Skills Training For Productivity Vocational Education And Training In Developing Countries:

Skills for productivity : vocational education and training in developing countries John Middleton, Adrian Ziderman, Arvil Van Adams, Banco Mundial, 1993 Skills for Productivity John Middleton, Adrian Ziderman, Arvil Van Adams, 1990 Socio-Economic Perspectives on Vocational Skill Development: Emerging Research and Opportunities Okolie, Ugochukwu Chinonso, 2019-11-15 Vocational skill development VSD has the capacity to contribute to poverty reduction because it serves as the key to job creation and inclusive growth As developed nations have been faced with high youth and graduate unemployment rates basic education and vocational skill development have become a priority of development cooperation activities However there is a realization that measures to improve skill training can only be successful if they are in harmony with employment and economic policies Socio Economic Perspectives on Vocational Skill Development Emerging Research and Opportunities is a collection of innovative research on the methods and applications of equipping individuals with relevant work skills and implementing effective skills systems that can lead to economic growth and high levels of productivity While highlighting topics including human capital professional development and skill gaps this book is ideally designed for managers business professionals policymakers academicians researchers and management students seeking the current understanding of the strategic role of skill development at different levels of the socio economic system International Handbook of Education for the Changing World of Work Rupert Maclean, David Wilson, 2009-06-29 The aim of this Handbook is to review the developments that have occurred in Technical and vocational education and training TVET and that may help improve the field The Handbook provides information on TVET models that occur in different parts of the world reflects best and innovative practice and wherever possible uses case studies as examples The 220 authors are representative of the various regions of the world and major international organisations involved in TVET This volume presents the work of established researchers as well as the work of promising young researchers Intended as the universally accepted resource for the field the Handbook provides a comprehensive coverage of cutting edge developments in research policy and practice in TVET within a single source It will assist those involved in TVET at any level in making informed decisions and further advance and improve the field and to bridge the gap between vocational and academic education in the 21st century Handbook of Technical and Vocational Education and Training Research Felix Rauner, Rupert Maclean, 2008-12-16 Technical and vocational education and training TVET research has become a recognized and well defined area of interdisciplinary research This is the first handbook of its kind that specifically concentrates on research and research methods in TVET The book s sections focus on particular aspects of the field starting with a presentation of the genesis of TVET research They further feature research in relation to policy planning and practice Various areas of TVET research are covered including on the vocational disciplines and on TVET systems Case studies illustrate different approaches to TVET research and the final section of the book presents research methods including interview and observation methods as well as of experimentation and development This handbook provides a comprehensive coverage of TVET research in an international context and with special focus on research and research methods it is a cutting edge resource and reference The International Handbook of Educational Research in the Asia-Pacific Region J.P. Keeves,Ryo Watanabe,2013-11-11 The aim of the Handbook is to present readily accessible but scholarly sources of information about educational research in the Asia Pacific region The scale and scope of the Handbook is such that the articles included in it provide substantive contributions to knowledge and understanding of education in the Asia region In so doing the articles present the problems and issues facing education in the region and the findings of research conducted within the region that contribute to the resolution of these problems and issues Moreover since new problems and issues are constantly arising the articles in the Handbook also indicate the likely directions of future developments The different articles within the Handbook seek to conceptualize the problems in each specific content area under review provide an integration of the research conducted within that area the theoretical basis of the research the practical implications of the research and the contribution of the research towards the resolution of the problems identified Thus the articles do not involve the reporting of newly conducted research but rather require a synthesis of the research undertaken in a particular area with reference to the research methods employed and the theoretical frameworks on which the research is based In general the articles do not advocate a single point of view but rather present alternative points of view and comment on the debate and disagreements associated with the conduct and findings of the research Furthermore it should be noted that the Handbook is not concerned with research methodology and only considers the methods employed in inquiry in so far as the particular methods of research contribute to the effective investigation of problems and issues that have arisen in the conduct and provision of education at different levels within the region Enhancing Employability in Education Dr. Tilak Kumar Sharma,2015-09-11 The primary intention of this publication is to assess and describe the need for introducing vocational education with a little more seriousness than ever before and to suggest ideas for establishing a vocational university with a difference The idea is also to summarize the present technical and vocational education scenario and its problems I also intend to hint upon some recommendation for policies to be implemented at state level and suggest possible measures to make vocational courses more relevant to the need of the time A comparative study has been attempted between regular vocational programs and social fairness and job reliability and its effect in building up the career of the present generation youngsters Ive also tried to focus on the initiatives challenges and the process of implementation of various projects and schemes undertaken by the government at different times in a bid to enhance employability The objective is to explore into the output and its impact on the workforce plus the growth and development of the country This book should form an interesting reading for those who are curious about an individuals potential strength and are engrossed in innovative projects particularly teachers researchers and administrators Vocational Education in the New EU Member States Mary Canning, Martin Godfrey, Dorota Holzer-Zelazewska, 2007-01-01 Vocational education often is ignored during discussions of secondary education reform even though it accounts for between 25 percent and 79 percent of upper secondary enrollment in the former centrally planned countries of the European Union Based on information data and feedback from most of these countries this paper develops a set of propositions about vocational education reform not with a view to prescribing a detailed one size fits all strategy but rather it derives some principles that continued reform of vocational education could take into account to the benefit of fiscal ef Research Anthology on Business and Technical Education in the Information Era Management Association, Information Resources, 2021-01-08 The Fourth Industrial Revolution has disrupted businesses worldwide through the introduction of highly automated processes This disruption has affected the way in which companies conduct business impacting everything from managerial styles to resource allocations to necessary new skillsets As the business world continues to change and evolve it is imperative that business education strategies are continuously revised and updated in order to adequately prepare students who will be entering the workforce as future entrepreneurs executives and marketers among other careers The Research Anthology on Business and Technical Education in the Information Era is a vital reference source that examines the latest scholarly material on pedagogical approaches in finance management marketing international business and other fields It also explores the implementation of curriculum development and instructional design strategies for technical education Highlighting a range of topics such as business process management skill development and educational models this multi volume book is ideally designed for business managers business and technical educators entrepreneurs academicians upper level students and researchers

African Youth and the Persistence of Marginalization Danielle Resnick, James Thurlow, 2015-04-10 The much heralded growth and transformation of many economies in sub Saharan Africa over the last decade continues to receive prominent attention in academic scholarship and among policy practitioners An apparent feature about this transformation however is that Africa s youth appear to have been left out This book critically examines the extent and consequences of the marginalization of African youth It questions conventional wisdoms about data trends aspirational goals and common policy interventions surrounding Africa s youth that have been variously propagated in both the development studies literature and in mainstream donor policy reports The book explores macro trends from both a temporal and cross regional perspective in order to highlight what is distinct about contemporary African youth and whether their prospects and behaviours do actually vary from their counterparts in other regions of the world or from previous generations of African youth Such studies include cross country analyses of youth employment patterns and modes of political participation in depth examination of the behaviours and aspirations of the urban youth and critical reflections on the impact of rural employment initiatives vocational education and learnership programmes The incorporation of multiple methods and disciplines as well as its attention to policy issues ensures that the book will be of great interest to graduate students researchers and professional researchers whose work lies at the intersection of African area studies and development studies as well as those focused on development economics political science and public policy and administration
