

Sunrise Trumpets

by
Joseph Auslander

I For several years Joseph Auslander's poems have been familiar to magazine readers in this country. Again and again the editors who select from current magazines the most memorable verse of the month have given his lyrics a distinguished place.

I This volume places him immediately in the small group of noteworthy younger American poets. It is a book packed with sheer beauty of image and phrase; a book, says Padraic Colum in his foreword, which "goes some way towards restoring a quality which has been left out of a great deal of verse being written in the New World of our time—the quality of delight."
