Asia-Pacific Secondary States as Kingmakers Richard J. Cook, Maximilian Ohle, Zhaoying Han, 2025-05-30 Focusing on the Asia Pacific region Cook Ohle and Han investigate the escalating strategic competition between China and the US They explore the dynamics of key regional secondary states caught in the middle namely Japan South Korea the Philippines and Vietnam emphasising their crucial role as potential kingmakers in the shifting balance of power China and the US are competing to win influence over these regional linchpins to advance their geopolitical ambitions and ultimately win the strategic competition Elucidating a power of the weak paradox this contribution examines the challenging choices faced by these secondary states as they navigate alignment pressures which influence the trajectory of the great power strategic competition Drawing upon a range of first hand government sources and regional perspectives the authors take the temperature of the China US strategic competition revealing the intricate influencing dynamics and perilous choices linchpins are being pushed to make that will determine the fate of the Asia Pacific This is a timely resource for researchers students scholars and politicians navigating the complex realm of international relations by providing a profound exploration of power struggles strategic choices and the often overlooked role of secondary states

The Kingmaker Tony Bridwell, 2016-06-14 At the heart of this leadership story is the central idea that success where purpose talents and resources come together to meet the needs of others cannot be achieved in isolation In The Kingmaker Kyle Ellis the CEO of powerhouse PR firm Ellis International is known in an elite circle of people as The Kingmaker Unlike others in his field Kyle has the ability to unlock the true potential within his clients while guiding them to the world's highest levels of power After years of masterfully engineering careers to the height of success Kyle suddenly finds that an alarming number of his Kings as they are known within his close network are falling from power Over the course of only a few short weeks two of Kyle's most high profile clients have collapsed into trouble Kyle is forced to step in to play damage control not only to save their careers but in one case their very life With longtime friend and driver Parker McIntosh offering keen insights into the motivations of people in their circle the two form a perfect pairing to master the strategic chessboard of business and politics

The Making of an African King Anthony Ephirim-Donkor, 2019-01-04 In this edition of The Making of an African King Patrilineal and Matrilineal Struggle Among the wutu Effutu of Ghana Revised Updated every chapter is updated taking into account the 2015 Ghana Supreme Court ruling on the internecine kingship struggle among the wutu Effutu of Simpa Winneba The patrilineal Otumfuo Royal Family sued the Acquah faction and proponents of matrilineal succession in 1976 seeking confirmation of their inalienable right as the sole kingmakers of Simpa and also for the court to place perpetual injunction on the Acquahs never to interfere in the royal affairs of Simpa During the intervening decades from 1976 2015 Simpa witnessed a spate of intermittent political violence especially the months leading to their annual Nyant r aboakyir Festival all aimed at preventing the king from propitiating the ancestors and deities of Simpa led by P nkyae Otu With the Supreme Court ruling people now have the opportunity to read the judgment in its entirety and make up their own minds What is actually fascinating about the whole internecine royal struggle is that we have a situation whereby a matrilineal political system practiced by the Akan is displacing a long established patrilineal system of descent traditionally practiced by the Guan speaking people of Simpa Such an idea would be unheard of in the West but this is what is happening among the wutu Effutu of Simpa Winneba socio culturally and politically Indeed it shows how unique and transformative the Akan abusua a mother and her children system is all about
