The Skyward Trend of Thought van Leeuwen (T. A. P.),1988 The Chicago Tribune Tower Competition Katherine Solomonson,2003-11-15 In 1922 the Chicago Tribune sponsored an international competition to design its new corporate headquarters Both a serious design contest and a brilliant publicity stunt the competition received worldwide attention for the hundreds of submissions from the sublime to the ridiculous it garnered In this lavishly illustrated book Katherine Solomonson tells the fascinating story of the competition the diverse architectural designs it attracted and its lasting impact She shows how the Tribune used the competition to position itself as a civic institution whose new headquarters would serve as a defining public monument for Chicago For architects planners and others the competition sparked influential debates over the design and social functions of skyscrapers It also played a crucial role in the development of advertising consumer culture and a new national identity in the turbulent years after World War I Models of Heaven M. Francis

Mannion,2023-08-31 Many people nowadays are confused about the topic of heaven skeptical about it or think it beyond description This book argues that without venturing into the esoteric or fanciful we can know more about heaven than we think Did you know for instance that heavenly rest will be exciting and dynamic That we will be overwhelmed and transformed by the beauty of God That we will dance with the Trinity sing with the angels and enjoy the delightful company of the saints including the saints we have known and loved on earth The book will deal with what we will be doing in the Holy City and in the magnificence of the new creation and what it means to say that we will feast at the heavenly banquet If you want answers to these questions at once inspired by Christian tradition and modern insight and presented in a fresh and compelling manner this book is for you It is written not only for theologians and specialists but also for inquiring Catholics and other Christians seeking to deepen their understanding of life after death It will serve theology students seminarians clergy religious educators and parish study groups Readers willing to invest time and energy in the book will find their view of heaven deepened and expanded Faith in the Market John Michael Giggie,Diane H. Winston,2002 Reveals the many ways in which religious groups actually embraced commercial culture to establish an urban presence back cover

Vertical Stephen Graham,2016-10-11 Vertical will make you look at the world around you anew this is a revolution in understanding your place in the world Today we live in a world that can no longer be read as a two dimensional map but must now be understood as a series of vertical strata that reach from the satellites that encircle our planet to the tunnels deep within the ground In Vertical Stephen Graham rewrites the city at every level how the geography of inequality politics and identity is determined in terms of above and below Starting at the edge of earth s atmosphere and in a series of riveting studies descending through each layer Graham explores the world of drones the city from the viewpoint of an aerial bomber the design of sidewalks and the hidden depths of underground bunkers What is Architecture? Andrew Ballantyne,2013-11-05 Architecture can influence the way we feel and can help us along as we go about our lives or sabotage our habitual ways of doing things The essays collected here challenge and help to define a view of architecture which ranges from the minimal domesticity of Diogenes barrel to the exuberant experiments of the contemporary avant garde There are essays by philosophers architects and art historians including Roger Scruton Bernard Tschumi Demetri Pophyrios Kenneth Frampton Diane Ghirardo and David Goldblatt

Tower Power: The US on a Freudian Couch after 9/11 Devrim F Kilicer Yarangumeli,2012-05-25 Tower Power presents an engaging series of discussions in dialogue on one of the first truly interdisciplinary and historically informed studies of the American skyscraper and September 11 Devrim F Kilicer s book offers a critical inspection of the ways in which the center of the center the vertical temenos of the United States New York City is comprehended as the place for the American Dream of material success with its overwhelming bundle of skyscrapers The author contends that it is only by approaching the phenomenon of September 11 in the context of iconic American skyscrapers that we can truly understand the ways September 11 has been canonized and imbued with a sacred character At the same time her study allows September 11 to inform our understanding of the skyscraper as the essential American architectural form She provides a socio psychoanalytic lens through the works of psychoanalysts Sigmund Freud and Jacques Lacan together with social theorists Michel Foucault and Pierre Bourdieu in understanding why New York City has been expanding vertically and what this architectonic verticality tells us about the American psyche

Manifest Destinations J. Philip Gruen,2014-09-02 In Manifest Destinations J Philip Gruen examines the ways in which tourists experienced Chicago Denver Salt Lake City and San Francisco between 1869 and 1893 a period of rapid urbanization and accelerated modernity Gruen pays particular attention to the contrast between the way these cities were promoted and the way visitors actually experienced them

"The Urban Department Store in America, 1850?930 " Louisa Iarocci,2017-07-05 In the late nineteenth century the urban department store arose as a built artifact and as a social institution in the United States While the physical building type is the foundation of this comprehensive architectural study Louisa Iarocci reaches beyond the analysis of the bricks and mortar to reconsider how the spaces of selling were culturally produced spaces as well as the product of interrelated economic social technological and aesthetic forces The agenda of the book is three fold to address the lack of a comprehensive architectural study of the nineteenth century department store in the United States to expand the analysis of the commercial city as a built and represented entity and to continue recent scholarly efforts that seek to understand commercial space as a historically specific and a conceptually perceived construct The Urban Department Store in America 1850 1930 acts as a corrective to a current imbalance in the historiography of this retailing institution that tends to privilege its role as an autonomous modern building type Instead Iarocci documents the development of the department store as an urban institution that grew out of the built space of the city and the lived spaces of its occupants

Monumental London Richard Barras,2023-10-26 This book presents an original interpretation of the building history of London in terms of its evolving political economy Each of the seven ages of the city from the Roman to the modern are portrayed through their monumental buildings concentrating in particular on their symbolic purpose as expressions of the status and authority of those who built them The concluding synthesis explores how these successive layers of building can be seen to be a product of the evolving class structure the changing distribution of wealth and the shifting struggle for political power within the city and the nation Although the focus is on London the analysis is applicable to any urbanized economy at any stage of development This book offers unique insight into London as a landscape of power and as a city that has assumed a succession of identities over the last two millennia It will be relevant to students and researchers interested in urban economy economic history and the political economy
