Pevsner: The BBC Years Stephen Games, 2016-03-09 Pevsner The BBC Years gives the first full account of Sir Nikolaus Pevsner's engagement with the BBC at a time when both were the dominant institutions in their own fields Pevsner as the most persuasive figure in architecture and art history the BBC as the country's sole broadcaster A German emigr Pevsner was not at first trusted to speak on the air and was only invited to appear at the very end of the war in spite of his growing eminence in academia and publishing With the arrival of the Third Programme in 1946 however he quickly became a broadcasting celebrity and one whom senior BBC figures regarded as essential and novel listening Pevsner The BBC Years looks at the sudden rise in Pevsner's standing at the BBC at what he was admired for and at the circumstances surrounding his being commissioned in the mid 1950s to give the first series of Reith Lectures on an arts subject the relationship between visual expression and national identity The book explains the roles played by Geoffrey Grigson Basil Taylor Anna Kallin and Leonie Cohn in advancing Pevsner's BBC career analyses the literary character of his broadcasting and considers the function of his talks as an extension of European belletrism It also demonstrates the significance of his concurrent editorship of the King Penguin series of books In addition Pevsner The BBC Years documents the unravelling of Pevsner's reputation It shows how he was caught between changing fashions in media culture and damaged by doubts about the safety of his ideas both within the BBC and externally among British conservatives who found him too radical and American radicals who found him too conservative In Pevsner The BBC Years correspondence from the BBC's archives provides a case study of scholarly thought being exposed to independent scrutiny a process with lessons for today King Penguins Michael Lake, 2014

Cheap Modernism Lise

Jaillant, 2017-04-17 We often think of Mrs Dalloway or A Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man as difficult books originally published in small print runs for a handful of readers But from the mid 1920s these texts and others were available in cheap format across Europe Uniform series of reprints such as the Travellers Library the Phoenix Library Tauchnitz and Albatross sold modernism to a wide audience thus transforming a little read highbrow movement into a popular phenomenon The expansion of the readership for modernism was not only vertical from high to low but also spatial since publisher's series were distributed within and outside metropolitan centres in Britain continental Europe and elsewhere Many non English native speakers discovered texts by Joyce Woolf and others in the original language a fact that has rarely been mentioned in histories of modernism Drawing on extensive work in neglected archives Cheap Modernism will be of interest to all those who want to know how the new literature became a global commercial hit

Pevsner: The Complete Broadcast Talks

Stephen Games, 2016-04-22 This book brings together the surviving texts of the 113 talks on art and architecture that we know of given by the art historian Sir Nikolaus Pevsner on radio and television between 1945 1977 It includes the seven texts of the 1955 Reith Lectures in their original broadcast form as well as lectures that Pevsner gave in German for the BBC in London and RIAS in Berlin and on the radio in New Zealand These talks are important as an example of the attempt by the BBC in particular to provide intellectual programming for the mass population The talks are important for what they reveal about changing tastes in the treatment of the arts as a broadcast topic as well as offering a case study of the development of one particular historian's approach to a subject that was gaining ground in universities as a direct result of his popularisation of it. They show what topics were thought to be central to the artistic agenda in the mid years of the last century whether from an academic or journalistic perspective and reveal the mode and manner of academic engagement with the public over the period. Forty six of these talks were published in 2002 on the centenary of Pevsner's birth in a trade edition. At the time his reputation as an active force in architectural thinking had long been eclipsed and interest in him had waned. Since then there has been a turn around in tastes and Pevsner's role within his chosen field is now being actively studied and discussed by a new generation for whom he is central to an understanding of the 20th century. There is therefore a real need for this book. In addition to containing twice the number of talks as the previous volume it is supplemented with explanatory introductions, footnotes and citations. It also reveals as far as this is possible alternative versions of Pevsner's texts as they appeared at different stages in the original production process. As such this edition can be relied on by academics as scholarly and Anais Nin Suzanne Nalbantian, 1997-07-13 This book of essays is the first to probe Anais Nin's achievements as a literary artist. With an introduction by the editor Suzanne Nalbantian the collection examines the literary strategies of Nin in their psychoanalytical and stylistic dimensions. Various contributors scrutinize Nin's artistry identifying her unique modernist techniques and her poetic vision. Others observe the transfer of her psychoanalytical positions to narrative. The volume also contains fresh views of Nin by her brother Joaquin Nin Culmell as well as innovative analyses of the reception of her works.
