Sunset Over The Islands The Caribbean In An Age Of Global And Regional Challenges:

Sunset Over the Islands NA NA, 2016-04-30 No region of the world has been so affected as the Caribbean by the geopolitical and economic changes caused by the end of the Cold War and the impact of globalization This book analyzes the problems of regionalization integration and identity and the wide range of political social and economic challenges facing the region A masterpiece of concise and comprehensive analysis rich in theoretical insights this is required for all concerned with these issues in the Caribbean and the wider world Sunset Over the Islands Andrés Serbin, 1998 Contending with Destiny Denis Benn, Kenneth Hall, 2000 At the beginning of the 21st Century the Caribbean faces a number of fundamental challenges which will require creative responses from the countries in the region Contending with Destiny The Caribbean in the 21st Century reflects the views of some of the leading minds in the region on possible approaches for responding to these challenges The book captures the rich array of ideas practical proposals presented by three Caribbean prime ministers scholars policymakers in both the public and private sectors the NGO community and representatives of regional institutions All but one of the papers featured in this publication were presented at the Conference on the Caribbean in the 21st Century organised by the University of the West Indies in cooperation with the CARICOM Secretariat and the Caribbean Development Bank in September 1999 The Caribbean Novel Since 1945 Michael Niblett, 2012-02-16 How fiction its forms and its evolution reflect countries in the midst of postcolonial change Perspectives on the 'other America' Michael Niblett, Kerstin Oloff, 2009 Uniting critical writing on novels poetry painting and ritual this volume takes a regional approach to the cultures of the Caribbean Basin Ranging across the linguistic spectrum of the area it examines cultural production from the Anglophone Francophone and Hispanophone islands Suriname and the Guyanas and Latin and Central America The interdisciplinary nature of the collection and the challenge it poses to the balkanization of the region within academic discourse will make it of especial interest to students and scholars of the Caribbean Inspired by the category of the Other America as developed by douard Glissant the book offers a series of original and stimulating engagements with topics that include nationalism migration and exile landscape and the environment gender and sexuality and Postcolonial Studies and world literature In addition to contributions by leading scholars such as Peter Hulme Theo D haen and Lizabeth Paravisini Gebert it contains interviews with two renowned novelists from the region Lawrence Scott and Mayra Santos Febres Underpinning the collection is an interrogation of received ideas of the nation state and a suggestion that regionalism might provide a better optic through which to view the circum Caribbean that national consciousness in other words must always also be a regional consciousness Encyclopedia of the Developing World Thomas M. Leonard, 2013-10-18 A RUSA 2007 Outstanding Reference Title The Encyclopedia of the Developing World is a comprehensive work on the historical and current status of developing countries Containing more than 750 entries the Encyclopedia encompasses primarily the years since 1945 and defines development broadly addressing not only economics but also civil society and social progress Entries cover the most important theories and measurements of development relate historical events movements and concepts to development both internationally and regionally where applicable examine the contributions of the most important persons and organizations and detail the progress made within geographic regions and by individual countries

The Foreign Policies of the Global South Jacqueline Anne Braveboy-Wagner, 2003 Seeking to refocus thinking about the behavior of the global south third world states in international affairs this book explores contending explanations of global south foreign policy and strategy The authors draw on both traditional approaches and newer conceptualizations in foreign policy analysis contributing to the development of an integrated theoretical framework Examples from Africa Asia Latin America and the Arab world enrich the analysis

Participatory Planning in the Caribbean: Lessons from Practice Robert Potter, Jonathan Pugh, 2018-05-08 This title was first published in 2003 Until recently planning and development in the Caribbean have been top down centre out and expert led For a few years now though the region has bowed to the global trend and has experimented with participatory planning methods Participatory planning is heralded by much of the development community as the most appropriate alternative strategy to the traditional approaches In this volume a range of experts drawn from the Caribbean the United Kingdom and the United States review the current achievements and future prospects for genuinely participative planning in the Caribbean region at the beginning of the 21st Century Bringing together a wide range of case studies from both the insular Caribbean as well as mainland Central and South America the book examines issues such as protected area planning sustainable development councils gender and development inner city redevelopment and community empowerment

Social Theory and Regional Studies in the Global Age Saïd Amir Arjomand, 2014-05-19 In this pioneering volume leading international scholars argue for the development of a new approach to social theory that draws on regional studies for the conduct of comparative analysis in the global age Social Theory and Regional Studies in the Global Age moves beyond facile generalizations based on the historical experience of modernization in the West by highlighting differences rather than similarities and contrasts rather than commonalities and by examining civilizational processes and culturally specific developmental patterns distinctive of different world regions Essays combine comparative and historical sociology with civilizational analysis and the study of multiple and alternative modernities Different patterns of modernization are compared within the framework of global local compressed communication and interaction that results from globalization The introductory chapter puts the present effort in the context of the seminal work of three generations of comparative sociologists and what follows is a penetrating analysis of modernization and globality opening the way for rectifying the erasure of the historical experience of a very sizeable portion of humankind from the foundation of social theory

Handbook Of Research On The International Relations Of Latin America And The Caribbean G. Pope Atkins, 2018-02-12 The study of Latin American and Caribbean international relations has a long evolution both within the development of international relations as a general academic undertaking and in terms of the particular characteristics that
