Cross-Cultural Dimensions in Conscious Thought George A. De Vos,Eric S. De Vos,2004-03-12 Cross Cultural Dimensions in Conscious Thought represents a major contribution describing an empirically validated method for analyzing the thematic content of narratives as a tool for comparative research in Anthropology Cultural Psychology and Ethnopsychiatry This second volume in the two volume series presents research conducted in Ireland Kenya Japan the Philippines Canada the United States India Brazil and Venezuela This research illustrates for the cross cultural researcher the usefulness of projective techniques as a means for eliciting culturally relevant information from informants It also exemplifies how the analysis of narrative themes when it is related to other material obtained in field settings can reveal meaningful within group and between group differences in human experience and can help us make sense of conscious human experience across a wide range of sociocultural contexts Reinventing Mona Jennifer Coburn,2005-01-01 With her gift for mixing sparkling humor with moments of true to life poignancy the acclaimed author of The Wife of Reilly delivers a character rich novel about following one s impulses embracing change and finally taking a chance on love Elysia Malcolm Chester,2012-07-26 Courtney looked at her small drab room and sighed Her dolls sat in a corner along with her warrior princess outfit sword and shield She spent countless hours playing with these toys one moment giving tea to her dolls and the next fighting her friends as the warrior princess While her real world life had become a much better place since she had visited Elysia every night she still missed her earlier childhood when she and both her parents spent so much time together She lived in a happy world then one filled with family parties trips to the movies and parks and just time spent quietly together Then the anger and the darkness came Her father and mother suddenly lost their jobs and the arguments started soon after Her mom found work at another company but her dad did not find a new job Then one day after a long argument the police came and took her dad away Courtney had seen him only once from afar since that terrible day In her mind she journeyed back to this time Courtney lay in her bed waiting for sleep to come Just a few months ago Courtney had been able to fall asleep as soon as her head hit the pillow When sleep finally came this night Courtney found herself in front of an elaborate wrought iron gate with a large sign reading Elysia set amid the swirling pieces of iron The sun shone very brightly birds sang happily and sweet flower smells escaped from the spaces between the iron bars of the fence The place looked very much like illustrations in her books but instead of being pictures on a page or the more fuzzy parts of the dreams she remembered this place seemed very real to her as real as the life she ordinarily led Even in her eleven year old mind Courtney knew this place could not exist but nonetheless she stood here

It's all Sales - People buy from people Dick Tol,Wim Bouman,2009-10-20 Dick Tol started writing down his experiences because his friend Wim Bouman noticed the benefits that could be derived by others from Dick s experiences Given Wim s background in Sales it was no surprise that he was able to draw an analogy between Dick s experiences and selling That is why Wim analysed every story and added useful theoretical background information and relevant tools for those who are interested in Sales and who are also convinced that people buy from people It is also relevant to those interested in real life experiences for they will find stories they can relate to and may even benefit from in a business setting but also in their private lives
