Sun Storm Other Stories:

Hidden Lies and Other Stories Vivian Gilbert Zabel, 2005-06-01 Vivian Gilbert Zabel and Holly Jahangiri offer a collection of 21 original short stories spanning a variety of themes and genre many crime or mystery based Sunstorm Arthur C. Clarke, Stephen Baxter, 2005-03-29 Clarke and Baxter have mastered the art of saving the world in blockbuster style Entertainment Weekly Returned to the Earth of 2037 by the mysterious and powerful Firstborn Bisesa Dutt is haunted by memories of her five years spent on the strange alternate Earth called Mir a jigsaw puzzle world made up of lands and people cut out of different eras of Earth's history Why did the Firstborn create Mir Why was Bisesa taken there and then brought back just a day after her disappearance Bisesa's questions are answered when scientists discover an unnatural anomaly in the sun's core evidence of alien intervention more than two thousand years ago Now plans set in motion by inscrutable observers light years away are coming to fruition in a sunstorm designed to eradicate all life on Earth in a bombardment of radiation As the apocalypse looms religious and political differences on Earth threaten to undermine every countereffort And all the while the Firstborn are watching Praise for Sunstorm An absolute must for science fiction fans All Things Considered NPR Enthralling highly satisfying The New York Times Book Review Will keep readers turning pages Publishers Weekly Dwight's House and Other Stories Meredith Sue Willis, 2004 British Working Class women authors (born before 1962) a list Stefan Szczelkun, 2025-06-07 A collection of Wikipedia articles edited reformatted and with additions In chronological order References and sections on non literary activity are sometimes omitted hopefully not to the point of misrepresenting the author which might include feminist or political activism To my surprise the biographical material on Wikipedia was sometimes mesmerising although it was uneven Where there were gaps I have tried to fill them from other sources Refer back to the wikipedia articles for more context and references in some cases and if you have a verified source of information please update the Wikipedia article Wikipedia is published under a creative commons licence So this compilation also carries a creative commons licence Introduction Looking through Sarah Richardson's Writing on the Line 1996 I was struck by how many of the working class women writers were from North America and how many more were poets Howard Slater had made a list of British working class male novelists and I selected British woman writers from Writing on the Line and found that most of them now have Wikipedia pages I first made a list of links Wanting to take this further I first looked to focus on novels and short story writers but this category started to break up as many writers wrote in many idioms producing fact fiction poetry plays screenwriting and journalism I decided on an arbitrary cut off point of writers born before 1962 When I first made the list I was thinking how few working class women novelists had been published in this period But then the lists of books by each author started to stack up and there's plenty to read and much that I missed even really hearing about Of course it focuses on the most successful others who produced a community published autobiography or self published novel did not get a Wikipedia page and they should really be included every life counts Others only published an autobiography perhaps in the last years of life but were extraordinary writers and people We could also discuss the genre snobbery in literary circles that puts crime young peoples literature romantic and fantasy fiction and perhaps historical based narratives in a lower category than the novel Abyss and Other Stories Leonid Andreyev, 2018-08-28 Haunting disquieting shocking The Abyss one of the most powerful short stories ever written is accompanied in this volume by fifteen other stories Together they provide a clear account of the lasting legacy of Russia's foremost man of letters of the early twentieth century As the young Zinaida and her sweetheart the student Nemovetsky stroll through the idyllic Russian countryside their memories dreams and thoughts about life and the future mingle in the evening breeze But when night falls they hasten to retrace their steps back to town through a small wood where they are accosted by three threatening drunkards who knock Nemovetsky unconscious and start to chase the girl through the underwood When the young student comes round he is confronted with the horror of what has just happened Haunting disquieting shocking The Abyss one of the most powerful short stories ever written is accompanied in this volume by fifteen other stories never translated into English before by Andreyev including Silence The Thief and Lazarus some of them never translated before into English Together they provide a clear account of the lasting legacy of Russia's foremost man of letters of the early twentieth century Ambiguity Machines and Other Stories Vandana Singh, 2018-02-13 After the success of her collection The Woman Who Thought She Was a Planet Vandana Singh returns to the short story in Ambiguity Machines Her deep humanism interplays with her scientific background in stories that consider and celebrate this world and others with characters who try to make sense of the people they meet what they see and the challenges they face An eleventh century poet wakes to find he is an artificially intelligent companion on a starship A woman of no account has the ability to look into the past And in Requiem a major new novella a woman goes to Alaska to try and make sense of her aunt's disappearance Examining the revolutionary potential of speculative fiction Singh dives deep into the vast strangeness of the universe without and within to explore the ways in which we move through space and time together yet always apart Edith and Her Ayah, and Other Stories A.L.O.E., 2023-05-09 Reproduction of the original The Chronology of American Literature Daniel S. Burt, 2004 If you are looking to brush up on your literary knowledge check a favorite author's work or see a year's bestsellers at a glance The Chronology of American Literature is the perfect resource At once an authoritative reference and an ideal browser's guide this book outlines the indispensable information in America's rich literary past from major publications to lesser known gems while also identifying larger trends along the literary timeline Who wrote the first published book in America When did Edgar Allan Poe achieve notoriety as a mystery writer What was Hemingway's breakout title With more than 8 000 works by 5 000 authors The Chronology makes it easy to find answers to these questions and more Authors and their works are grouped within each year by category fiction and nonfiction poems drama literary criticism and publishing events Short concise entries describe an author's major works for a particular year while placing them within the larger context of that writer's career. The result is a fascinating glimpse into the evolution of some of America's most prominent writers. Perhaps most important, The Chronology offers an invaluable line through our literary past, tying literature to the American experience: war and peace, boom and bust, and reaction to social change. You'll find everything here, from Benjamin Franklin's Experiments and Observations on Electricity to Davy Crockett's first memoir, from Thoreau's Civil Disobedience to Edith Wharton's Ethan Frome, from meditations by James Weldon Johnson and James Agee to poetry by Elizabeth Bishop. Also included here are seminal works by authors such as Rachel Carson, Toni Morrison, John Updike, and Arthur Schlesinger Jr. Lavishly illustrated and rounded out with handy bestseller lists throughout the twentieth century, lists of literary awards and prizes, and authors' birth and death dates, The Chronology of American Literature belongs on the shelf of every bibliophile and literary enthusiast. It is the essential link to our literary past and present.
