Carlson,Tremper Longman III,2010-09-07 Physicist Richard Carlson and biblical scholar Tremper Longman address the long standing problem of how to relate scientific description of the beginnings of the universe with the biblical creation passages found in Genesis Experts in their respective fields these two authors provide a way to resolve seeming conflicting descriptions The Big Argument John Ashton,Michael Westacott,2006-01-01 The argument that reads like a conversation about life Is there archaeological evidence for the New Testament Did the universe hatch from a cosmic egg What does the fossil record imply about the existence of God Is design inferred by the existence of information Since the Enlightenment spirited debates about the existence of God have captured the public s imagination Scholars philosophers and scientists have grappled with the evidence that God exists or doesn t Today some of the world s best minds in a variety of disciplines grapple with whether there is any real purpose to our lives Yet not only do many scientists believe in the God who created us with purpose they also understand that what we do in the here and now has consequences in the next life John Ashton has compiled a group of essayists who specialize in fields such as archaeology astronomy biblical scholarship and more The result is a fascinating exploration of an age old question sure to intrigue believers and skeptics alike Whisper Raymond van Over,2017-04-26 SPIRIT OF EVIL Some said the old Indian in the backwoods was plumb crazy Others claimed he was just a little eccentric And a few old timers swore he was touched with an unholy power to heal But everyone in the small Vermont town of New Thetford agreed it was best to leave the reclusive Algonquin well enough alone HOUND OF HELL Brion McKibben saw the pickup deliberately swerve to hit his dog Moments later Whisper lay dead in his arms Heartbroken Brion carried him to the remote shack and begged the ancient medicine man to bring his pet back And sure enough the dog came home only now his eyes burned like hot coals his bristling fur stank of brimstone and he was no longer eating out of the can For Whisper has developed an appetite for living screaming flesh And he isn't playing dead ever again The ^AOrigins of the World's Mythologies E.J. Michael Witzel,2012-12-13 Michael Witzel persuasively demonstrates the prehistoric origins of most of the mythologies of Eurasia and the Americas Laurasia Creativity and Beyond Robert Paul Weiner,2012-02-01 Creativity and Beyond offers a wide ranging interdisciplinary tour of cultures past and present to examine the different ways people have conceived of creativity and how the common understanding of creativity is changing in the current flux of global culture Weiner analyzes the ways in which understanding creativity is tied to broader contemporary patterns including intellectual concerns with postmodernism trends in the arts the changing status of women the power of the electronic media multiculturalism developments in psychology science and technology and the dramatic political economic and social transformations of our age Sapphistries Leila J Rupp,2009-10-28 A lyrical and meticulously researched mapping of the ways in which diverse societies have shaped female same sex sexuality across time and geography From the ancient poet Sappho to tombois in contemporary Indonesia women throughout history and around the globe have desired loved and had sex with other women In beautiful prose Sapphistries tells their stories capturing the multitude of ways that diverse societies have shaped female same sex sexuality across time and place Leila J Rupp reveals how from the time of the very earliest societies the possibility of love between women has been known even when it is feared ignored or denied We hear women in the sex segregated spaces of convents and harems whispering words of love We see women beginning to find each other on the streets of London and Amsterdam in the aristocratic circles of Paris in the factories of Shanghai We find women's desire and love for women meeting the light of day as Japanese schoolgirls fall in love and lesbian bars and clubs spread from 1920s Berlin to 1950s Buffalo And we encounter a world of difference in the twenty first century as transnational concepts and lesbian identities meet local understandings of how two women might love each other Giving voice to words from the mouths and pens of women and from men's prohibitions reports literature art imaginings pornography and court cases Rupp also creatively employs fiction to imagine possibilities when there is no historical evidence Sapphistries combines lyrical narrative with meticulous historical research providing an eminently readable and uniquely sweeping story of desire love and sex between women around the globe from the beginning of time to the present
