Faith in Unions

David Isiorho, 2022-09-07 Faith in Unions is a personal account representing a critique of Whiteness and Black marginality in the Faith Workers Trade Union In short it is a Black theology critique of the way Muslim and Hindu faith workers have been treated in the British Labour movement This book clearly has things to say about discriminatory practices which puts the discussion about Englishness and Britishness into a wider context I am suggesting a political agenda associated with English ethnicity as the mode of involvement to explain policies that are likely to result in racialised religious exclusion Faith in Unions gives focus to Muslim and Hindu workplace groupings within the Faith Workers Branch and the opposition to their formation from Anglican and Methodist Christian members I am concerned with the struggle for faith recognition within a discriminatory and institutionally racist union structure This book offers an explicit exploration of what I mean by the racialised other in the context of the British Labour movement In this we need to understand the ways historical Christianity has defined Black identities My conclusion hopefully will start a wider discussion of Englishness and English exclusivity
