Summers County In Vintage Postcards Postcard History Postcard History:

Summers County in Vintage Postcards Summers County Historical Society, 2005 Summers County was created in 1871 from parts of surrounding counties The community s history is based in industry as the Chesapeake Ohio Railroad was routed through Hinton the county seat and booming coal mines fueled the thriving economy The flourishing homes and businesses of yesterday have been largely preserved through the effort and determination of citizens allowing residents and visitors to learn the county s history and appreciate its roots Summers County in Vintage Postcards is a tribute to the founders of Summers County to its influential residents and to anyone who has visited and enjoyed the area s natural beauty In this volume readers will explore the county s most historically significant structures such as the Graham House at Lowell the Summers County Courthouse the Great Ben Tunnels at Talcott and Bluestone and Pipestem State Parks Troup County in Vintage Postcards , 2002 Troup County in Vintage Postcards traces a major period of growth and development for this Georgia community from the late 19th through the mid 20th century Snapshot glimpses of history preserved on postcards reveal the second courthouse which burned in 1936 the textile mills that opened at a rapid pace as the county entered the era of the New South the early days of LaGrange Female College which became co ed in 1954 Southern Female College which closed in 1919 Ferrell Gardens which began in 1832 and is now a landmark in the county as well as scenes of schools churches homes farms and businesses The Catskills in Vintage Postcards Irwin Richman, 1999 From the 1890s through the 1920s the postcard was an extraordinarily popular means of communication Many of the postcards produced during this golden age and even some from later years can today be considered works of art Postcard photographers traveled the length and breadth of the nation snapping photographs of busy street scenes documenting local landmarks and assembling crowds of local children only too happy to pose for a picture These images printed as postcards and sold in general stores and five and dimes across the country survive as telling reminders of an important era in America s history This fascinating new history of the Catskills of New York showcases more than two hundred of the best most evocative vintage postcards available

West Virginia History , 2007 Ritchie County in Vintage Postcards Rock Wilson, 2004 Ritchie County West Virginia named for famed Richmond journalist Thomas Ritchie was originally founded in 1843 from portions of Harrison Lewis and Wood Counties In the late 19th century Ritchie County found itself directly on the Baltimore Ohio Rail Line Early postcards from this era capture the county ripe with natural resources and the grandeur of the quickly developing region The production of oil and natural gas has been a chief source of development since the early 20th century and continues today The area is also known for its agricultural and manufacturing developments including livestock grain glassware and lumber products American Holiday Postcards, 1905-1915 Daniel Gifford, 2013-08-29 In the early 20th century postcards were one of the most important and popular expressions of holiday sentiment in American culture Millions of such postcards circulated among networks of community and kin as part of a larger American postcard craze However their uses and meanings were far from universal This book argues that holiday postcards circulated primarily among rural and small town Northern white women with Anglo Saxon and Germanic heritages Through analysis of a broad range of sources Daniel Gifford recreates the history of postcards to account for these specific audiences and reconsiders the postcard phenomenon as an image based conversation among exclusive groups of Americans A variety of narratives are thus revealed the debates generated by the Country Life Movement the empowering manifestations of the New Woman the civic privileges of whiteness and the role of emerging technologies From Santa Claus to Easter bunnies flag waving turkeys to gun toting cupids holiday postcards at first seem to be amusing expressions of a halcyon past Yet with knowledge of audience and historical conflicts this book demonstrates how the postcard images reveal deep divides at the height of the Progressive Era The Wildwoods:

1920-1970 Vincent Martino,2007 The Wildwoods 1920-1970 follows a path of progress and preservation in a beach community situated along the Atlantic Ocean in historic Cape May County Starting out in the 1920s vintage postcards illustrate this shore town's transformation from a sleepy seaside resort into a summer vacation hot spot Look through a window into the past and see Zaberer's Restaurant in North Wildwood the Starlight Ballroom on the boardwalk and the Wingate Motel in the center of Wildwood Joyce in the Belly of the Big Truck; Workbook Joyce A. Cascio,2005-05

Dearborn County, Indiana in Vintage Postcards Milton A. Masing,1999 From the 1890s through the 1920s the postcard was an extraordinarily popular means of communication and many of the postcards produced during this golden age can today be considered works of art Postcard photographers traveled the length and breadth of the nation snapping photographs of busy street scenes documenting local landmarks and assembling crowds of local children only too happy to pose for a picture These images printed as postcards and sold in general stores across the country survive as telling reminders of an important era in America's history Laurens County ,2007 Laurens County was founded in the late 18th century and named for Henry Laurens Revolutionary War hero and distinguished South Carolina statesman The county's small towns have grown to include opportunities in business the arts and education In Laurens County the community's history unfolds in vintage postcards of the Laurens Court House Square Presbyterian College textile mills churches health resorts small towns and local residents These collectible postcards portray a picturesque county in upstate South Carolina that possesses a rich heritage character and charm that linger even today
