So Red the Rose

STARK YOUNG

Preface by George Garrett

The great Black poet and literary giant Sterling A. Brown reviewed So Red The Rose soon after it was published in 1934. He called it the story of:

"...an ideal plantation, peopled with feudal lords (pirated from Walter Scott) living a life of leisure, beauty, and noblesse oblige, graciously condescending to the adoration of black serfs, called servants never slaves, untroubled by grief, unacquainted with wrong, until the cruel Civil War—pardon, the War Between the States. Then our old Kentucky home (Mississippi in this case)—good night! So runs an American dream of frequent recurrence."
