character of the end it is therefore the law for action Human acts however are meritorious insofar as they promote the purpose of God and his honor By repeating a good action man acquires a moral habit or a quality which enables him to do the good gladly and easily This is true however only of the intellectual and moral virtues which Aquinas treats after the manner of Aristotle the theological virtues are imparted by God to man as a disposition from which the acts here proceed while they strengthen they do not form it The disposition of evil is the opposite alternative An act becomes evil through deviation from the reason and from divine moral law      Summa Theologiae Saint Thomas (Aquinas),1969 V 1 Part 1 of the prima pars q 1 13 v 2 is part 2 of the prima pars q 14 26      The Summa Theologica ...
