The Advent of Sun Myung Moon George D. Chryssides, 1991 In writing any account of someone else's religious beliefs and practices any author must find himself between two poles what members of the religion wish to tell and what the public wishes to know Nowhere are these polarities more distant than in the field of new religions The public wishes to know about recruitment brainwashing and fundraising within the Unification Church while the authors discussion with UC members elicited far more material on their own inner spiritual life After consideration the author has concluded that a common meeting ground is simply not possible and that any book including this one has to be a compromise
