincidence Andrew Ryan, 2012-05 How the talented violinist Charles Kinsmith's chance encounter with the beautiful but mysterious Claudia Bertolini is revisited one year later on board a passenger liner en route to Australia in 1885 is poignantly revealed in this most unusual yet fascinating historical romantic novel by Australian author Andrew Ryan Set against the soul crushing modes of the nineteenth century it reveals the couple's plight to freely exercise their right to personal expression in a society hostile to change Fear of being humiliated for side-stepping the accepted rules of social behaviour a dying man's life long search to be reunited with his estranged family and the benevolent compassion of a first generation Australian widow all come together to show how easily yet subconsciously chance and coincidence weaves its way through each of the characters lives in this haunting and powerful novel
