The Last Judgment and World Religions Hall Peebles,2005 Most western religions believe that when a person dies he or she goes either to heaven or to hell and remains there eternally The individual is forever numbered among the sheep who will inherit eternal life or among the goats who will suffer everlasting punishment Although belief in endless torment in hell has been increasingly questioned in recent centuries the traditional view of the four last things death judgment heaven and hell continues to shape expectations about the present and the future While this view of the last things is familiar in the West the religions of south and east Asia have a different outlook For Hinduism and Buddhism this human life is merely one in an ongoing series of lives with no clear and abiding separation between sheep and goats In this book I ask why the eastern and western beliefs are so different and I look for explanations The monotheism of the western faiths is a significant element but many other doctrines including views of the nature of God scripture and authority human nature justice and punishment are also involved I conclude that the tradition of an everlasting hell is incompatible with an accurate interpretation of scripture and with the Christian doctrine of God The goats do not exist in the West as well as the East Examining the major world religions Hall Peebles has found deep differences among them about the last judgment which has been so crucial to traditional Christianity He asks Why do the eschatologies of east and west differ so sharply Why is there no eternal hell in Hinduism and Buddhism The answers to these questions are important to theologians historians of religion and students of religion and everyone else who thinks talks and preaches about hell Moreover the religions views of the last things not only govern their expectations about the future these views also color their understanding of human nature and society in this world here and now. Peebles' unique contribution to the understanding of western religions is his argument that hell cannot be eternal. Examining carefully the eastern religions which have no tradition of eternal hell and the western tradition in support of it, he concludes that an eternal hell is illogical and incompatible with western beliefs especially as articulated in Christianity. The subject of this book is not unique but its breadth of treatment, the comparison with eastern religions and above all the conclusion rejecting the eternality of hell are taken together unique. This book is an essential addition to scholarship in eschatology.

Encyclopedia of Death and the Human Experience Clifton D. Bryant, Dennis L. Peck, 2009-07-15. Death and dying and death-related behavior involve the causes of death and the nature of the actions and emotions surrounding death among the living. Interest in the varied dimensions of death and dying has led to the development of death studies that move beyond medical research to include behavioral science disciplines and practitioner-oriented fields. As a result of this interdisciplinary interest, the literature in the field has proliferated. This two-volume resource addresses the traditional death and dying-related topics but also presents a unique focus on the human experience to create a new dimension to the study of death and dying. With more than 300 entries, the Encyclopedia of Death and the Human Experience includes the complex cultural beliefs and traditions and the institutionalized social rituals that surround dying and death as well as the array of emotional responses relating to bereavement, grieving, and mourning. The Encyclopedia is enriched through important multidisciplinary contributions and perspectives as it arranges, organizes, defines, and clarifies a comprehensive list of death-related perspectives, concepts, and theories.

Key Features: Imparts significant insight into the process of dying and the phenomenon of death. Includes contributors from Asia, Africa, Australia, Canada, China, eastern, southern, and western Europe, Iceland, Scandinavia, South America, and the United States who offer important interdisciplinary and cross-cultural perspectives. Provides a special focus on the cultural artifacts and social institutions and practices that constitute the human experience. Addresses death-related terms and concepts such as angel makers, equivocal death, end of life decision making, near-death experiences, cemeteries, ghost photography, halo nurses, caregiver stress, cyberfunerals, global religious beliefs and traditions, and death denial. Presents a selective use of figures, tables, and images.

Key Themes: Arts, Media, and Popular Culture Perspectives; Causes of Death; Conceptualization of Death; Dying and the Human Experience; Coping With Loss and Grief; The Human Experience; Cross-Cultural Perspectives; Culturally Determined Social Oriented and Violent Forms of Death; Developmental and Demographic Perspectives; Funerals and Death-Related Activities; Legal Matters; Process of Dying; Symbolic Rituals, Ceremonies, and Celebrations of Life; Theories and Concepts; Unworldly Entities and Events. With an array of topics that include traditional subjects and important emerging ideas, the Encyclopedia

A History of the World's Religions bridges the interval between the founding of religions and their present state and gives students an accurate look at the religions of the world by including descriptive and interpretive details from original source materials Refined by over forty years of dialogue and correspondence with religious experts and practitioners around the world A History of the World's Religions is widely regarded as the hallmark of scholarship fairness and accuracy in its field It is also the most thorough yet manageable history of world religion available in a single volume A History of the World's Religions examines the following topics Some Primal and Bygone Religions The Religions of South Asia The Religions of East Asia The Religions of the Middle East This fourteenth edition is fully updated throughout with new images and inset text boxes to help guide students and instructors Complete with figures timelines and maps this is an ideal resource for anyone wanting an accessible and comprehensive introduction to the world's religions Science & Religion John Ross

Jr.,2016-12-19 Science and Religion Interpersonal Dialogue Discussion and Debate is a unique handbook for college students and adults interested in exploring the persuasive and rhetorical strategies surrounding today's fashionable topics in science and religion Offered in three accommodating sections John Ross presents valuable chapters on Humans Communication and Language the Importance and Meaning of Interpersonal Dialogue and a very timely chapter entitled Avenues of Dialogue Dissimilarity Discord and Alliance Part II explores captivating issues surrounding Faith the After Life Apologetics and Atheistic Scientism There is also an innovative section on the human brain higher intelligence and even on the questionable phenomena of neuroethology UFO cults and the disputable God Helmet The final chapters explore contemporary miracles creation accounts astrobiology and the current challenges surrounding SETI in its quest for extraterrestrial life Ross eloquently addresses the possibilities of alien life and the resulting consequences and challenges it brings for Biblicists in the world of Christian fundamentalism The book also includes a synopsis of the major world religions and a final section entitled Group Presentation Models in Science and Religion This handbook is unique in that it smartly combines principles of communication rhetoric and public speaking with contemporary issues in science theology and religion

Summary of Huston Smith's The World's Religions, Revised and Updated Everest Media,2022-06-13T22:59:00Z Please note This is a companion version not the original book Sample Book Insights 1 The purpose of this book is to listen to the many different religions around the world and find common themes We cannot know for sure whether or not the voices we hear blend in strange ethereal harmony but we can listen carefully and with full attention to each voice 2 The book does not attempt to give a rounded view of the religions considered Each host differences that are too numerous to be delineated in a single chapter The first question facing an author is how many to include and which ones 3 The full story of religion is not rose colored It includes human sacrifice and scapegoating fanaticism and persecution the Christian Crusades and the holy wars of Islam It includes witch hunts in Massachusetts monkey trials in Tennessee and snake worship in the Ozarks 4 The best religions in the world are those that enamor their followers with the Truth However institutions which are made up of people with their inbuilt frailties are built of vices as well as virtues

World's major religions, doctrines and sects Abdul Waheed , Most of the population of the world is still of those who believe in religion Religion is the priceless heritage of man There are many religions in almost every country of the world The ancient history of that country is still present in the holy books of that religion Religion books are the only source of knowledge of ancient history but today in the modern age scientific age the new generation is turning away from religion The biggest reason for this is lack of proper knowledge about religion and not reading holy books In today s era identification of sects in every religion is due to new things concoctions in religion It is almost impossible to get information about religious sects because there is lack of books related to it and no one gives correct information I wanted to know about this in many religions but no one told about it and I met many alims scholars but could not get any clear information and I went to Parsi Zarathustra pastor but there also got disappointed And met Arya Samaj and many other people but everyone said that you should read your holy book Quran Sharif Then I thought why these people are not giving any information Many people provoked me not to get into its affair otherwise there could be a fight Then I took support of libraries but that too lacked Hindi language books so I took support of English Urdu B A M A books and some encyclopedias dictionaries helped a lot Tafseers explanation of Bible and Quran Sharif also helped a lot in this This book has been written since 28 09 2004 and is now completed on 30 08 2008 Today there is no difference between ancient history and religious history only language so pls read My book thanks Also available in paperback version
