

'DEBT' IS PAID BY LAST MAN

Survivor, 89, of Minnesota
Civil War Group Honors
Buddies at Banquet

Stillwater, Minn., July 21—(U.P.) —Charles Lockwood, 89-year-old last survivor of Minnesota's Last Man club, paid another debt of memory today to the 99 Civil war volunteers who marched away with him to the battlefront 70 years ago.

"It doesn't seem just right for me to be all alone," he said, "but maybe pretty soon I'll be marching after them to the place where there are no wars."

Lockwood told the story of his comrades and of the club which they founded at a banquet tonight attended by more than 100 state officials and veterans of other wars.

Thirty-three vacant chairs draped in black represented the departed members of the club. The club was closed out a year ago today when Lockwood, straight and sprightly despite a long life of hard work, drank a toast from the bottle of wine.

"Maybe this will be the last year," Lockwood mused at the banquet, "but I'd like to be here to vote for President Hoover in 1932, though."

United States Army Combat Forces Journal , 1988 After the Last Man Toivo Koivukoski, 1955-01-01 In this unique enlightening monograph Toivo Koivukoski explores the circumstances that have led modern society to use the concept of progress as a surrogate cosmology that gives individuals a sense of place and purpose By linking various historical paradigms from German Idealist philosophy to contemporary philosophies of technology this work of political theory describes an alternative immanent pattern of development that is in a sense driven by its own unintended consequences The meditations outlined within this book map out the hypertext pathways of our global system making its constitutive relations and underlying thought processes transparent Koivukoski mirrors the new hyper realities of electronic communications technologies by structuring the text in compact subchapters that are linked through an index of subjects that allows readers to find their own philosophy by jumping to areas of interest If as he argues history understood in a linear lockstep fashion is over then the ways of developing concepts should change respectively so that the sorts of retrievals anticipations loops and leaps that characterize nonlinear networked thinking are consciously realized in an identity of form and substance
