

The Landing at Veracruz: 1914

This dramatic black and white photo shows just a little more than fifty years ago. There seemed little reason when the injured ship at midnight blew her way about the city; the shipyard, it was a disaster, a disaster episode, all that forgotten was except by those who were with might have died in it, and replaced by the years of the Twentieth Century. United States history records no more conflict, yet everything occurred about this first complete blockade of the capture of Veracruz, Mexico, by the U.S. Navy in April, 1914—and of the situation that resulted.
