Property Law: Current Issues and Debates Paul Jackson, David C. Wilde, 2018-12-20 Published in 1999 Questions of human rights changes in social structures economic climates and technological developments all impact on property law This edited collection provides an in depth analysis of present law and practical proposals for the future written by the foremost international figures in the field from a variety of theoretical and professional backgrounds The Parliamentary Debates (official Report). Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons, 1924 Contains the 4th session of the 28th Parliament through the 1st session of the 48th Parliament An Empire of Air and Water Siobhan Carroll, 2015-03-04 Planetary spaces such as the poles the oceans the atmosphere and subterranean regions captured the British imperial imagination Intangible inhospitable or inaccessible these blank spaces what Siobhan Carroll calls atopias existed beyond the boundaries of known and inhabited places The eighteenth century conceived of these geographic outliers as the natural limits of imperial expansion but scientific and naval advances in the nineteenth century created new possibilities to know and control them This development preoccupied British authors who were accustomed to seeing atopic regions as otherworldly marvels in fantastical tales Spaces that an empire could not colonize were spaces that literature might claim as literary representations of atopias came to reflect their authors attitudes toward the growth of the British Empire as well as the part they saw literature playing in that expansion Siobhan Carroll interrogates the role these blank spaces played in the construction of British identity during an era of unsettling global circulations Examining the poetry of Samuel T Coleridge and George Gordon Byron and the prose of Sophia Lee Mary Shelley and Charles Dickens as well as newspaper accounts and voyage narratives she traces the ways Romantic and Victorian writers reconceptualized atopias as threatening or at times vulnerable These textual explorations of the earth s highest reaches and secret depths shed light on persistent facets of the British global and environmental imagination that linger in the twenty first century The Nation, 1881 Land, Mobility, and Belonging in West Africa Carola Lentz, 2013-07-05 An ethnographic study of issues of land rights property regimes and ethnicity in West Africa Focusing on an area of the savannah in northern Ghana and southwestern Burkina Faso Land Mobility and Belonging in West Africa explores how rural populations have secured contested and negotiated access to land and how they have organized their communities despite being constantly on the move as farmers or migrant laborers Carola Lentz seeks to understand how those who claim native status hold sway over others who are perceived to have come later As conflicts over land agriculture and labor have multiplied in Africa Lentz shows how politics and power play decisive roles in determining access to scarce resources and in changing notions of who belongs and who is a stranger Illuminates the distinctive historical trajectory of land claims authority and belonging among the Dagara and Sisala peoples of the Black Volta region and locates this specific case history within broader debates over transformation in access use and control over land in colonial and postcolonial Africa Sara Berry Johns Hopkins University Important in the sense that it constitutes a detailed historical study of how complex narratives of belonging and notions of property interlock It is academic work of the first order Christian Lund Roskilde University The British and Foreign Anti-slavery Reporter ,1843 Intellectual Property Law Lionel Bently,Brad Sherman,Dev Gangjee,Phillip Johnson,2022 Intellectual Property Law is the definitive textbook on this subject an all embracing and detailed guide to intellectual property law It clearly sets out the law in relation to copyright patents trade marks passing off and confidentiality whilst enlivening the text with illustrations and diagrams

The Domesday Quest Michael Wood,2011-10-31 In 1086 Domesday Book perhaps the most remarkable historical document in existence was compiled This tremendous story of England and its people was made at the behest of the Norman king William the Conqueror It was called Domesday the day of judgement because like the day of judgement its decisions are unalterable In Search of the Roots of England is not only a study of the ancient manuscript but an attempt to analyse the world that Domesday Book so vividly portrayed By skilful use of the Domesday record historian Michael Wood examines Norman society and the Anglo Saxon Roman and even the Iron Age cultures that preceded it Wood is a perceptive entertaining and enthusiastic companion Sunday Times Wood is a lively storyteller Washington Post Prairie Farmer ,1862

A Sociolegal Analysis of Formal Land Tenure Systems Bernardo Ribeiro de Almeida,2022-03-24 This sociolegal study focuses on the political legal and institutional problems and dilemmas of regulating land tenure By studying the development of the Timorese formal land tenure system this book engages in the larger debate about the role of state systems in addressing and aggravating social problems such as insecurity poverty inequality destruction of nature and cultural and social estrangement Land tenure issues in Timor Leste are complex and deeply shaped by the nation s history Taking an insider s perspective based on the author s experience in Timorese state administration and through the investigation of five analytical themes political environment lawmaking legal framework institutional framework and social relationships and practices this book studies the development of the Timorese formal land tenure system from independence in 2002 to 2018 It shows how political legal and administrative decisions on land administration are made what and who influences them which problems and dilemmas emerge and how the formal system works in practice The result is a portrait of a young nation grappling with the enormous task of creating a land tenure system that can address the needs of its citizens in the wake of centuries of socio political tumult and huge fluctuations in resources The book concludes by highlighting the importance of lawmaking and how abuses of power can be curbed by adequate administrative processes and laws Finally it argues that land administration is primarily a political matter The political dimension of technical solutions must be considered if we aim to achieve fairer formal land tenure systems The pertinence of the topics covered the multi disciplinary perspective and the research methodology followed make this book appealing to a variety of readers including international organizations practitioners academics and students engaged in land administration post colonial and conflict issues lawmaking rule of law public administration and issues of access and exclusion 1968 Annual Supplement John

B. Simeone, Alfred de Grazia, Carl E. Martinson, 2013-12-01      Resources in Education ,1979      Letterpress The Crisis: or, The change from error and misery to truth and happiness, ed. by R. Owen Crisis and national co-operative trades' union gazette, 1833      Agricultural Cooperation and Rural Credit in Europe American Commission for Study of Agriculture in Europe, 1913      The Index ,1878      Metternich, the German Question and the Pursuit of Peace Barbora Pásztorová, 2022-03-07 Despite the large number of books and studies written about Metternich there is still a period of his political career that scholars neglect to this day the 1840s This book offers an analysis of Metternich's German policy in the years 1840-1848 and thus fills a gap in Metternich studies Analysing this period is important due to the fact that over the course of those less than nine years Metternich lost his influence within the German Confederation He represented a certain way of behaving moderate calm and reconciliatory but it was an attitude which was rejected during the period of rising mass nationalism Nevertheless he continued to endeavour to steer this escalating nationalism and by applying calming policies prevent it from causing armed conflicts in Europe Since Metternich conceived the German Confederation at the Congress of Vienna in 1815 as one of the pillars of the European peace settlement the issue is viewed from the perspective of European crises of the time from the Rhine Crisis to the Swiss civil war Similarly it presents his policy in a broader context of economic and social history The book follows revisionist research on Metternich and refutes some of the clichés still associated with his policy      The Law Times ,1874      The Politics of Imagining Asia Hui Wang, 2011-03-31 One of China's most influential intellectuals questions the validity of thinking about Chinese history and its legacy from a Western conceptual framework Wang Hui argues that we need to more fully understand China's past in order to imagine alternative ways of conceiving Asia and world order      Needles from the Nile Chris Elliott, 2022-04-15 In the hearts of London and New York stand their two oldest public monuments Cleopatra's Needles the last of a series of obelisks from Ancient Egypt to be moved abroad during a period of over two thousand years This book uses the Needles to examine how objects embody the cultures that create them and how the use value and meaning of these objects change as they are transferred between cultures by gift sale barter or theft It explores the way in which obelisks functioned as imperial trophies how their transfer was part of the complex political manoeuvring between European powers America the Ottoman Empire and the semi-autonomous rulers of Egypt and how their acquisition reflected the relative power of these parties In contrast it also examines the crucial role that private individuals and finance played in the acquisition and transport of the obelisks and how popular understanding of them and of the culture they came from often differed from those of social and professional elites It also relates the Needles to contemporary debates about the ownership of cultural artefacts the legacy of colonial history and the nature of reception as the process of understanding and valuing the past and its surviving material and immaterial culture      Property and Political Order in Africa Catherine Boone, 2014-02-10 In sub-Saharan Africa property relationships around land and access to natural resources vary across localities districts and farming regions These differences produce patterned variations in relationships between individuals communities and the state This book captures these patterns in an analysis of structure and variation in rural land tenure regimes In most farming areas state authority is deeply embedded in land regimes drawing farmers ethnic insiders and outsiders lineages villages and communities into direct and indirect relationships with political authorities at different levels of the state apparatus The analysis shows how property institutions institutions that define political authority and hierarchy around land shape dynamics of great interest to scholars of politics including the dynamics of land related competition and conflict territorial conflict patron client relations electoral cleavage and mobilization ethnic politics rural rebellion and the localization and nationalization of political competition
