The Jews as a Chosen People S. Leyla Gurkan, 2008-12-05 The concept of the Jews as a chosen people is a key element of the Jewish faith and identity This book explores the idea of chosenness from the ancient world through modernity and into the Post Holocaust era Analysing a vast corpus of biblical ancient rabbinic and modern Jewish literature the author seeks to give a better understanding of this central doctrine of the Jewish religion She shows that although the idea of chosenness has been central to Judaism and Jewish self definition it has not been carried to the present day in the same form Instead it has gone through constant change depending on who is employing it against what sort of background and for what purpose Surveying the different and sometimes conflicting interpretations of the doctrine of chosenness that appear in Ancient Modern and Post Holocaust periods the dominant themes of Holiness Mission and Survival are identified in each respective period The theological philosophical and sociological dimensions of the question of Jewish chosenness are thus examined in their historical context as responses to the challenges of Christianity Modernity and the Holocaust in particular This book will be of interest to scholars and students of Jewish Studies the Holocaust religion and theology

The Apostolic Imperative Carl E. Braaten, 2016-10-31 With perceptive insight and vigor Dr Braaten addresses today's crisis in ministry in Protestant and Catholic communities Numerous studies reveal widespread confusion about the nature and scope of the church's mission There is a split consciousness in the church at all levels between evangelism and social action and between lay and ordained forms of ministry The Apostolic Imperative summons the church to embody the apostolic norms of primitive Christianity in its theology and practice A misinterpretation or neglect of the apostolic norms in the life of the church makes the church captive to narrow traditions or victim of fashionable trends says Braaten The aim of this book is to ground our theological thinking in the essentials of apostolic faith its witness to the cross and resurrection of Jesus and its obedience to his command to convey his message to all the world The theology of mission in this book is biblically based evangelically motivated ecumenically oriented and practically posed to grapple with the issues of the immediate future

Jewish-Christian Relations Since the Second World War Geoffrey Wigoder, 1988 The five sections of the book are entitled Christian Attitudes to Judaism and the Jews Jewish Attitudes to the Dialogue The Vatican and the Jews Israel in the Dialogue The Dialogue in Israel Ch 3 discusses the Nostra Aetate declaration 1965 The Churches undertook the revision of many religious teachings in order to eliminate the traditional antisemitic stereotype of the Jews Not enough however is being done in either Jewish or Christian education to build up understanding of the values and beliefs of the other The appendix pp 143 167 contains documents statements by the Vatican Nostra Aetate the Guidelines the Notes and the World Council of Churches

Historical Dictionary of Lutheranism Günther Gassmann, Mark W. Oldenburg, 2011-10-10 The Reformation of the 16th century was a complex and multifaceted political social cultural and religious process Most historians agree however that in the framework of this process it was the religious and theological efforts to reform and renew the late medieval church decadent and irrelevant in many ways that were the initiating forces that set a broad historical movement in motion Among these reforming religious and theological forces the Lutheran reform movement was the most important and influential one It was the historical impact of the theological genius of the Wittenberg professor Martin Luther 1483 1546 that profoundly changed and shaped the face of Europe and beyond Today Lutheranism has become a worldwide communion of churches that stretches from Germany to Siberia Papua New Guinea Madagascar and Surinam The second edition of the Historical Dictionary of Lutheranism presents information on major theological issues historical developments of Lutheranism worldwide Lutheran ecumenical and missionary involvement and activities worship and liturgy spirituality social ethics inter religious and Jewish relations Lutheranism and the arts theology and important representatives of Lutheranism This is done through a detailed chronology an introductory essay an appendix of Lutheran Churches a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Lutheranism

Revelation and Mystery in Ancient Judaism and Pauline Christianity Markus Bockmuehl, 2009-10-01 The theme of revealed heavenly mysteries was a commonplace in Judaism from which it passed on to Christianity Markus Bockmuehl outlines how this theme developed by showing where ideas of revelation and mystery coalesce An interesting and very thorough study Journal of Biblical Literature A thoughtful and illuminating study of a subject which rather surprisingly in the light of its centrality to the question of Christian origins has not hitherto been investigated in detail Whereas both revelation and mystery have been studied separately in the context of early Jewish and Christian literature Bockmuehl's original contribution is to examine the interconnectedness of the two ideas Journal of Jewish Studies This book is an excellent contribution to biblical scholarship It synthesizes the light that a biblically based mystery sheds on revelation and revelation sheds on mystery Bockmuehl treats admirably many difficult passages and scholarly disputes He develops the progress of biblical understanding regarding revelation and mystery carefully balancing analysis with synthesis a talent that is somewhat rare of late Journal of Ecumenical Studies A most useful study Bockmuehl has brought together material from an enormously wide range of primary and secondary literature for which we are greatly in his debt Journal of Theological Studies For single authors like Philo Josephus and especially Paul Bockmuehl's studies significantly add to the discussion Religious Studies Review Bockmuehl examines the concepts of revelation and mystery not as distinct entities but in their theological interplay the revelation of heavenly mysteries This book's breadth and depth will repay the attentive reader Journal for the Study of the New Testament

The Suffering of God, 1984-10-01 In this comprehensive and thought provoking study Terence Fretheim focuses on the theme of divine suffering an aspect of our understanding of God which both the church and scholarship have neglected Maintaining that metaphors matter Fretheim carefully examines the ruling and anthropomorphic metaphors of the Old Testament and discusses them in the context of current biblical theological scholarship His aim is to broaden our understanding of the God of the Old Testament by showing that suffering belongs to the person and purpose of God Christians & Jews—Faith to Faith Rabbi James Rudin, 2013-07-13 In time for Pope Francis's new initiatives We now have the potential to end two thousand years of hostility will we succeed New in paperback With keen wisdom and a masterful understanding of history Rabbi James Rudin an acclaimed authority in the field of Jewish Christian relations provides the context necessary for Christians and Jews to recognize the critical challenges posed by the past and the future of their two religions Spanning twenty centuries of controversy horror and promise Rudin's narrative examines The sources of both conflict and commonality between the two religions The need to address and redress past wrongs The agenda required to create a shared future free of bigotry It includes proven approaches for successful interreligious dialogues including tips on session organization project ideas and a discussion guide to enhance Christians and Jews knowledge of each other Faith Transformed John C. Merkle, 2003 Traditionally Christian churches have taught that the validity of Judaism came to an end with the emergence of Christianity But in the last half century many Christians have repudiated this teaching and have affirmed the abiding validity of Judaism Consequently they have had to reevaluate Christian self understanding in relation to Judaism In Faith Transformed Christian scholars who have been at the forefront of Christian Jewish relations share how their encounters with Jews and Judaism have transformed their understanding and practice of Christianity They reveal how their Christian faith has been profoundly enriched by drawing inspiration from the Jewish tradition Building Bridges Among Abraham's Children Edward McGlynn Gaffney, Marcia Sachs Littell, Michael Bazyler, 2025-06-10 Building Bridges Among Abraham's Children honors the extraordinary career of Professor Michael Berenbaum a luminary in Holocaust studies museum design filmmaking and interfaith dialogue With contributions from renowned scholars and close friends the short and highly readable essays in this collection delve into the core themes that have defined Professor Berenbaum's work biblical and postbiblical narratives rabbinic thought and action Jewish commitment to education interreligious relations and Holocaust remembrance From his role in building the US Holocaust Memorial Museum to his pioneering work in preserving survivor testimonies through film Professor Berenbaum's influence is profound and multifaceted and the compelling essays in this volume serve as a tribute to a scholar whose enduring legacy continues to make a global impact
